MYSTERY BABYLON THE GREAT: The Seven Heads and the Ten Horns

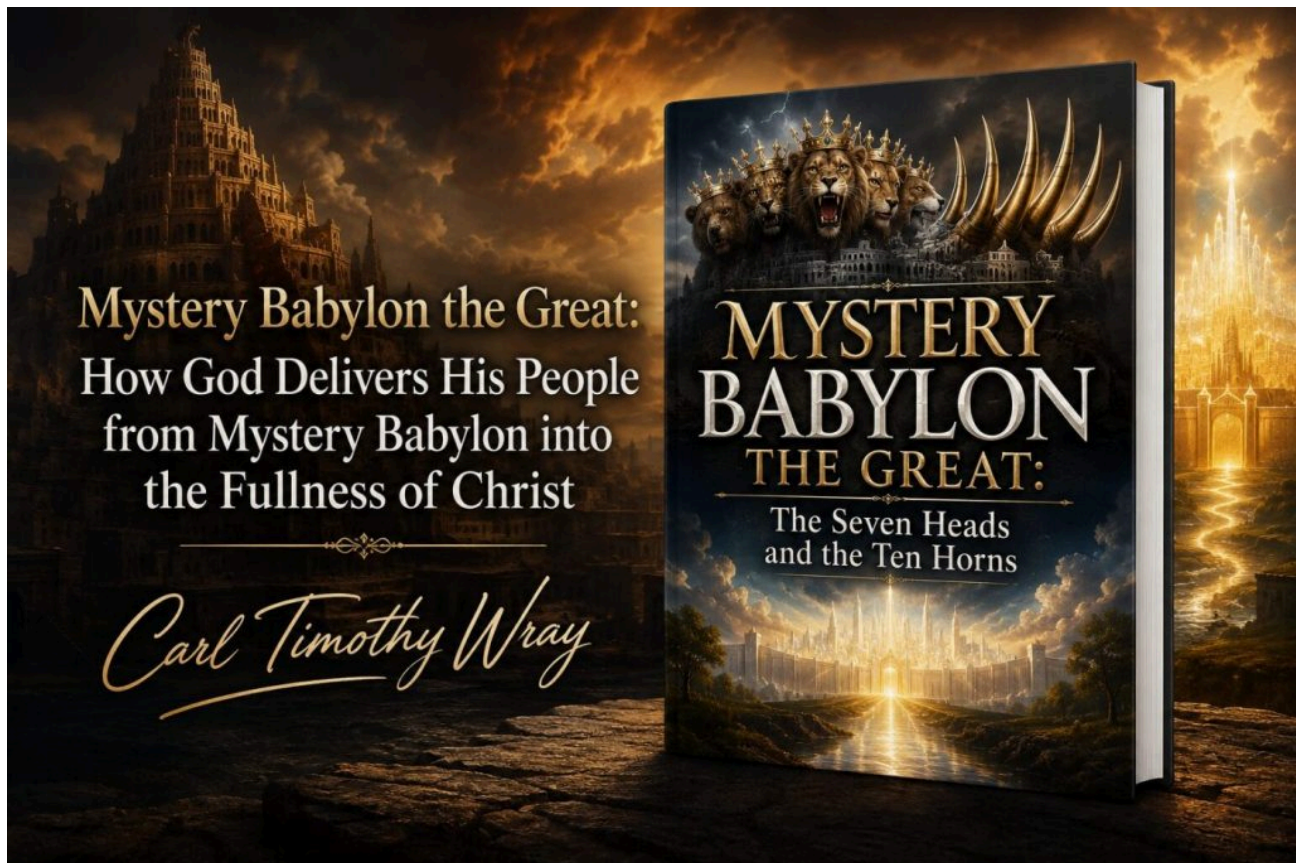

EN

Mystery Babylon the Great: How God Delivers His People from Mystery Babylon into the Fullness of Christ

Carl Timothy Wray is the founder of The Finished Work of Christ ministry and the author of hundreds of books devoted to revealing Jesus Christ through the full counsel of God. His ministry emphasizes the finished work of Christ, the Gospel of Grace, the eternal purpose of God, the revelation of Jesus Christ, and the progressive fulfillment of God's promises from Genesis to Revelation. Through Scripture interpreting Scripture, he calls believers beyond religious tradition into the knowledge of Christ, the mind of Christ, and the fullness of God's eternal purpose.

Mystery Babylon the Great: The Seven Heads and the Ten Horns reveals one of the most misunderstood visions in the book of Revelation through the full counsel of God. Rather than identifying Mystery Babylon as merely a future political or religious system, this book traces the conflict between the first man and the second Man from Genesis to Revelation. By examining the seven heads, the ten horns, the beast, the harlot, and the New Jerusalem, readers will discover how God progressively reveals, exposes, brings discernment, separates, transforms, and delivers His people from spiritual mixture into the fullness of Christ. This Christ-centered study of Revelation presents God's eternal purpose through Scripture interpreting Scripture, revealing the triumph of the Lamb and the manifestation of His Kingdom.

Introduction

The book of Revelation was not given merely to satisfy human curiosity about future events. It was given to reveal Jesus Christ.

Throughout history, countless interpretations have identified Mystery Babylon as a particular nation, political empire, economic system, or religious organization. While many of these interpretations contain valuable observations, they often fail to reconcile the symbols of Revelation with the full counsel of God revealed throughout all of Scripture.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ must always be understood from Genesis to

EN

From the opening chapters of Genesis to the closing chapters of Revelation, God consistently reveals two orders. Two men. Two cities. Two kingdoms. Two minds. Two administrations. The first man is earthy; the second Man is heavenly. Babylon stands in contrast to New Jerusalem. Adam stands in contrast to Christ. The flesh stands in contrast to the Spirit.

