Judgment of God — How Divine Fire Destroys Confusion, Breaks Spiritual Captivity, and Calls the Elect Into Zion

EN

through hundreds of books, teachings, and prophetic writings, his work focuses on the Finished Work of Christ, the revelation of Zion, the manifestation of the sons of God, the judgment of God, reconciliation, restoration, and the unfolding plan of the ages.

His writings challenge religious tradition while revealing the deeper purpose of divine judgment, spiritual transformation, and the restoration of creation through Christ. With a strong emphasis on scripture, progressive revelation, and Kingdom truth, Carl's work seeks to awaken hungry believers into deeper union with God, spiritual maturity, and the living reality of the Kingdom of God.

Babylon is trembling beneath the fire of God.

Systems that once appeared immovable are beginning to crack under the weight of divine judgment as the Spirit calls a people upward into truth, liberty, and Zion. Across the earth many are awakening from religious captivity, sensing that something greater than tradition, ritual, and institutional Christianity is emerging in this hour. The Lord is exposing mixture, shaking dead systems, consuming false foundations, and calling His elect into deeper union with Himself. The judgment of God is not merely wrath against evil — it is the divine fire that destroys confusion so righteousness, truth, and life may arise in the earth.

Judgment of God — The Fall of Religious Babylon is a prophetic and revelatory book unveiling how the judgment of God destroys spiritual confusion, exposes dead religious systems, and calls the elect into Zion. This book explores Mystery Babylon, divine fire, spiritual captivity, the judgment of religious systems, and the rise of Zion through the full counsel of God from Genesis to Revelation. Judgment of God: Introduction

Babylon Is More Than a City — It Is a System of Confusion

Religious Babylon was never merely an ancient city upon the Euphrates. Babylon is a spiritual condition. It is confusion raised into a system. It is mixture institutionalized. It is man building upward without the life of God. From the tower of Babel to the harlot system of Revelation, scripture reveals a continual pattern of humanity constructing religious structures apart from the living government of the Spirit.

EN

the generations men have mistaken religious activity for divine life. towers nave been built. Systems have been established. Empires of doctrine, tradition, hierarchy, and external form have spread across the earth while multitudes remained spiritually starving within the walls of organized captivity. The tragedy of Babylon is not merely false religion — it is religion without the living presence of God.

Yet the Lord has never abandoned His people within Babylon.

From Genesis to Revelation a divine cry echoes through the ages:

“Come out of her, My people.”

Even now the Spirit is awakening hungry sons and daughters who can no longer live satisfied within systems that replace revelation with ritual, life with form, and union with institutional control. Across the earth many are sensing an inward shaking. Old wineskins are cracking. Long-standing traditions are being exposed. Systems once viewed as immovable are trembling beneath the fire of divine judgment.

This shaking is not the hatred of God.

It is the judgment of God.

And the judgment of God is far deeper than human religion has understood.

Judgment is not merely wrath. Judgment is not divine cruelty. Judgment is not eternal vengeance flowing from an angry deity. Throughout scripture the judgments of God repeatedly serve a higher purpose:

- to expose deception
- to overthrow oppression
- to break spiritual captivity
- to purify sons
- to remove corruption

righteousness

- and to restore creation back into harmony with God.

When God judged Egypt, captives came out.

When God judged Babylon, Zion was restored.

When God judged religious systems through Christ, the veil was torn.

And when God judges Mystery Babylon in this hour, the elect are called upward into greater life, greater truth, and greater union with Him.

The fall of Babylon is not the end of God's purpose.

It is the unveiling of it.

For the Lord never tears down without preparing to build something greater. As confusion collapses, Zion arises. As dead systems are shaken, the Kingdom that cannot be shaken begins to emerge with greater clarity. As mixture is consumed, the pure river of life begins flowing again from the throne of God.

This book is not written to produce fear.

It is written to unveil purpose.

It is written to reveal why the judgment of God must come upon every system that obscures His nature, imprisons His people, merchandises truth, and resists the living government of His Spirit.

The fire of God is moving through the earth.

Babylon is trembling.

And Zion is rising.

THE TOWER OF BABEL — THE BIRTH OF RELIGIOUS CONFUSION

The spirit of Babylon did not begin in Revelation.

It began in Genesis.

Long before Nebuchadnezzar built his empire...

long before Mystery Babylon appeared riding the beast...

long before the great harlot intoxicated the nations...

the seed of Babylon was already growing in the heart of fallen humanity.

EN

f Babel was not merely an ancient construction project.

It was the birth of religious confusion.

It was the beginning of man attempting to ascend into spiritual greatness apart from the life and government of God.

BABYLON IS MAN BUILDING UPWARD WITHOUT GOD

Genesis records:

“And they said, Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name.” — Genesis 11:4

Within this single verse the entire spirit of Babylon is unveiled.

Notice the language carefully:

- “let us build”
- “let us ascend”
- “let us establish”
- “let us make a name”

This is humanity attempting to create spiritual greatness through human effort, human organization, human power, and human ambition.

Babylon is religion built from the earth upward.

Zion is life descending from heaven downward.

ion is enormous.

Babylon is always man attempting to reach heaven without first dying to self.

It is outward construction without inward transformation.

It is flesh attempting to imitate spiritual reality.

THE FIRST RELIGIOUS SYSTEM WAS BORN AT BABEL

The tower of Babel was more than architecture.

It was a system.

A collective movement.

A unified structure created by men apart from the living rule of God.

Humanity desired:

- unity without the Spirit
- greatness without surrender
- heaven without transformation
- power without holiness
- ascension without death

This is the foundation of every false religious system throughout history.

Religious Babylon always substitutes:

EN

r revelation

- structure for life

- hierarchy for headship
- performance for union
- organization for Spirit

Babylon often appears outwardly powerful while remaining inwardly empty.

This is why many systems can possess:

- buildings
 - numbers
 - influence
 - money
 - programs
 - traditions
- while lacking:
- revelation
 - life
 - transformation
 - intimacy with God
 - the living presence of Christ

Babylon majors on external appearance while neglecting inward reality.

CONFUSION ENTERED WHEN MAN BUILT APART FROM DIVINE LIFE

Genesis says:

“Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the Lord did there confound the language of all the earth.” — Genesis 11:9

The very word Babel carries the thought of:

- confusion
- mixture
- disorder
- fragmentation

Confusion is the natural result of separation from divine life.

Whenever humanity loses union with the Spirit of God:

- division multiplies
- doctrines fracture
- systems compete
- flesh seeks control
- traditions replace revelation

Babylon is confusion organized into structure.

This is why throughout church history countless systems emerged:

- each claiming authority
 - each claiming truth
 - each dividing from the other
- while many remained spiritually starving beneath the weight of religious complexity.

The problem was never merely doctrinal disagreement.

The deeper issue was separation from the direct government of the Spirit.

BABYLON IS A SPIRITUAL CONDITION

Babylon is not limited to one denomination, one movement, or one organization.

Babylon is a condition.

It is any system built by man that replaces the living headship of Jesus Christ.

The Babylonian spirit exalts:

- image
- hierarchy
- control
- outward power
- religious merchandise
- institutional preservation

while resisting:

- brokenness
- surrender
- transformation
- direct union with Christ

This is why Isaiah wrote:

“For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne.” — Isaiah 14:13

The spirit of Babylon always seeks self-exaltation.

EN

ory without the cross.

It seeks ascension without death.

It wants crowns without surrender.

But the Kingdom of God moves in the opposite direction.

Babylon says:

| "Exalt yourself."

Christ says:

| "Humble yourself."

Babylon says:

| "Build the tower."

Christ says:

| "Become the temple."