Within this biblical framework, the seven heads and the ten horns are not merely symbols of outward governments or future world empires. They reveal the complete government and limited power of the Adamic nature as it opposes the life of Christ. Mystery Babylon is therefore more than a city or religious institution. It represents the mixture of flesh and spirit, truth and error, self and God that has confronted God's people throughout every generation.

Yet this book is not ultimately about Babylon.

It is about Jesus Christ.

God never exposes darkness merely to condemn it. He reveals in order to expose. He exposes in order to bring discernment. Discernment leads to separation. Separation prepares the way for transformation. Transformation leads to manifestation. Manifestation reveals the fullness of Christ.

That divine progression forms the foundation of this book.

As you journey through these chapters, you will discover that every symbol serves a greater purpose. The beast, the seven heads, the ten horns, the harlot, and Babylon itself all point beyond themselves to the triumph of the Lamb. Every revelation uncovers another aspect of God's eternal purpose until Christ becomes all in all.

May the Holy Spirit grant every reader wisdom, understanding, and spiritual discernment as these mysteries are unveiled through the light of God's Word.

Christ Fills All Things

This is the divine order revealed throughout the full counsel of God. The purpose of Revelation is not merely to identify Mystery Babylon, the beast, the seven heads, or the ten horns. Its purpose is to reveal Jesus Christ and God's eternal plan to deliver His people from every form of spiritual mixture into the fullness of Christ. As every symbol is reconciled through the whole counsel of God, the reader discovers not merely the judgment of Babylon, but the triumph of the Lamb, the formation of the Bride, the manifestation of the sons of God, and the ultimate fulfillment of God's eternal purpose, until Christ is all in all.

CHAPTER ONE

THE PURPOSE OF GOD'S MANIFESTED

EN

Can Ye Not Discern the Signs of the Times?

GOD REVEALS HIS WORK THROUGH MANIFESTED SIGNS

"He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is red.

And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day: for the sky is red and lowering. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?"

— Matthew 16:2–3

God has always revealed His work through manifested signs.

Those who discern the signs discern the season.

Those who discern the season recognize the work of God.

GOD MANIFESTS BEFORE HE EXPLAINS

"And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind...

And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire...

And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost..."

— Acts 2:2–4

EN

er, standing up with the eleven... said unto them..."

— Acts 2:14

The manifestation came before the explanation.

The sign came before the sermon.

God moved first.

Then He raised up a witness to declare what He had done.

GOD'S WORK IS REVEALED BEFORE IT IS UNDERSTOOD

"One thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see."

— John 9:25

The blind man could not explain the miracle.

He simply testified to the manifested sign.

The evidence preceded the understanding.

THE SCRIPTURES TESTIFY OF CHRIST

"Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me."

EN

— John 5:39

Every manifested sign points to Jesus Christ.

Every prophecy reveals Jesus Christ.

Every promise is fulfilled in Jesus Christ.

Every symbol finds its meaning in Jesus Christ.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST

“The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him...”

— Revelation 1:1

The book of Revelation is not primarily the revelation of the beast.

It is not primarily the revelation of Mystery Babylon.

It is not primarily the revelation of the seven heads and the ten horns.

It is the Revelation of Jesus Christ.

Every symbol must ultimately reveal Him.

GOD REVEALS SO THAT HIS PEOPLE MAY DISCERN

EN

“The Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.”

— Amos 3:7

God does not leave His people in darkness.

He reveals His purpose.

He manifests His work.

He gives discernment to those who have ears to hear.

HE THAT HATH AN EAR

“He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.”

— Revelation 2:7

The issue has never been whether God is speaking.

The issue is whether His people can discern His voice.

The manifested sign reveals that God has already begun His work.

THE DIVINE PATTERN

Throughout the Scriptures, God follows one unchanging pattern.

God Reveals.

s.

God Brings Discernment.

God Separates.

God Transforms.

God Manifests.

Christ Fills All Things.

This is the pattern we will follow throughout this book.

The purpose of every manifested sign is not merely to reveal Mystery Babylon.

The purpose of every manifested sign is to reveal Jesus Christ and to lead God's people from spiritual mixture into the fullness of Christ.

CHAPTER TWO

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST

The Light That Reveals Every Mystery

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST

"The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass..."

— Revelation 1:1

EN

Revelation is the revelation of Jesus Christ.

Every vision reveals Jesus Christ.

Every symbol reveals Jesus Christ.

Every promise is fulfilled in Jesus Christ.

ALL SCRIPTURE TESTIFIES OF CHRIST

“Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.”

— John 5:39

From Genesis to Revelation, the Scriptures testify of one Person.

Jesus Christ is the Seed.

Jesus Christ is the Passover Lamb.

Jesus Christ is the High Priest.

Jesus Christ is the King.

Jesus Christ is the Alpha and the Omega.

CHRIST IS THE IMAGE OF GOD

“... the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature.”

EN

— Colossians 1:15

“For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell.”

— Colossians 1:19

The Father has chosen to reveal Himself through His Son.

To know Christ is to know the Father.

To see Christ is to see the purpose of God.

CHRIST IS THE LIGHT

“Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.”

— John 8:12

The light of Christ reveals every hidden thing.

Light exposes darkness.

Truth exposes error.

Life exposes death.

The heavenly exposes the earthly.

THE LIGHT MAKES ALL THINGS MANIFEST

EN

“But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.”

— Ephesians 5:13

Christ does not expose in order to condemn.

He exposes in order to reveal.

He reveals in order to deliver.

He delivers in order to transform.

THE SON WALKS AMONG THE CANDLESTICKS

“And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man...”

— Revelation 1:13

“His head and his hairs were white like wool... and his eyes were as a flame of fire.”

— Revelation 1:14

The Son of God walks in the midst of His Church.

Nothing is hidden from His eyes.

EN

... reveals every condition.

I KNOW THY WORKS

"I know thy works..."

— Revelation 2:2

"I know thy works..."

— Revelation 2:9

"I know thy works..."

— Revelation 2:13

"I know thy works..."

— Revelation 2:19

"I know thy works..."

— Revelation 3:1

"I know thy works..."

"I know thy works..."

— Revelation 3:15

The Revelation of Jesus Christ begins with Christ examining His own house.

Before He reveals the beast...

EN

Before He reveals Babylon...

Before He reveals the seven heads...

Before He reveals the ten horns...

He reveals the condition of His Church.

JUDGMENT BEGINS AT THE HOUSE OF GOD

“For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God...”

— 1 Peter 4:17

God always begins with His own people.

He reveals.

He exposes.

He corrects.

He overcomes.

He prepares a people for His purpose.

EN

PURPOSE OF THE REVELATION

“For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

— Revelation 19:10

Every prophecy bears witness to Jesus Christ.

Every symbol points to Jesus Christ.

Every vision magnifies Jesus Christ.

Every mystery is fulfilled in Jesus Christ.

THE DIVINE REVELATION

The Revelation of Jesus Christ is not given to satisfy curiosity.

It is given to reveal the Son of God.

As Christ is revealed...

Darkness is exposed.

Babylon is uncovered.

The beast is identified.

The seven heads are understood.

The ten horns are judged.

EN

The end is prepared.

The New Jerusalem appears.

The fullness of Christ is revealed.

Jesus Christ is the beginning.

Jesus Christ is the ending.

Jesus Christ is the Revelation.

CHAPTER THREE

MYSTERY BABYLON THE GREAT

The Mystery of Spiritual Mixture

THE MYSTERY OF INIQUITY

“For the mystery of iniquity doth already work...”

— 2 Thessalonians 2:7

The mystery of iniquity was already working in the days of the apostles.

Mystery Babylon is not merely future.

It is a mystery God reveals.

It is a hidden work opposing the purpose of God until it is exposed by the appearing of Christ.

EN

MYSTERY BABYLON THE GREAT

“And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.”

— Revelation 17:5

God identifies Babylon as a mystery.

A mystery is revealed by God.

It cannot be understood by natural wisdom.

Only the revelation of Jesus Christ uncovers the mystery.

COME OUT OF HER, MY PEOPLE

“And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.”

— Revelation 18:4

God's call is to His people.

His people are in Babylon.

His people must hear His voice.

His people must come out.

EN

not first geographical.

It is spiritual.

BABYLON IS CONFUSION

“Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth...”

— Genesis 11:9

Babylon begins at Babel.

Its foundation is confusion.

Its language is mixture.

Its government is independent of God.

It exalts man instead of Christ.

THE FIRST MAN IS OF THE EARTH

“The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.”

— 1 Corinthians 15:47

Throughout Scripture God reveals two orders.

EN

n.

The second Man.

Adam.

Christ.

Babylon belongs to the first man.

New Jerusalem belongs to the second Man.

NO MAN CAN SERVE TWO MASTERS

“No man can serve two masters...”

— Matthew 6:24

Mystery Babylon is the place of mixture.

It attempts to unite what God has separated.

Flesh and Spirit.

Adam and Christ.

Self and God.

Truth and error.

God calls His people out of mixture and into Christ.

EN

A LITTLE LEAVEN

"A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump."

— Galatians 5:9

Mixture never remains small.

Error always seeks influence.

The purpose of God is purity.

Truth unmixed.

Grace unmixed.

Christ unmixed.

YE CANNOT DRINK BOTH

"Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils..."

— 1 Corinthians 10:21

There are two cups in Revelation.

Babylon holds a golden cup full of mixture.

Christ offers the cup of the New Covenant.

EN

er must choose which cup to drink.

THE BRIDE HAS MADE HERSELF READY

“Let us be glad and rejoice... for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.”

— Revelation 19:7

Revelation presents two women.

Mystery Babylon.

The Bride of Christ.

One is filled with mixture.

One is prepared for the Lamb.

One passes away.

One remains forever.

THE GREAT SEPARATION

Throughout the Scriptures God performs one great work.

He separates light from darkness.

error.

The holy from the profane.

The first man from the second Man.

Babylon from New Jerusalem.

This separation is not accomplished by human effort.

It is accomplished by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

As Christ is revealed...

Babylon is exposed.

As Babylon is exposed...

God's people hear His voice.

As God's people hear His voice...

They come out of her.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ is God's call from confusion into clarity.

From mixture into purity.

From Babylon into New Jerusalem.

From the first man into the fullness of Christ.

EN

TER FOUR

THE BEAST

The Administration of the First Man

THE BEAST RISES OUT OF THE SEA

“And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns...”

— Revelation 13:1

The beast does not come from heaven.

The beast rises out of the sea.

Throughout the Scriptures, the sea represents the restless nations of humanity.

The beast reveals the government of the first man.

THE WATERS ARE PEOPLES

“The waters which thou sawest... are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.”

— Revelation 17:15

The sea represents humanity.

The beast is manifested among men.

EN

Administration of the earthy man.

It governs through the wisdom of this world.

THE FIRST MAN

“The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.”

— 1 Corinthians 15:47

God reveals two administrations.

The administration of Adam.

The administration of Christ.

The beast belongs to the first.

The Kingdom belongs to the second.

THE NATURAL MAN

“But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him...”