Babylon says:

| "Make a name."

Christ says:

| "Lose your life."

This is the eternal conflict between Babylon and Zion.

EN

RELIGION DRIFTED BACK TOWARD BABEL

Throughout history many religious systems slowly drifted back toward Babel.

Men once again attempted to construct spiritual towers through:

- institutional power
- denominational authority
- theological control
- fleshly ambition
- outward performance

while neglecting the inward government of Christ.

Many systems became centered around:

- preserving structures
 - defending traditions
 - maintaining authority
 - controlling people
- instead of producing mature sons filled with the Spirit of God.

This is why multitudes today feel spiritually exhausted.

They sense:

- activity without life
- form without power
- religion without transformation
- structure without intimacy

The Spirit of God is awakening a generation that hungers for something deeper and Christianity.

EN

The elect are beginning to hear again the cry of heaven:

“Come out of her, My people.”

GOD JUDGES BABYLON TO LIBERATE HIS PEOPLE

The judgment of God against Babylon is not hatred toward people.

It is liberation from confusion.

God judges systems that imprison spiritual life.

He judges structures that obscure His nature and replace living union with outward form.

Just as God scattered Babel in Genesis, He is once again shaking every structure built apart from His Spirit.

Hebrews declares:

“Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.” — Hebrews 12:26

The shaking has a purpose.

God removes what can be shaken so that what cannot be shaken may remain.

Babylon shakes because Babylon was built by man.

EN

because Zion is built by God.

The fire of divine judgment is exposing:

- mixture
- false authority
- religious merchandise
- dead works
- fleshly systems

not merely to destroy — but to restore truth, righteousness, and spiritual liberty.

ZION IS ARISING AS BABYLON FALLS

As Babylon trembles, Zion begins to emerge.

The Lord is raising up a people who no longer seek to build towers upward through human ambition.

Instead, they become living temples filled with the Spirit of God.

This is the great transition taking place in the earth:

- from structure to life
- from ritual to revelation
- from mixture to purity
- from Babylon to Zion

The judgment of God is making this transition possible.

For the Lord never tears down without preparing to build something greater.

As confusion collapses...
truth emerges.

As systems shake...
the Kingdom arises.

As Babylon falls...
Zion begins to shine.

Chapter 2

BABYLON AND CAPTIVITY — WHEN SYSTEMS REPLACE THE PRESENCE OF GOD

Babylon did not end at Babel.

The spirit of Babylon continued growing throughout scripture until it eventually manifested outwardly as a kingdom that carried the people of God into captivity.

What began as confusion in Genesis became bondage in Babylon.

This is always the progression of false religion:

- confusion first
- captivity afterward

For whenever the living presence of God is replaced by outward systems, spiritual bondage eventually follows.

The Babylonian captivity of Israel was not merely a political event.

It was a spiritual revelation.

God allowed His people to be carried into Babylon because something had already happened within them long before they were physically removed from Jerusalem.

They had lost the inward reality of union with God while still maintaining outward religion.

This is one of the greatest dangers in all of spiritual history:
to preserve religious form while losing divine presence.

ISRAEL KEPT THE TEMPLE BUT LOST THE GLORY

Before Babylon invaded Jerusalem, Israel still possessed:

- priests
- sacrifices
- rituals
- ceremonies
- temple structure
- outward worship

Yet inwardly the nation had drifted far from the heart of God.

Religion continued outwardly while spiritual life diminished inwardly.

The prophet Ezekiel was shown the hidden condition within the house of God:

EN

man, seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here." — Ezekiel 8:6

The tragedy was not merely sin.

The tragedy was mixture.

Israel attempted to combine:

- outward worship
- inward rebellion
- temple religion
- foreign idols
- divine language
- fleshly desires

This mixture opened the door for Babylonian captivity.

Babylon gains power wherever spiritual compromise replaces living union with God.

CAPTIVITY ALWAYS FOLLOWS SPIRITUAL DECLINE

The Babylonian captivity reveals an eternal principle:
what men refuse to surrender inwardly eventually manifests outwardly.

Israel lost inward spiritual government before they lost outward national freedom.

First came:

- compromise
- mixture

EN

- dead religion

- corruption

Then came captivity.

This is why scripture repeatedly warns that outward religion alone cannot preserve spiritual life.

God never desired mere ritual.

He desired union.

He desired a people walking in:

- truth
- righteousness
- humility
- obedience
- living fellowship with Himself

But instead, many trusted in the outward structure itself.

They believed:

- the temple guaranteed safety
- religious identity guaranteed favor
- ceremonies guaranteed blessing

Yet the presence of God was already departing from the system.

This is one of the most terrifying realities in scripture:

a structure can continue functioning long after divine life has withdrawn from it.

The machinery keeps moving...

BABYLON SPECIALIZES IN OUTWARD RELIGION WITHOUT INWARD LIFE

Babylon does not mind religious activity.

In fact, Babylon often thrives on religion.

For religion without transformation is one of the greatest instruments of control in the earth.

Babylon is comfortable with:

- ceremonies
- titles
- hierarchy
- institutional power
- outward performance
- religious merchandise

as long as the people never enter true spiritual liberty.

This is why throughout history many systems tolerated:

- church attendance
- rituals
- religious language

15 while resisting:

- revelation
- sonship
- spiritual maturity
- direct union with God
- the government of the Holy Spirit

The spirit of Babylon fears mature sons because mature sons can no longer be controlled through outward systems.

This is why Babylon continually seeks to:

- centralize authority
- suppress revelation
- dominate conscience
- control access to spiritual truth

But the Kingdom of God operates differently.

The Kingdom brings believers directly into relationship with the Father through Christ.

THE RIVER OF BABYLON

Psalm 137 gives one of the most heartbreaking pictures in scripture:

“By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down, yea, we wept, when we remembered Zion.” — Psalm 137:1

erely ancient history.

This is the cry of many believers trapped within religious confusion even now.

Deep within their spirits they remember Zion.

They hunger for:

- life
- reality
- intimacy
- revelation
- spiritual freedom

Yet many remain sitting beside the rivers of Babylon:

- surrounded by religious activity
- yet inwardly thirsty
- surrounded by systems
- yet longing for presence

Babylon can entertain the soul while starving the spirit.

This is why many believers eventually begin sensing:

“There must be more than this.”

That hunger is often the beginning of divine awakening.

GOD ALLOWED CAPTIVITY — BUT HE ALSO ORDAINED DELIVERANCE

One of the deepest revelations concerning Babylon is this:

God allowed captivity...
but He never intended captivity to be permanent.

Even within judgment, restoration was already hidden in God's purpose.

The prophets continually declared:

- Babylon would fall
- captives would return
- Zion would be restored
- the temple would rise again

Why?

Because God's judgments are not merely destructive.

They are restorative.

When God judged Egypt, Israel came out.

When God judged Babylon, captives returned.

When God judged religious systems through Christ, the veil was torn.

The purpose of divine judgment is liberation from bondage.

This is why the fall of Babylon is necessary.

For as long as Babylon rules the minds of men:

- confusion continues

EN

spreads

immaturity remains

- outward religion dominates

But when Babylon begins falling... captives begin awakening.

MANY ARE LEAVING BABYLON IN THIS HOUR

Across the earth the Spirit is calling people out of systems that no longer satisfy the deep hunger within their hearts.

Many are beginning to recognize:

- religion cannot replace life
- systems cannot replace Christ
- structure cannot replace revelation
- performance cannot replace intimacy

The cry:

“Come out of her, My people”

is becoming louder with every passing year.

This does not mean hatred toward believers inside religious systems.

God still has precious people within Babylon.

Just as Daniel existed in Babylon...

EN

el prophesied in Babylon...

just as faithful captives cried for Zion while dwelling in Babylon...

many sincere believers still remain within systems today.

But the Spirit is awakening them.

The shaking has begun.

The fire of God is exposing:

- dead works
- mixture
- religious control
- spiritual merchandise
- outward religion without inward transformation

And as Babylon trembles...

the pathway to Zion begins opening once again.

ZION CANNOT ARISE UNTIL CAPTIVITY IS BROKEN

Babylon produces captivity.

Zion produces liberty.

Babylon keeps men dependent upon systems.

Zion brings believers into direct union with God.

Babylon exalts institutions.

Zion reveals the living Christ.

This is why the judgment of Babylon is necessary before the fullness of Zion can emerge.

For God is preparing a people who:

- hear His voice
- walk in His Spirit
- carry His nature
- manifest His life
- and stand free from the confusion of religious bondage.

The rivers of Babylon are drying.

The captives are awakening.

And Zion is beginning to call the elect home.

Chapter 3

MYSTERY BABYLON — THE GREAT HARLOT OF REVELATION

The spirit of Babylon that began at Babel and expanded through the kingdoms of the earth reaches its fullest prophetic unveiling in the Book of Revelation.

What began as:

- confusion
- self-exaltation
- false unity

s ambition

eventually matures into Mystery Babylon — the great harlot that intoxicates the nations.

Revelation declares:

“And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.” — Revelation 17:5

This is not merely the story of an ancient city.

This is the unveiling of a spiritual system that has spread throughout the earth and through the generations.

Babylon is called:

- a mystery
- a woman
- a harlot
- a city
- a kingdom
- a mother

because Babylon is larger than one institution or one historical empire.

Babylon is a worldwide system of spiritual mixture.

THE HARLOT SYSTEM

In scripture a pure woman represents covenant union with God.

But a harlot represents corrupted spiritual union.

The woman of Revelation 17 symbolizes religion that has lost intimacy with God while maintaining outward appearance and influence.

This is one of the most sobering revelations in all of scripture:
a system can still appear religious outwardly while inwardly becoming spiritually corrupted.

The harlot still speaks the language of heaven...
yet her heart is joined to earthly power.

She still possesses outward beauty...
yet inwardly she is filled with mixture.

She still influences multitudes...
yet she no longer carries the pure government of the Spirit.

Babylon is religion corrupted by mixture with:

- flesh
- power
- politics
- merchandise
- self-exaltation
- control

The tragedy of Babylon is not that she lacks religion.

The tragedy is that she possesses religion without purity.

BA BY ON MERCHANDISES SPIRITUAL
THINGS

Revelation 18 unveils one of the deepest sins of Babylon:
she turns spiritual things into merchandise.

The scripture declares:

“And the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies.” — Revelation 18:3

Babylon commercializes what belongs to God.

This spirit appears whenever:

- truth becomes merchandise
- ministry becomes business
- influence becomes currency
- people become products
- religion becomes industry

The Babylonian spirit uses spiritual hunger for earthly gain.

This is why Revelation describes Babylon as intoxicated with:

- wealth
- luxury
- influence
- earthly glory

while multitudes remain spiritually captive beneath her power.

Throughout history religious systems often accumulated:

power

- institutional control

- earthly authority

while many sincere believers remained starving for living revelation.

Babylon profits from spiritual dependence.

But Zion raises mature sons who depend directly upon the Spirit of God.

THE NATIONS WERE DECEIVED

Revelation declares:

“For by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.” — Revelation 18:23

Babylon deceives through mixture.

The word sorceries carries the thought of spiritual manipulation, illusion, and intoxication.

Babylon blinds people through:

- outward appearance
- emotional control
- false authority
- fleshly religion
- spiritual performance without transformation

The Babylonian spirit often appears beautiful outwardly while hiding corruption inwardly.

nted this same spirit among the Pharisees:

“Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men’s bones.” — Matthew 23:27

This same conflict continues throughout the ages.

Whenever systems prioritize:

- image over life
 - performance over transformation
 - outward religion over inward union
- Babylon is present.

BABYLON RIDES THE BEAST

Revelation shows the harlot seated upon a beast.

This is deeply symbolic.

It reveals religion joining itself to worldly power.

Babylon repeatedly seeks influence through:

- political alliances
- earthly authority
- institutional domination
- control over nations

Throughout history religion often partnered with empire, government, and worldly systems to preserve influence and authority.

But the Kingdom of God does not advance through worldly domination.

Jesus declared:

“My kingdom is not of this world.” — John 18:36

The Kingdom advances through:

- truth
- Spirit
- transformation
- righteousness
- divine life

Babylon seeks external control.

Zion manifests inward government.

This is why the spirit of Babylon continually fears true spiritual awakening.

Awakened sons cannot be controlled through religious intimidation.

GOD HAS PEOPLE INSIDE BABYLON

One of the most beautiful revelations in scripture is this:

God still calls those inside Babylon:

“My people.”

Revelation says:

EN

“Come out of her, My people, that ye be not partakers of her sins.” — Revelation

This is extraordinary mercy.

Even within Babylon...
God still recognizes His people.

This means:

- sincere believers can exist within corrupted systems
- hungry hearts can remain trapped within confusion
- spiritual captives can still hear the voice of God

The Lord never abandons His elect within Babylon.

Instead, He calls them outward into greater truth and liberty.

This is why many believers today feel a deep inward stirring.

The Spirit is awakening them to:

- leave mixture
- leave dependence upon dead systems
- leave outward-only religion
- leave spiritual captivity not necessarily to become isolated... but to enter deeper union with Christ Himself.

THE FALL OF BABYLON IS ALREADY BEGINNING

Revelation does not merely prophesy Babylon's existence.

It prophesies Babylon's collapse.

“Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen.” — Revelation 18:2

This fall is both:

- spiritual
- and systemic

The shaking of Babylon has already begun throughout the earth.

Many systems once viewed as untouchable are now:

- exposed
- weakened
- divided
- losing influence
- losing trust
- trembling beneath divine shaking

The Lord is exposing:

- mixture
- manipulation
- dead works
- false authority
- spiritual merchandise

This exposure is not accidental.

It is judgment.

EN

ing every structure built apart from His life.

For the Lord desires a people who:

- know Him directly
 - walk in truth
 - live by the Spirit
 - carry His nature
 - manifest His Kingdom

THE FIRE OF GOD IS PREPARING ZION

Babylon falls...
so Zion may arise.

This is the deeper purpose of judgment.

God is not merely tearing systems down.

He is preparing a people.

As confusion collapses...
clarity emerges.

As mixture burns...
purity appears.

As false systems tremble...
the Kingdom that cannot be shaken begins standing forth with greater power.

The judgment of Babylon is therefore not the end of the story.

EN

sition into a greater unveiling of Christ in His people.

The fire is removing:

- confusion
- mixture
- captivity
- dependence upon systems

so the elect may fully awaken into:

- sonship
- truth
- liberty
- Zion
- and the living government of God.

Mystery Babylon is falling.

And the Spirit is preparing a people who will carry the light of Zion into the earth.

Chapter 4

THE JUDGMENT OF BABYLON — WHY GOD SHAKES RELIGIOUS SYSTEMS

The judgment of God is one of the most misunderstood realities in all of scripture.

For generations many have viewed the judgment of God only through the lens of wrath, destruction, fear, and punishment while failing to understand the deeper purpose hidden within divine judgment itself.

EN

But the scriptures the judgment of God repeatedly reveals something far greater.

- exposure
- purification
- correction
- liberation
- restoration
- righteousness
- truth emerging through fire

The judgment of God does not merely destroy evil.