The beast represents the natural order.

EN

ceive the things of God.

It governs apart from the mind of Christ.

It trusts the wisdom of man rather than the wisdom of God.

TO BE CARNALLY MINDED

“For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.”

— Romans 8:6

The government of the beast is the carnal mind.

Its thoughts produce death.

Its wisdom opposes the Spirit.

Its nature cannot inherit the Kingdom of God.

THE MIND OF THE FLESH IS ENMITY

“Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.”

— Romans 8:7

The beast is not merely something God opposes.

EN

manifestation of a nature that cannot submit itself to God.

The problem is not education.

The problem is nature.

THE BEAST MAKES WAR

“And it was given unto him to make war with the saints...”

— Revelation 13:7

The beast always opposes the work of God.

The flesh lusts against the Spirit.

The old man resists the new man.

Adam opposes Christ.

This warfare continues until Christ is fully revealed.

IF ANY MAN BE IN CHRIST

“Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.”

— 2 Corinthians 5:17

God does not reform the first man.

EN

He creates a new man.

The answer to the beast is not self-improvement.

The answer is a new creation in Christ Jesus.

PUT OFF THE OLD MAN

“That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man... And... put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.”

— Ephesians 4:22–24

Throughout the Scriptures, God reveals two men.

The old man.

The new man.

The beast belongs to the old man.

The Kingdom belongs to the new man.

“For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.”

of Christ must bow before Him.

Every work of the flesh must end.

Every kingdom of the first man must give way to the Kingdom of God.

The reign of Christ is the end of the beast's dominion.

The beast is not the central revelation of the book of Revelation.

Jesus Christ is.

The beast reveals the administration of the first man.

Christ reveals the administration of the second Man.

The beast governs through the wisdom of the flesh.

Christ governs through the mind of the Spirit.

The beast belongs to the old creation.

Christ is the Head of the new creation.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ exposes the beast so that God's people may leave the administration of Adam and walk in the administration of Christ.

The purpose of this revelation is not fear.

EN

is discernment.

The purpose is deliverance.

The purpose is the fullness of Christ.

CHAPTER FIVE

THE SEVEN HEADS

The Government of the Carnal Mind

THE BEAST HAS SEVEN HEADS

"And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns..."

— Revelation 13:1

"So he carried me away in the spirit... and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns."

— Revelation 17:3

The seven heads belong to the beast.

The beast cannot rule apart from its heads.

The heads reveal its government.

EN

THE SEVEN HEADS ARE SEVEN MOUNTAINS

“And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.”

— Revelation 17:9

Throughout the Scriptures, mountains represent kingdoms and governments.

The seven heads reveal the complete government of the beast.

They reveal the rule of the first man.

HERE IS THE MIND WHICH HATH WISDOM

“Here is the mind which hath wisdom.”

God immediately directs our attention to the mind.

The battle begins in the mind.

The government begins in the mind.

Every kingdom rules through a mind.

EN

Every administration is established through a mind.

“For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.”

— Romans 8:6

There are only two minds revealed in Scripture.

The carnal mind.

The mind of Christ.

One produces death.

The other produces life and peace.

THE CARNAL MIND

“Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.”

— Romans 8:7

The problem is not education.

The problem is government.

EN

mind cannot submit itself to God.

It belongs to the first man.

It governs everything the beast produces.

LET THIS MIND BE IN YOU

“Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.”

— Philippians 2:5

God’s answer is not a better carnal mind.

God’s answer is the mind of Christ.

The Kingdom of God is governed by another mind.

Another wisdom.

Another nature.

Another life.

WE HAVE THE MIND OF CHRIST

“But we have the mind of Christ.”

— 1 Corinthians 2:16

does more than forgive sins.

The Gospel renews the mind.

The Spirit reveals the thoughts of Christ.

The believer is called to walk under a new government.

“And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind...”

— Romans 12:2

Transformation begins with renewed thinking.

As the mind is renewed...

The government changes.

As the government changes...

Life changes.

As life changes...

Christ is manifested.

EN

NG DOWN IMAGINATIONS

“Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ.”

— 2 Corinthians 10:5

The battlefield is the mind.

Every thought must bow.

Every imagination must surrender.

Every stronghold must yield to Christ.

CHRIST MUST REIGN

“For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.”

— 1 Corinthians 15:25

Christ reigns by establishing His government.

His throne is established in His people.

His Word governs their minds.

His Spirit governs their lives.

His Kingdom replaces every rival government.

The seven heads reveal the complete government of the first man.

They reveal the rule of the carnal mind.

They reveal every thought, imagination, and wisdom that exalts itself against the knowledge of God.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ exposes that government.

The Gospel replaces that government.

The Holy Spirit renews that government.

The mind of Christ becomes the government of the Kingdom.

As the seven heads lose their authority...

The Kingdom of God gains dominion.

The purpose of this revelation is not merely to identify the seven heads.

The purpose is to remove their government and establish the mind of Christ until Christ alone reigns.

CHAPTER SIX

THE TEN HORNS

EN

United Power of the Flesh

THE BEAST HAS TEN HORNS

“And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns...”

— Revelation 13:1

“So he carried me away in the spirit... and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast... having seven heads and ten horns.”

— Revelation 17:3

The ten horns belong to the beast.

The ten horns serve the government of Mystery Babylon.

The ten horns reveal delegated power.

The ten horns do not possess everlasting authority.

THE TEN HORNS ARE TEN KINGS

“And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings... which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.”

— Revelation 17:12

The ten horns are ten kings.

Their authority is temporary.

EN

Their dominion is limited.

Their power lasts only "one hour" with the beast.

Every kingdom of Mystery Babylon has an appointed end.

THE TEN HORNS HAVE ONE MIND

"These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast."

— Revelation 17:13

The ten horns have one mind.

The beast has one government.

Mystery Babylon has one purpose.

Everything belonging to the first man is united in its opposition to the Kingdom of God.

THEY MAKE WAR WITH THE LAMB

"These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings..."

— Revelation 17:14

The ten horns oppose the Lamb.

EN

The beast opposes the Lamb.

Mystery Babylon opposes the Lamb.

But the outcome is never in doubt.

The Lamb overcomes every enemy.

THE FLESH LUSTETH AGAINST THE SPIRIT

“For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other.”

— Galatians 5:17

The warfare revealed by the ten horns is the conflict between flesh and Spirit.

The first man resists the second Man.

The old creation resists the new creation.

Mystery Babylon resists the Kingdom of God.

THE ARM OF FLESH SHALL FAIL

“With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles.”

— 2 Chronicles 32:8

of the ten horns is the strength of the flesh.

The power of Mystery Babylon is temporary.

The arm of flesh always fails.

The power of Christ never fails.

THE KINGDOM OF CHRIST SHALL STAND FOREVER

“And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed...”

— Daniel 2:44

Every kingdom built by man passes away.

Every kingdom of Mystery Babylon comes to an end.

The Kingdom of Christ alone is everlasting.

His dominion has no end.

“For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.”

EN

The reign of Christ continues until every enemy is subdued.

Every horn must bow.

Every kingdom must surrender.

Every authority opposed to Christ must give way to His Kingdom.

ALL POWER IS GIVEN UNTO CHRIST

“All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.”

The ten horns possess temporary power.

Jesus Christ possesses all power.

The beast receives authority.

Christ possesses authority.

Mystery Babylon rises for a season.

The Kingdom of God endures forever.

The ten horns reveal the limited power of the beast.

EN

ns reveal the temporary authority of Mystery Babylon.

The ten horns reveal that every kingdom built upon the first man has an appointed end.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ does not magnify the power of the beast.

It magnifies the victory of the Lamb.

The ten horns rise.

The ten horns rule for a season.

The ten horns make war with the Lamb.

But the Lamb overcomes.

The kingdoms of this world give way to the Kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ.

The purpose of this revelation is not to produce fear of the ten horns.

The purpose is to reveal the certainty of Christ's victory, the downfall of Mystery Babylon, and the everlasting reign of the Kingdom of God.

CHAPTER SEVEN

THE HARLOT

Religion Riding the Beast

THE WOMAN SITS UPON THE BEAST

EN

carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.”

— Revelation 17:3

Mystery Babylon is revealed as a woman.

She sits upon the beast.

She is supported by the government of the beast.

She rides upon the seven heads and the ten horns.

The religion of Mystery Babylon is sustained by the administration of the first man.

MYSTERY BABYLON THE GREAT

“And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.”

— Revelation 17:5

God gives her name.

Mystery Babylon the Great.

She is called a mystery because she cannot be understood apart from the revelation of Jesus Christ.

She is the mother of harlots because spiritual mixture always produces more mixture

EN

Error reproduces error.

Religion reproduces religion.

Only Christ produces life.

ARRAYED IN PURPLE AND SCARLET

“And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls...”

— Revelation 17:4

Mystery Babylon possesses outward beauty.

She appears wealthy.

She appears powerful.

She appears religious.

She appears glorious.

Yet outward appearance is not inward reality.

God looks upon the heart.

A GOLDEN CUP

“... a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her on.”

EN

— Revelation 17:4

The cup is golden.

Its contents are not.

Mystery Babylon presents outward beauty while concealing inward corruption.

The appearance is attractive.

The mixture is deadly.

God always looks beyond appearance to reality.

THIS PEOPLE HONoureTH ME WITH THEIR LIPS

“This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me.”

Religion without Christ is outward.

Words without life.

Profession without transformation.

Form without power.

EN

Mystery Babylon preserves appearance while lacking the life of Christ.

HAVING A FORM OF GODLINESS

“Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.”

— 2 Timothy 3:5

The greatest deception is not open rebellion.

The greatest deception is religious mixture.

Mystery Babylon has a form.

The Bride possesses life.

Mystery Babylon imitates.

The Holy Spirit transforms.

YE MAKE CLEAN THE OUTSIDE

“For ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.”

— Matthew 23:25

Jesus exposed the same spirit manifested by Mystery Babylon.

EN

appeared clean.

The inside remained unchanged.

The Kingdom of God begins within.

Transformation begins within.

Christ works from the inside outward.

CHRIST LOVED THE CHURCH

“That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word... That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing.”

— Ephesians 5:26–27

The Bride is not adorned by religion.

The Bride is cleansed by the Word.

The Bride is sanctified by Christ.

The Bride is prepared by the Holy Spirit.

The Bride reflects the life of the Bridegroom.

TWO WOMEN

EN

ther, I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore...”

— Revelation 17:1

“Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb’s wife.”

— Revelation 21:9

Revelation reveals two women.

Mystery Babylon.

The Bride of Christ.

One rides the beast.

One belongs to the Lamb.

One is filled with mixture.

One is filled with glory.

One passes away.

One remains forever.

Mystery Babylon is more than a false religious system.

Mystery Babylon reveals the mixture of the first man attempting to wear the the second Man.

EN

She rides the beast because religion built upon the flesh always depends upon the government of the first man.

The Bride of Christ does not ride the beast.

The Bride follows the Lamb.

Mystery Babylon is adorned outwardly.

The Bride is transformed inwardly.

Mystery Babylon offers a golden cup filled with mixture.

Christ offers the cup of the New Covenant filled with life.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ exposes Mystery Babylon so that God's people may discern the difference between outward religion and inward transformation.