The judgment of God exposes everything that opposes divine life so that truth, righteousness, and the Kingdom of God may emerge with greater clarity.

This is exactly why the judgment of God comes upon Babylon.

Babylon is not judged because God delights in destruction.

Babylon is judged because confusion imprisons humanity from the life of God.

THE JUDGMENT OF GOD EXPOSES WHAT MAN BUILT

Hebrews declares:

“Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.” — Hebrews 12:26

The judgment of God is a shaking.

God shakes:

EN

- systems

- traditions
- structures
- doctrines
- institutions
- false foundations

so that everything built by flesh may be exposed.

This is one of the central purposes of the judgment of God:
to reveal what was truly built upon Christ and what was merely built by human ambition.

Paul wrote:

“Every man’s work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire.” — 1 Corinthians 3:13

Notice carefully:
the judgment of God reveals.

The fire of God exposes.

The judgment of God uncovers mixture hidden beneath outward appearance.

Many religious systems appear strong outwardly:

- large organizations
- impressive structures
- powerful personalities
- religious influence
- institutional authority

EN

ment of God tests whether divine life is truly present within the structure itself.

Babylon fears exposure because Babylon survives through image.

But the judgment of God removes every covering that hides corruption.

THE JUDGMENT OF GOD IS AGAINST MIXTURE

Throughout scripture the judgment of God continually confronts mixture.

Mixture is one of Babylon's greatest characteristics.

Babylon mixes:

- truth with error
- Spirit with flesh
- revelation with tradition
- Christ with human ambition
- divine purpose with earthly power

The judgment of God therefore comes to separate:

- light from darkness
- Spirit from flesh
- truth from deception
- life from dead religion

This is why Malachi declared:

“He is like a refiner's fire.” — Malachi 3:2

The judgment of God functions like a refiner's fire.

Refining fire does not preserve mixture.

It separates impurity from what is precious.

This is one of the deepest revelations concerning the judgment of God:
God judges whatever obscures His nature.

The Lord loves humanity too deeply to leave creation imprisoned within confusion forever.

THE JUDGMENT OF GOD SHAKES DEAD RELIGION

One of the greatest manifestations of the judgment of God in this hour is the shaking of dead religious systems.

Across the earth many structures that once appeared untouchable are being:

- exposed
- weakened
- divided
- uncovered
- shaken

The judgment of God is revealing:

- false authority
- spiritual manipulation
- religious merchandise

EN

by institutional corruption

- lifeless Christianity

This shaking is not random.

It is prophetic.

The judgment of God is confronting every structure that replaced the living Christ with outward religion.

Many systems learned how to preserve:

- appearance
- organization
- influence
- religious activity

while losing:

- revelation
- intimacy
- transformation
- the living government of the Spirit

But the judgment of God cannot allow Babylon to stand forever.

For the Kingdom of God is not built upon outward form alone.

The Kingdom of God is righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost.

THE JUDGMENT OF GOD BURNS DEAD WORKS

Paul reveals another powerful aspect of the judgment of God:

“If any man’s work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.” — 1 Corinthians 3:15

The judgment of God tests works through fire.

Notice the mercy hidden within this passage.

The fire destroys the dead work...
but the person remains.

This reveals something profound:
the judgment of God is aimed at removing corruption, not annihilating humanity.

The fire of God burns:

- wood
- hay
- stubble
- fleshly ambition
- pride
- self-exaltation
- false foundations

so that what is eternal may remain.

This is why the judgment of God is necessary.

Without divine judgment:

- mixture would remain forever
- corruption would continue endlessly
- truth would remain buried beneath systems

The judgment of God is therefore an act of divine love toward creation.

THE JUDGMENT OF GOD LIBERATES THE CAPTIVES

When God judged Egypt...
captives came out.

When the judgment of God fell upon Babylon...
Zion was restored.

When the judgment of God confronted religious systems through Christ...
the veil was torn.

This reveals the pattern of divine judgment:
the judgment of God removes what imprisons life.

The purpose of the judgment of God is not merely punishment.

It is liberation from bondage.

This is why the judgment of God must come upon:

EN

captivity

- false religion

- religious merchandise
- oppressive systems
- confusion
- mixture

The Lord is preparing humanity for greater revelation, greater liberty, and greater union with Himself.

THE JUDGMENT OF GOD PREPARES THE WAY FOR ZION

Babylon cannot remain forever.

The judgment of God is preparing the way for Zion to emerge.

As confusion collapses...
truth arises.

As mixture burns...
purity appears.

As dead systems shake...
the Kingdom that cannot be shaken begins to stand forth with greater clarity.

This is why the judgment of God is moving through the earth in this hour.

God is preparing:

- mature sons
- awakened believers

EN

vessels

- a people governed by the Spirit

The judgment of God is not merely tearing down.

The judgment of God is making room for something greater.

For the Lord never removes Babylon without preparing to reveal Zion.

And as the fire of the judgment of God continues exposing confusion, shaking dead religion, and consuming false foundations, the Spirit is preparing a people who will carry the light, purity, and life of the Kingdom into the earth.

Chapter 5

COME OUT OF HER MY PEOPLE — THE CALL INTO SEPARATION

One of the most powerful statements ever spoken from heaven concerning Babylon is found in the Book of Revelation:

“Come out of her, My people, that ye be not partakers of her sins.” — Revelation 18:4

This single verse reveals something extraordinary.

Even within Babylon...
God still has a people.

Even within confusion...
God still has hungry hearts.

Even within religious captivity...
the Spirit is still calling sons and daughters upward into truth, liberty, and life.

This is one of the greatest revelations concerning the judgment of God:
the judgment of God does not merely expose Babylon —
the judgment of God calls people out of Babylon.

THE JUDGMENT OF GOD IS A CALL TO AWAKENING

Many people think the judgment of God only means destruction.

But throughout scripture the judgment of God repeatedly functions as:

- awakening
- correction
- separation
- exposure
- deliverance
- liberation

The judgment of God shakes what is false so that people may awaken to what is true.

This is why the call:

“Come out of her, My people”

is directly connected to the judgment of God upon Babylon.

As the judgment of God exposes:

- mixture
- dead religion
- false authority
- spiritual merchandise
- outward systems without life

many believers begin sensing deep dissatisfaction within their spirits.

The Spirit of God starts stirring them inwardly.

Questions begin rising:

- “Why am I spiritually starving?”
- “Why does this feel empty?”
- “Why is there so much activity but so little life?”
- “Why do I hunger for something deeper?”

This hunger is often the beginning of divine separation.

The judgment of God awakens people to realities they previously could not see.

SEPARATION IS NOT ISOLATION

The call to come out of Babylon does not mean hatred toward people.

Nor does it always mean physically abandoning every structure immediately.

The deeper issue is spiritual separation from confusion.

The judgment of God calls believers:

- out of mixture
- out of deception
- out of dependence upon dead systems
- out of outward-only religion
- into direct union with Christ

This is very important.

Many people misunderstand separation and fall into:

- bitterness
- pride
- isolation
- rebellion
- spiritual superiority

But true separation is not rebellion against people.

True separation is movement toward divine life.

God does not call His people out merely to make them independent.

He calls them out to bring them into deeper union with Himself.

The purpose of the judgment of God is not fragmentation.

The purpose of the judgment of God is restoration into truth.

ABRAHAM HEARD THE CALL TO COME

Throughout scripture God continually calls His people out from systems that hinder His purpose.

The Lord said unto Abraham:

“Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father’s house.”
— Genesis 12:1

Before Abraham could become the father of nations, separation had to occur.

Before Israel entered covenant destiny, Egypt had to be left behind.