The purpose of this revelation is not merely to expose the harlot.

The purpose is to prepare a spotless Bride for the Lamb and to lead God's people from Mystery Babylon into the fullness of Christ.

CHAPTER EIGHT

THE MYSTERY OF MIXTURE

Truth and Error in Conflict

EN

"For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints."

— 1 Corinthians 14:33

God is not the author of confusion.

God is the author of truth.

Mystery Babylon produces confusion.

The Kingdom of God produces peace.

Mystery Babylon mixes.

Christ separates.

MYSTERY BABYLON THE GREAT

"And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT..."

— Revelation 17:5

Mystery Babylon is the mystery of spiritual mixture.

She mixes truth with error.

She mixes flesh with Spirit.

EN

the wisdom of man with the wisdom of God.

God calls His people out of Mystery Babylon into the simplicity that is in Christ.

BABEL

“Therefore is the name of it called Babel; because the LORD did there confound the language of all the earth.”

— Genesis 11:9

Babylon begins at Babel.

Babel produced confusion.

Babylon continues confusion.

The Gospel restores understanding.

The Holy Spirit restores one voice.

Christ restores one mind.

A DOUBLE MINDED MAN

“A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.”

— James 1:8

Mystery Babylon produces a divided mind.

EN

A divided mind cannot walk in the fullness of Christ.

God calls His people to one mind.

One faith.

One Lord.

One Spirit.

NO MAN CAN SERVE TWO MASTERS

“No man can serve two masters...”

— Matthew 6:24

The heart cannot belong to Adam and Christ.

It cannot serve the flesh and the Spirit.

It cannot live in Mystery Babylon and the Kingdom of God at the same time.

God calls His people into wholehearted devotion.

A LITTLE LEAVEN

“A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.”

ys spreads.

Error never remains isolated.

Mystery Babylon begins with mixture.

God removes the leaven through His truth.

Christ purifies His people.

WHAT FELLOWSHIP HATH LIGHT WITH DARKNESS?

“Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?”

God reveals two kingdoms.

Light and darkness.

Christ and Belial.

The temple of God and idols.

Mystery Babylon attempts to unite what God has separated.

The Gospel restores God’s divine order.

EN

SANCTIFY THEM THROUGH THY TRUTH

“Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.”

— John 17:17

Truth separates.

Truth sanctifies.

Truth delivers.

The Word of God removes mixture.

The Word prepares the Bride.

The Word leads God’s people out of Mystery Babylon.

THE SWORD OF THE SPIRIT

“And take... the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.”

The Word of God divides.

The Word exposes.

The Word discerns.

EN

discovers every work of Mystery Babylon.

Nothing remains hidden before the truth of Christ.

THE WORD DISCERNs

“For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword... and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.”

— Hebrews 4:12

The Word does not merely reveal doctrine.

The Word reveals the heart.

The Word exposes mixture.

The Word reveals whether Christ or the first man is governing within.

Mystery Babylon is the mystery of mixture.

It is the mixture of truth and error.

The mixture of flesh and Spirit.

The mixture of the first man and the second Man.

The revelation of Jesus Christ exposes every mixture.

EN

The Word of God separates every mixture.

The Holy Spirit removes every mixture.

The Bride is purified from every mixture.

God is preparing a people who are of one mind, one faith, one Spirit, and one Lord.

The purpose of this revelation is not merely to expose Mystery Babylon.

The purpose is to deliver God's people from Mystery Babylon into the fullness of Christ, where every mixture is removed and Christ alone reigns.

CHAPTER NINE

COME OUT OF HER, MY PEOPLE

God's Call to Separation

COME OUT OF HER, MY PEOPLE

"And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues."

— Revelation 18:4

God's call is directed to His people.

His people are in Mystery Babylon.

EN

ear His voice.

His people are called out.

The call of Mystery Babylon is answered by the call of Jesus Christ.

MY SHEEP HEAR MY VOICE

“My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.”

— John 10:27

The voice that calls God’s people out of Mystery Babylon is the voice of the Good Shepherd.

His sheep recognize His voice.

They leave the stranger.

They follow the Lamb.

TOUCH NOT THE UNCLEAN THING

“Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing...”

— 2 Corinthians 6:17

God has always called His people to separation.

EN

on from the world alone.

Separation from spiritual mixture.

Separation from Mystery Babylon.

Separation unto Christ.

BE YE HOLY

“But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation.”

— 1 Peter 1:15

God’s call is not merely to leave something.

It is to become something.

The call out of Mystery Babylon is a call into the holiness of Christ.

LET US GO ON UNTO PERFECTION

“Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection.”

— Hebrews 6:1

God never calls His people backward.

EN

n forward.

He calls them onward.

He calls them into maturity.

He calls them into the fullness of Christ.

BE NOT CONFORMED TO THIS WORLD

— Romans 12:2

The call out of Mystery Babylon begins with a renewed mind.

The mind changes.

The life changes.

The government changes.

Christ becomes all.

FOLLOW THE LAMB

“These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth.”

EN

Mystery Babylon gathers followers.

Jesus Christ gathers disciples.

Mystery Babylon follows the beast.

The saints follow the Lamb.

The direction of your life reveals the government of your heart.

YE SHALL KNOW THE TRUTH

“And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.”

Truth brings freedom.

Truth breaks deception.

Truth exposes Mystery Babylon.

Truth leads God’s people into liberty.

Jesus Christ is the Truth.

THE SPIRIT AND THE BRIDE SAY, COME

“And the Spirit and the bride say, Come...”

EN

tion 22:17

The voice that once cried,

"Come out of her, My people..."

Now cries,

"Come."

The journey is complete.

God calls His people out of Mystery Babylon.

God brings His people into fellowship with Christ.

The call out becomes the call in.

The call to come out of Mystery Babylon is one of the great invitations of the Revelation of Jesus Christ.

It is not merely a call to leave religious error.

It is a call to leave every form of spiritual mixture.

It is a call to leave the government of the first man.

It is a call to leave the wisdom of the flesh.

EN

leave the administration of the beast.

It is a call to follow the Lamb.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ does not simply expose Mystery Babylon.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ delivers God's people from Mystery Babylon.

The Good Shepherd still speaks.

His sheep still hear His voice.

His Spirit still leads.

His truth still makes free.

His purpose is to bring His people out of Mystery Babylon and into the fullness of Christ, where the Lamb reigns forever.

CHAPTER TEN

THE CROSS

Where the First Man Ends and the Second Man Begins

THE PREACHING OF THE CROSS

"For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God."

EN

The cross is the power of God.

The cross is the wisdom of God.

The cross is God's answer to the first man.

The cross is God's answer to Mystery Babylon.

OUR OLD MAN IS CRUCIFIED

"Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed..."

— Romans 6:6

The cross was never merely about forgiveness.

The cross was God's judgment upon the old man.

The cross declared the end of Adam's government.

The cross pronounced the sentence upon Mystery Babylon.

I AM CRUCIFIED WITH CHRIST

"I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me..."

— Galatians 2:20

ends.

The life of Christ begins.

The first man decreases.

The second Man increases.

The cross removes the life of Adam and reveals the life of Christ.

IF ANY MAN BE IN CHRIST

“Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new.”

— 2 Corinthians 5:17

God did not improve the old creation.

God created a new creation.

The answer to Mystery Babylon is not reformation.

The answer is new creation.

THE FIRST MAN AND THE SECOND MAN

“The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.”

EN

2 Corinthians 15:47

The cross separates the two men.

The first man belongs to the earth.

The second Man belongs to heaven.

The first man cannot inherit the Kingdom.

The second Man is the heir of all things.

CHRIST HATH REDEEMED US

“Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us...”

— Galatians 3:13

The cross redeemed us.

The cross reconciled us.

The cross ended the dominion of sin.

The cross broke the power of condemnation.

The cross opened the way into the fullness of Christ.

EN

HAVING SPOILED PRINCIPALITIES AND POWERS

“And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.”

— Colossians 2:15

The victory of the cross was complete.

The powers of darkness were defeated.

The authority of the beast was judged.

The government of Mystery Babylon was exposed.

Jesus Christ triumphed openly.

GOD FORBID THAT I SHOULD GLORY

“But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.”

— Galatians 6:14

The cross separates God’s people from the spirit of the world.

Mystery Babylon glories in the wisdom of man.

EN

glories in the cross of Christ.

The cross changes our citizenship.

The cross changes our allegiance.

HE MUST INCREASE

"He must increase, but I must decrease."

The cross is the great exchange.

The first man decreases.

Christ increases.

Self decreases.

The life of Christ increases.

The kingdom of Mystery Babylon decreases.

The Kingdom of God increases.

The cross is the dividing line between the first man and the second Man.

EN

God's answer to Adam.

The cross is God's answer to the beast.

The cross is God's answer to the seven heads.

The cross is God's answer to the ten horns.

The cross is God's answer to Mystery Babylon.

Everything that belongs to the first man was judged at the cross.

Everything that belongs to the second Man was revealed through the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ does not merely reveal the judgment of Mystery Babylon.

It reveals the triumph of the cross.

From the cross flows the new creation.

From the cross flows reconciliation.

From the cross flows the Kingdom of God.

From the cross flows the fullness of Christ.

The cross marks the end of the old creation and the beginning of God's eternal purpose in Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

EN

THE MIND OF CHRIST

Replacing the Government of the First Man

LET THIS MIND BE IN YOU

“Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.”

— Philippians 2:5

God does not merely change our behavior.

God changes our mind.

The Kingdom of God is governed by the mind of Christ.

Mystery Babylon is governed by the mind of the first man.

WE HAVE THE MIND OF CHRIST

“For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.”

— 1 Corinthians 2:16

The mind of Christ is the inheritance of every believer.

The Holy Spirit reveals the thoughts of Christ.

The Word of God renews the mind.

The government of Christ replaces the government of the first man.

EN

— Romans 8:6

There are only two governments.

The government of the carnal mind.

The government of the mind of Christ.

Mystery Babylon is governed by the carnal mind.

THE CARNAL MIND

“Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.”

— Romans 8:7

The first man cannot govern the Kingdom of God.

The wisdom of Adam cannot produce the life of Christ.

Mystery Babylon always depends upon the wisdom of man.

EN

n of God depends upon the wisdom of God.

BE YE TRANSFORMED

— Romans 12:2

Transformation begins with the renewing of the mind.

As the mind is renewed...

The government changes.

As the government changes...

The life changes.

As the life changes...

CASTING DOWN IMAGINATIONS

“Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ.”

— 2 Corinthians 10:5

EN

Every thought must bow to Christ.

Every imagination must surrender.

Every argument must submit.

Every government of Mystery Babylon must give place to the government of Christ.

PUT OFF THE OLD MAN

— Ephesians 4:22–24

The old man belongs to Mystery Babylon.

The new man belongs to Christ.

The old government passes away.

The new government is established.

RENEWED IN KNOWLEDGE

“And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him.”

EN

The mind of Christ restores the image of God.

The wisdom of Christ replaces the wisdom of Adam.

The knowledge of Christ replaces the confusion of Mystery Babylon.

Truth replaces mixture.

Light replaces darkness.