Before the disciples could carry the Kingdom, they had to leave old religious systems behind.

The pattern repeats continually throughout scripture:

- God calls outward
- so He may call upward

The judgment of God removes what restrains spiritual growth.

This is why many believers today feel intense inward shaking.

The Spirit is drawing them beyond:

- tradition
- limitation
- religious dependency

EN

Personal control

and into:

- revelation
 - sonship
 - spiritual maturity
 - direct fellowship with Christ

MANY ARE HEARING THE VOICE OF THE SHEPHERD

Jesus declared:

“My sheep hear My voice.” — John 10:27

One of the greatest signs of this hour is that multitudes are beginning to hear the voice of the Shepherd above the noise of Babylon.

For generations many depended almost entirely upon:

- institutions
- leaders
- systems
- denominations
- traditions

to define spiritual reality for them.

But the judgment of God is awakening believers into direct spiritual hearing.

EN

y threatening to Babylon.

Because Babylon survives by keeping people spiritually dependent upon outward structures.

But mature sons are led by the Spirit.

This is why the judgment of God is now exposing systems that:

- suppress revelation
- merchandise truth
- control conscience
- hinder spiritual maturity

The Lord is preparing a people who know Him personally.

THE JUDGMENT OF GOD BREAKS SPIRITUAL CAPTIVITY

Captivity is one of Babylon's greatest works.

Babylon keeps people:

- dependent
- fearful
- immature
- externally driven
- spiritually exhausted

The judgment of God therefore comes to break spiritual captivity.

EN

many systems are now trembling beneath exposure.

The judgment of God is revealing:

- false motives
- hidden corruption
- spiritual abuse
- religious manipulation
- fleshly ambition

The Lord is uncovering everything that keeps His people from walking in freedom.

This exposure is painful for many.

Shaking always is.

But the judgment of God is not operating against the elect.

The judgment of God is operating FOR their liberation.

When God judged Egypt...

Israel came out.

When the judgment of God confronted Babylon...

captives returned to Zion.

When the judgment of God confronted dead religion through Christ...

the veil was torn.

The pattern remains the same.

The judgment of God removes what imprisons life.

THE ELECT ARE BEING CALLED INTO ZION

The cry:

“Come out of her, My people”

is ultimately a call into Zion.

God never calls people out without calling them into something greater.

Babylon represents:

- confusion
- mixture
- outward religion
- captivity
- dependence upon systems

Zion represents:

- truth
- purity
- liberty
- sonship
- union with God
- the government of the Spirit

This is the great transition unfolding in the earth right now.

The judgment of God is moving people:

EN

structure into life qual into revelation

- from performance into intimacy
- from confusion into clarity
- from Babylon into Zion

The shaking is increasing because the Lord is preparing a people who will carry His Kingdom in purity and truth.

THE FIRE OF GOD IS LEADING MANY HIGHER

Many believers can feel it already.

Something within them can no longer settle for:

- dead religion
- powerless Christianity
- outward performance
- spiritual routine without life

The Spirit is drawing them upward.

The judgment of God is exposing everything that hinders deeper union with Christ.

This is why Babylon is trembling.

The fire of God is moving through the earth:

- exposing confusion
- breaking captivity

EN

- purifying hearts

- and calling the elect into Zion.

The call has gone forth from heaven.

“Come out of her, My people.”

And those with ears to hear are beginning to awaken from the sleep of Babylon and move toward the living mountain of God.

Chapter 6

DIVINE FIRE — JUDGMENT THAT PURIFIES RATHER THAN DESTROYS

One of the greatest misunderstandings concerning the judgment of God is the misunderstanding of divine fire.

For generations many have viewed the fire of God only through the lens of destruction while failing to see the deeper revelation hidden within the nature of divine judgment itself.

Yet throughout scripture the fire of God repeatedly appears as:

- refining fire
- purifying fire
- cleansing fire
- revealing fire
- transforming fire

The judgment of God is often administered through divine fire because fire exposes, and removes whatever opposes life.

EN

This is why scripture declares:

“For our God is a consuming fire.” — Hebrews 12:29

God does not merely possess fire.

God IS a consuming fire.

The very presence of God consumes:

- corruption
- mixture
- deception
- flesh
- pride
- rebellion
- dead works

The judgment of God therefore functions as a holy fire moving through creation to remove whatever prevents union with divine life.

THE JUDGMENT OF GOD IS REFINING FIRE

Malachi declared:

“For He is like a refiner’s fire.” — Malachi 3:2

A refiner’s fire does not exist to annihilate gold.

It exists to remove impurity from the gold.

This is one of the deepest revelations concerning the judgment of God:
the fire of God targets corruption, not the eternal purpose hidden within creation.

The refiner heats the metal until:

- impurity rises
- mixture separates
- hidden corruption is exposed

The process is intense...
yet the purpose is purification.

This is exactly how the judgment of God operates.

The judgment of God brings hidden things to the surface:

- pride
- false motives
- fleshly ambition
- deception
- religious mixture
- dead works

so that truth and purity may emerge.

Without fire... mixture remains hidden.

Without the judgment of God... corruption continues unchecked.

The fire of God is therefore an expression of divine love toward creation.

THE JUDGMENT OF GOD TEACHES RIGHTEOUSNESS

Isaiah wrote:

“When Thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.” — Isaiah 26:9

This verse completely changes the atmosphere surrounding the judgment of God.

The judgment of God is not merely punitive.

The judgment of God teaches.

The judgment of God reveals.

The judgment of God corrects.

The judgment of God restores alignment with righteousness.

This is why throughout scripture divine judgment continually produces:

- awakening
- humility
- repentance
- transformation
- restoration

Whenever humanity drifts deeply into:

ion on

- confusion

- violence
- spiritual darkness

the judgment of God begins exposing and confronting whatever destroys life.

The purpose is not endless destruction.

The purpose is righteousness emerging in the earth.

THE FIRE OF GOD REVEALS WHAT IS TRUE

Paul reveals another dimension of the judgment of God:

“Every man’s work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire.” — 1 Corinthians 3:13

The fire of God reveals what is genuine.

This is one reason the judgment of God is so feared by fleshly systems.

The fire exposes:

- false foundations
- religious performance
- hidden corruption
- spiritual pride
- self-exaltation

Babylon survives through image.

But the judgment of God burns through outward appearance until reality is exposed.

The fire of God tests:

- motives
- works
- intentions
- foundations

This is why the judgment of God is necessary before Zion can fully arise.

Mixture cannot remain hidden forever beneath outward religion.

Eventually the fire comes.

THE JUDGMENT OF GOD CONSUMES DEAD WORKS

Paul continues:

“If any man’s work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.” — 1 Corinthians 3:15

This passage is profound.

The fire burns the work...
yet the person remains.

EN

ment of God removes:

- wood
- hay
- stubble
- fleshly labor
- religious ambition
- self-made spirituality

while preserving what was truly born from God.

This reveals the mercy hidden within divine judgment.

The judgment of God is not obsessed with destruction.

The judgment of God is focused upon purification.

This is why God repeatedly shakes:

- systems
- structures
- ministries
- movements
- institutions

so that what is eternal may remain standing.

The Lord removes what can be shaken so that the Kingdom that cannot be shaken may emerge with greater clarity.

THE JUDGMENT OF GOD PURIFIES SONS

EN

od is especially connected to sonship.

Hebrews declares:

“Whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth.” — Hebrews 12:6

The judgment of God begins at the house of God because the Lord is preparing mature sons who carry His nature.

The fire of God purifies:

- character
- motives
- identity
- spiritual maturity

The judgment of God removes:

- self-will
- pride
- immaturity
- independence from God

This process is often painful.

Fire always is.

Yet without divine fire:

- maturity never develops
- pride remains hidden
- flesh continues ruling
- spiritual growth stagnates

EN

ment of God is therefore part of the process that transforms believers into vessels capable of carrying greater glory.

THE LAKE OF FIRE REVEALS THE FINAL VICTORY OF GOD

One of the most misunderstood symbols in scripture is the lake of fire.

Many only interpret fire through endless destruction while ignoring the consistent biblical revelation that divine fire purifies, exposes, and removes corruption.

Throughout scripture fire continually represents:

- purification
- cleansing
- judgment
- holiness
- transformation

The judgment of God ultimately removes:

- death
- corruption
- deception
- rebellion
- everything opposed to divine life

For the purpose of God is not eternal chaos.

The purpose of God is restoration.

This is why Revelation eventually reveals:

- no more death

- no more sorrow
- no more curse
- no more separation

The fire of God moves creation toward purification and ultimate restoration under the government of Christ.

THE JUDGMENT OF GOD IS MAKING WAY FOR ZION

The fire is increasing throughout the earth.

Systems are shaking.

Mixture is being exposed.

Dead works are being consumed.

Religious Babylon trembles beneath the judgment of God because the Lord is preparing a purified people who carry truth, righteousness, and divine life.

As the judgment of God moves through creation:

- confusion burns
- captivity breaks
- truth emerges
- sons awaken
- Zion rises

EN

The fire of God is necessary.

For the Lord is not merely tearing things down.

The judgment of God is preparing the earth for the unveiling of His Kingdom.

The consuming fire of God is removing everything that opposes life so that righteousness, purity, and the government of Christ may fill the earth.

And as Babylon burns beneath divine judgment...
Zion begins shining with greater glory.

Chapter 7

JUDGMENT BEGINS AT THE HOUSE OF GOD

One of the most sobering and misunderstood revelations concerning the judgment of God is this:

“For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God.” — 1 Peter 4:17

Most people assume the judgment of God begins with the world.

But scripture reveals something very different.

The judgment of God begins with His own house.

Why?

Because God purifies sons before He manifests Kingdom government through them.

This is one of the deepest purposes of the judgment of God:
the Lord prepares His people through fire before entrusting them with greater glory, greater authority, and greater revelation.

The judgment of God is not merely directed outwardly toward the world.

The judgment of God first works inwardly within His own people.

THE JUDGMENT OF GOD PURIFIES THE HOUSE FIRST

Throughout scripture God continually purifies His people before major transitions occur.

Before Israel entered the Promised Land...
God purified the wilderness generation.

Before the priesthood ministered...
they were washed and consecrated.

Before Isaiah could speak for God...
the coal touched his lips.

Before Pentecost... the disciples passed through breaking and surrender.

The pattern remains the same:
the judgment of God prepares vessels before greater manifestation arrives.

EN

Living fire often comes first upon those closest to the Lord.

The judgment of God removes:

- pride
- self-will
- fleshly ambition
- hidden motives
- spiritual immaturity
- dependence upon self

so that Christ may be formed more fully within His people.

This process is not rejection.

It is preparation.

THE JUDGMENT OF GOD IS A SIGN OF SONSHIP

Hebrews declares:

“Whom the Lord loveth He chasteneth.” — Hebrews 12:6

This changes everything concerning the judgment of God.

The chastening of God is not evidence of abandonment.

It is evidence of sonship.

The judgment of God functions as a loving Father correcting, shaping, refining, and disciplining His children.

EN

Without divine correction:

- flesh remains unchallenged
- immaturity continues
- pride grows unchecked
- spiritual growth stagnates

The judgment of God therefore works within sons to produce:

- humility
- maturity
- obedience
- brokenness
- dependence upon God
- spiritual transformation

This is why the fire of God often burns hottest within those being prepared for greater purpose.

The Lord disciplines what He intends to mature.

THE HOUSE OF GOD MUST BE PURIFIED BEFORE THE NATIONS CAN BE HEALED

One reason the judgment of God begins at the house of God is because the Lord intends His people to become vessels of life to the nations.

But impure vessels cannot properly reveal the nature of God.

EN

the judgment of God confronts:

- hypocrisy
- mixture
- dead works
- religious pride
- hidden corruption
- false motives

within His own people first.

The Lord is not merely seeking outward ministry.

He is seeking inward conformity to Christ.

Babylon focuses heavily on outward appearance.

But the judgment of God searches the inward man.

This is why scripture says:

“The Lord looketh on the heart.” — 1 Samuel 16:7

The judgment of God penetrates beneath:

- titles
- positions
- ministries
- outward success
- public image

and exposes the true spiritual condition within.

This is why the judgment of God is so feared by fleshly religion.

Religious systems often know how to preserve appearance while hiding inward corruption.

But divine fire reveals everything.

MANY WANT GLORY WITHOUT FIRE

One of the great tragedies in modern Christianity is that many desire:

- authority
- power
- revelation
- influence
- spiritual experiences

without wanting the judgment of God to first purify the vessel.

Many desire crowns...

without the cross.

Many desire manifestation...

without refinement.

Many desire resurrection life...

without death to self.

But throughout scripture the pathway to glory always passes through fire.

The judgment of God strips away:

ance

- spiritual pride

- fleshly identity
- dependence upon systems

until Christ alone becomes the life of the believer.

This process is painful to the flesh.

Yet it is glorious to the Spirit.

For the judgment of God is preparing mature sons capable of carrying divine life without corruption.

THE JUDGMENT OF GOD EXPOSES DEAD WORKS IN THE CHURCH

One of the greatest shakings occurring in this hour is happening inside religious systems themselves.

The judgment of God is exposing:

- false ministries
- hidden corruption
- manipulation
- religious merchandise
- performance-driven Christianity
- institutional idolatry

This exposure is not accidental.

EN

ment of God is moving through His house.

Many structures built upon:

- personality
- ambition
- money
- image
- control

are now trembling beneath divine exposure.

Why?

Because the Lord is purifying His house before greater Kingdom manifestation unfolds in the earth.

The judgment of God removes what is false so that what is true may remain.

THE JUDGMENT OF GOD PRODUCES SPIRITUAL MATURITY

Romans declares:

“The earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.” — Romans 8:19

Creation is waiting for mature sons.

Not immature religion.

EN

systems.

Not spiritual performance.

Creation is waiting for a people fully governed by the Spirit of God.

This is why the judgment of God is necessary.

The fire of God produces:

- endurance
- humility
- wisdom
- compassion
- purity
- spiritual depth

The judgment of God breaks the dominance of self-life so the nature of Christ may emerge more fully within His people.

This is not punishment.

This is transformation.

THE JUDGMENT OF GOD IS PREPARING ZION

As Babylon shakes...

God is preparing Zion.

EN

As dead religion collapses...
the Lord is forming a purified people.

As mixture burns...
truth emerges.

This is why the judgment of God begins at the house of God.

The Lord is preparing:

- mature sons
- purified vessels
- awakened believers
- a holy priesthood
- a people governed by divine life

The judgment of God is not merely exposing corruption.

The judgment of God is creating capacity for greater glory.

For the Lord is preparing a people who:

- hear His voice
- walk in His Spirit
- carry His nature
- reveal His Kingdom
- and manifest His life in the earth.

The fire is increasing.

The shaking is intensifying.

EN

ment of God is moving through His house.

And through that fire...
Zion is being prepared.

Chapter 8

THE FALL OF BABYLON AND THE RISE OF ZION

Throughout scripture there are always two cities standing in contrast to one another:

- Babylon
- and Zion

Babylon represents:

- confusion
- mixture
- self-exaltation
- fleshly government
- outward religion
- spiritual captivity

Zion represents:

- truth
- purity
- union with God
- spiritual liberty
- the government of the Spirit

EN

dom of God

The entire biblical story moves between these two mountains.

From Genesis to Revelation the conflict continually unfolds:
Babylon seeks to build upward through human ambition...
while Zion descends from God through divine life.

This is why the fall of Babylon and the rise of Zion are inseparably connected.

For Zion cannot fully arise while confusion continues ruling the minds of men.

BABYLON IS BUILT BY MAN — ZION IS BUILT BY GOD

The tower of Babel was built by human effort.

But scripture says concerning Zion:

“The Lord hath chosen Zion; He hath desired it for His habitation.” — Psalm 132:13

This is the great distinction between the two cities.

Babylon originates from man attempting to reach heaven.

Zion originates from God revealing heaven within man.

Babylon depends upon:

EN

- outward control

- human wisdom
- fleshly ambition

Zion flows from:

- Spirit
- truth
- revelation
- divine life
- inward transformation

Babylon produces dependence upon systems.

Zion produces union with God.

Babylon exalts external appearance.

Zion transforms the inward man.

This is why scripture continually presents Zion as:

- the mountain of the Lord
- the city of God
- the dwelling place of His presence
- the place of divine government

Zion is not merely geographic.

Zion is spiritual reality manifested through a people governed by the life of Christ.

... ALL OF BABYLON IS NECESSARY

Many people fear the collapse of religious systems because they have depended upon them for spiritual identity and security.

But throughout scripture God repeatedly allows shakings whenever structures begin replacing divine life.

The Lord tears down what obscures His nature.

He removes what imprisons spiritual growth.

He exposes what hinders truth from emerging.

This is why Babylon must eventually fall.

Babylon cannot produce mature sons.

Babylon keeps humanity trapped within:

- mixture
- outward performance
- spiritual dependency
- religious confusion
- institutional control

But the Spirit of God is raising a people who are no longer satisfied with outward religion alone.

Across the earth believers are awakening to a deeper hunger for:

- truth
- intimacy
- revelation

EN

- the direct government of the Holy Spirit

This awakening is part of the great transition from Babylon to Zion.

THE SPIRIT IS CALLING A PEOPLE HIGHER

Isaiah declared:

“And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord’s house shall be established in the top of the mountains.” — Isaiah 2:2

The rise of Zion is the rise of divine government within a people.

As Babylon weakens...

Zion becomes clearer.

As confusion collapses...

truth shines brighter.

As dead religion shakes...

spiritual reality begins emerging with greater power.

This is why many believers today can no longer settle for:

- lifeless Christianity
- ritual without transformation
- systems without revelation
- religion without presence

The Spirit is calling them upward.

“Come up hither”

is echoing throughout the earth.

The Lord is awakening sons who carry:

- His nature
- His truth
- His compassion
- His righteousness
- His Spirit

Zion is not built through fleshly striving.

Zion emerges through union with God.

ZION IS THE MOUNTAIN OF LIFE

Hebrews declares:

“But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God.” —
Hebrews 12:22

Notice carefully:

scripture says:

“ye ARE come.”

Zion is not merely future.

EN

ual reality unfolding now through those who are joined to Christ.

Zion is the realm where:

- Christ governs inwardly
- truth rules the heart
- the Spirit leads
- divine life flows
- sons mature

Babylon seeks to control outward behavior.

Zion transforms inward nature.

This is why the transition from Babylon to Zion is so profound.

God is not merely changing systems.

He is transforming consciousness.

The Lord is bringing His people out of:

- fear
- confusion
- dependence upon outward structures

and into:

- maturity
- spiritual liberty
- revelation
- direct fellowship with Himself

THE KINGDOM THAT CANNOT BE SHAKEN

Hebrews speaks of:

“a kingdom which cannot be moved.” — Hebrews 12:28

Everything built by flesh eventually shakes.

Everything built merely upon human effort eventually weakens.

But what God builds remains.

This is why Zion stands while Babylon falls.

Babylon depends upon:

- image
- power
- external authority
- earthly systems

Zion rests upon eternal life itself.

The Kingdom of God cannot collapse because it originates from God.

And even now the Spirit is preparing a people who will carry that Kingdom into the earth with greater clarity and maturity.

THE LIGHT OF ZION IS BEGINNING TO SHINE

Isaiah declared:

“Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee.”
— Isaiah 60:1

This is the hour of awakening.

The shaking of Babylon is creating space for the unveiling of Zion.

The Lord is raising up believers who hunger for:

- reality instead of performance
- life instead of dead form
- revelation instead of empty tradition
- Christ instead of systems

The transition is already unfolding.

Many can feel it deeply within their spirits.

Something greater is emerging.

As confusion weakens...
clarity increases.

As mixture burns...
purity rises.

EN

alls...

Zion begins shining with greater glory.

And the Spirit of God is calling the elect upward into the mountain of the Lord where truth, life, righteousness, and divine government flow from the throne of God Himself.

Chapter 9

THE JUDGMENT OF THE NATIONS — LEARNING RIGHTEOUSNESS THROUGH THE KINGDOM

One of the greatest misunderstandings in modern Christianity is the belief that God's purpose for the nations is only destruction.

Yet throughout scripture the prophets continually reveal something much greater:

- healing for the nations
- righteousness spreading through the earth
- the knowledge of the Lord covering creation
- the government of Christ bringing peace and restoration

The nations are not ignored within the purpose of God.

The nations are part of the restoration.

This is why Isaiah declared:

“When Thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.” — Isaiah 26:9

reveals one of the deepest purposes of divine judgment.

Righteousness is learned through the exposure, correction, and overthrow of corruption.

The fire of God confronts whatever destroys life so that truth and righteousness may emerge within the earth.

THE KINGDOM OF GOD IS GOVERNMENT THROUGH RIGHTEOUSNESS

Throughout history the kingdoms of men have repeatedly been built upon:

- greed
- violence
- oppression
- domination
- corruption
- self-exaltation

But the Kingdom of God operates through an entirely different nature.

Scripture declares:

“A sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of Thy kingdom.” — Hebrews 1:8

The Kingdom governs through:

- truth
- righteousness
- justice

EN

- peace

This is why the rise of the Kingdom continually confronts systems built upon corruption.

The light of God exposes darkness.

The truth of God overturns lies.

The Spirit of God confronts oppression.

Wherever divine government increases:

- deception weakens
- captivity breaks
- healing begins
- righteousness spreads

The purpose of God has never been endless chaos.

The purpose of God is restoration under the government of Christ.

THE NATIONS ARE WAITING FOR LIGHT

Isaiah prophesied:

“And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.” — Isaiah 60:3

starving for true spiritual light.

The nations are weary of:

- corruption
- confusion
- violence
- empty leadership
- spiritual darkness

Even now humanity groans beneath the weight of:

- broken systems
- fear
- division
- greed
- instability

Yet the prophets saw a day when the light of God would arise through a people carrying His nature and truth into the earth.

This is deeply connected to Zion.

For Zion is not merely personal spirituality.

Zion is the manifestation of divine government through mature sons who reveal the nature of Christ.

As Babylon weakens...

Zion shines brighter.

THE KINGDOM TEACHES THE NATIONS

Isaiah declared:

“Out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.” —
Isaiah 2:3

This is one of the most beautiful prophetic pictures in scripture.

The nations are not merely abandoned to destruction.

The nations are taught.

Truth flows outward from Zion.

The government of God begins healing what corruption destroyed.

This is why the prophets repeatedly foresaw:

- nations turning
- peoples gathering
- righteousness spreading
- swords becoming plowshares
- peace increasing through divine government

The Kingdom of God is not built through terror.

The Kingdom transforms through truth and life.

As divine reality spreads:

- oppression weakens
- lies collapse
- deception loses power
- spiritual blindness begins lifting

EN

...preparing creation for greater harmony under the rule of Christ.

THE HEALING OF THE NATIONS

Revelation gives another astonishing picture:

“The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.” — Revelation 22:2

This verse alone reveals the heart of God toward creation.

The final vision of scripture is not endless chaos.

It is healing.

Healing for:

- nations
- humanity
- creation
- relationships
- the earth itself

This does not minimize righteousness or truth.

Rather, healing comes THROUGH righteousness.

The corruption of Babylon must first be exposed and removed so life may flow freely again.

This is why the shaking now occurring throughout the earth is so significant.

EN

confronting:

- corruption
- oppression
- deception
- religious confusion
- systems that destroy life

because His purpose is ultimately restorative.

THE KNOWLEDGE OF THE LORD SHALL FILL THE EARTH

Habakkuk declared:

“For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.” — Habakkuk 2:14

This is one of the greatest promises in all of scripture.

The final picture is not darkness winning.

The final picture is glory increasing.

Truth spreading.

Light expanding.

The nature of God becoming known throughout creation.

This is why the Spirit is preparing a people who carry:

- wisdom

- compassion
- purity
- righteousness
- truth
- divine life

The nations are waiting for the manifestation of a Kingdom not built by human corruption.

They are waiting for reality.

They are waiting for light.

ZION IS BEING PREPARED FOR THE NATIONS

The Lord is raising a people who move beyond:

- religious performance
- spiritual immaturity
- dependence upon Babylonian systems

and into:

- sonship
- maturity
- truth
- spiritual government
- the nature of Christ

EN

...the preparation is essential because Zion is called to become a light in the earth.

As confusion falls...
clarity rises.

As mixture burns...
purity emerges.

As the systems of Babylon weaken...
the Kingdom of God begins standing forth with greater visibility.

The nations are entering a time of shaking.

But beyond the shaking stands the purpose of God:

- righteousness filling the earth
- truth overcoming deception
- healing flowing to creation
- and the government of Christ bringing life to the nations.

The mountain of the Lord is rising.

The light of Zion is increasing.

And the Spirit is preparing a people through whom the glory of God will shine into the earth with greater power than ever before.

Chapter 10

ZION TRIUMPHANT — THE KINGDOM THAT CANNOT BE SHAKEN

EN

As to Revelation the story has always been moving toward one final unveiling:

the triumph of the Kingdom of God over every system built by man.

Babylon rises for a season...

but Zion remains forever.

The kingdoms of men continually appear powerful:

- empires rise
- systems expand
- religions dominate
- nations boast in strength

yet every structure built apart from divine life eventually shakes, weakens, and passes away.

But the Kingdom of God cannot be overthrown because it was not built by man.

Scripture declares:

“We receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved.” — Hebrews 12:28

This is the great hope running through the entire revelation of scripture.

Beyond every shaking...

beyond every collapse of Babylon...

stands the eternal Kingdom of God.

THE STONE CUT WITHOUT HANDS

Daniel saw this Kingdom in prophetic vision:

“Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands.” — Daniel 2:34

This stone struck the image of worldly empire and reduced it to dust.

Then scripture declares:

“And the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.” — Daniel 2:35

This mountain is the Kingdom of God.

Notice carefully:

the Kingdom does not merely visit the earth.

The Kingdom fills the earth.

This is one of the greatest revelations concerning Zion:

God’s purpose is not retreat from creation.

God’s purpose is transformation of creation under the government of Christ.

The mountain grows.

The Kingdom expands.

The life of God increases.

EVERYTHING THAT CAN BE SHAKEN IS SHAKING

Throughout the earth systems are trembling:

- political systems
- financial systems
- religious systems
- cultural systems

Humanity senses instability everywhere.

Fear increases because the foundations of Babylon are weakening.

Yet scripture already foretold this shaking.

God declared:

“Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.” — Hebrews 12:26

The shaking is not random.

The shaking is transitional.

The Lord is removing what was built upon:

- pride
- corruption
- greed
- fleshly power
- spiritual confusion

so that what is eternal may emerge with greater clarity.

This is why the shaking continues intensifying throughout the earth.

The Kingdom that cannot be shaken is beginning to stand forth against the backdrop of collapsing systems.

ZION IS THE GOVERNMENT OF CHRIST WITHIN A PEOPLE

Many have imagined Zion merely as a future location or outward kingdom.

But scripture reveals Zion as the dwelling place of divine government within a people fully yielded to Christ.

Hebrews declares:

“Ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God.” — Hebrews 12:22

Zion is spiritual reality manifested through mature sons carrying the nature and life of Christ.

Babylon governs outwardly through:

- fear
- control
- image
- hierarchy
- external systems

EN

s inwardly through:

- truth
- righteousness
- love
- Spirit
- divine life

This is why Zion cannot be produced through fleshly striving.

Zion emerges as Christ increases within His people.

The Lord is preparing vessels who:

- hear His voice
- walk in His Spirit
- manifest His nature
- reveal His compassion
- carry His Kingdom into the earth

THE KINGDOM OF GOD IS RESTORING CREATION

The final vision of scripture is astonishing.

Revelation does not end with endless chaos.

It ends with:

- the river of life
- the tree of life

EN

for the nations

no more curse

- no more death
- no more sorrow

This reveals the victorious conclusion of God's purpose.

The Kingdom triumphs.

Life triumphs.

Truth triumphs.

The glory of God fills creation.

This is why the judgment of God was necessary throughout the ages.

The Lord was removing:

- corruption
- deception
- oppression
- confusion
- death itself

so that creation may fully enter divine life.

The purpose was always restoration.

THE GLORY OF GOD SHALL COVER THE EARTH

Habakkuk declared:

“For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.” — Habakkuk 2:14

This is where everything is moving.

but toward the unveiling of divine glory throughout creation.

The prophets saw:

- nations healed
- righteousness spreading
- peace increasing
- creation liberated
- Zion shining

This is why the Spirit continues preparing mature sons.

For creation itself waits:

“For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.” — Romans 8:19

The unveiling of Zion is connected to the liberation of creation itself.

GOD SHALL BE ALL IN ALL

Paul reveals the final triumph of the Kingdom:

EN

... may be all in all.” — 1 Corinthians 15:28

This is the ultimate destination of the ages.

Everything opposed to divine life is removed.

Everything rooted in corruption passes away.

The Kingdom fully triumphs.

Christ reigns.

Life fills creation.

The purpose hidden in God before the foundation of the world reaches glorious completion.

Babylon falls...

but Zion remains forever.

The confusion of man collapses...
yet the Kingdom of God stands unshaken.

The systems of the flesh pass away...
yet divine life continues increasing.

This is the hope of the gospel.

This is the victory of the Kingdom.

This is the triumph of Zion.

ZION IS RISING

Even now the Spirit is preparing a people across the earth:

- awakened from confusion
- purified through fire
- separated from Babylon
- filled with divine life
- governed by the Spirit of God

The shaking is intensifying because the unveiling is drawing near.

The Lord is calling His people upward into:

- maturity
- sonship
- truth
- purity
- spiritual liberty
- union with Christ

As Babylon trembles...
Zion rises.

As confusion collapses...
truth shines brighter.

the Kingdom that cannot be shaken begins standing forth with greater glory.

The fire of God is moving through the earth.

EN

awakening the elect.

And the mountain of the Lord is beginning to fill the earth with righteousness, truth, peace, and life under the eternal government of Jesus Christ.