CHRIST IS MADE UNTO US WISDOM

“But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption.”

— 1 Corinthians 1:30

Jesus Christ is our wisdom.

Jesus Christ is our righteousness.

Jesus Christ is our sanctification.

Jesus Christ is our redemption.

Everything Mystery Babylon promises through the wisdom of man is fulfilled only in Christ.

EN

Christ is the government of the Kingdom of God.

The carnal mind is the government of Mystery Babylon.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ exposes the government of the first man.

The Holy Spirit establishes the government of the second Man.

The seven heads give way to the mind of Christ.

The wisdom of Adam gives way to the wisdom of God.

The confusion of Mystery Babylon gives way to the peace of Christ.

The purpose of this revelation is not merely to expose the carnal mind.

The purpose is to establish the mind of Christ until every thought is brought into the obedience of Christ, every government of Mystery Babylon is removed, and Christ alone reigns in His people.

CHAPTER TWELVE

THE HOLY ANOINTING

God Does Not Anoint the Flesh

THE HOLY ANOINTING

“But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you...”

— 1 John 2:27

EN

rit is God's anointing.

The Holy Spirit abides in Christ.

The Holy Spirit abides in His people.

The Holy Spirit never anoints the flesh.

THE SPIRIT OF THE LORD IS UPON ME

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me...”

— Luke 4:18

The Father anointed His Son.

Jesus Christ is the Anointed One.

Every true anointing flows from Christ.

Every true ministry proceeds from Christ.

The Holy Spirit always glorifies Christ.

GOD GIVETH NOT THE SPIRIT BY MEASURE

“For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him.”

EN

— John 3:34

The fullness of the Spirit dwells in Jesus Christ.

The anointing is complete in Him.

The Holy Spirit reveals Christ.

The Holy Spirit forms Christ within His people.

THE FLESH PROFITETH NOTHING

"It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing..."

— John 6:63

The flesh cannot produce the life of God.

The flesh cannot produce the Kingdom of God.

The flesh cannot produce the anointing.

Mystery Babylon depends upon the strength of the flesh.

The Kingdom of God depends upon the Holy Spirit.

NOT BY MIGHT, NOR BY POWER

"Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts."

EN

Isaiah 4:6

God's Kingdom is not built through human strength.

God's purpose is accomplished by His Spirit.

Mystery Babylon trusts the wisdom and power of man.

The Kingdom of God trusts the power of the Holy Spirit.

THE NATURAL MAN

"But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God..."

The first man cannot receive the things of the Spirit.

The wisdom of Mystery Babylon cannot understand the mind of Christ.

Only the Holy Spirit reveals the things freely given to us by God.

THEY THAT ARE IN THE FLESH

"So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God."

— Romans 8:8

God does not improve the flesh.

EN

...not anoint the flesh.

God crucifies the old man.

God reveals the new man.

The Holy Spirit bears witness to Christ, not Adam.

IF ANY MAN HAVE NOT THE SPIRIT OF CHRIST

“Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.”

— Romans 8:9

The distinguishing mark of God’s people is the Spirit of Christ.

The Holy Spirit governs the Kingdom of God.

The spirit of the world governs Mystery Babylon.

Two spirits.

Two kingdoms.

Two governments.

CHRIST IN YOU

EN

God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.”

— Colossians 1:27

The great mystery is not Mystery Babylon.

The great mystery is Christ in you.

The Holy Spirit forms Christ within.

The Holy Spirit transforms from glory to glory.

The Holy Spirit prepares the Bride.

THE HOLY SPIRIT GLORIFIES CHRIST

“He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.”

— John 16:14

The ministry of the Holy Spirit is to glorify Jesus Christ.

The Holy Spirit never glorifies man.

The Holy Spirit never glorifies the flesh.

The Holy Spirit never glorifies Mystery Babylon.

The Holy Spirit glorifies Christ.

EN

The Holy Spirit is God's anointing.

The Holy Spirit rests upon Jesus Christ.

The Holy Spirit dwells within the Body of Christ.

The Holy Spirit reveals the mind of Christ.

The Holy Spirit exposes Mystery Babylon.

The Holy Spirit calls God's people out of Mystery Babylon.

The Holy Spirit transforms God's people into the image of Christ.

God does not anoint the first man.

God anoints the new man.

God does not establish the government of Mystery Babylon.

God establishes the Kingdom of His Son.

The purpose of the Holy Spirit is to reveal Jesus Christ, remove every work of Mystery Babylon, prepare the Bride of Christ, and bring God's people into the fullness of Christ through the power of His abiding anointing.

CHAPTER THIRTEEN

EN

Mystery Babylon to the New Jerusalem

CHRIST LOVED THE CHURCH

"Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;

That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word,

That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish."***

— Ephesians 5:25–27

Christ is preparing a Bride.

The Bride is sanctified by the Word.

The Bride is cleansed by the Word.

The Bride is without spot.

The Bride is without wrinkle.

The Bride is prepared for the Lamb.

THE MARRIAGE OF THE LAMB

"Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready."

EN

The purpose of the Revelation of Jesus Christ is not merely the judgment of Mystery Babylon.

The purpose is the preparation of the Bride.

As Mystery Babylon falls...

The Bride is revealed.

As mixture is removed...

Purity appears.

THE BRIDE HATH MADE HERSELF READY

“And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.”

— Revelation 19:8

Mystery Babylon is clothed with outward glory.

The Bride is clothed with the righteousness of Christ.

Mystery Babylon wears purple and scarlet.

The Bride wears fine linen.

Mystery Babylon displays earthly splendor.

EN

veals heavenly life.

COME, I WILL SHEW THEE THE BRIDE

"Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife."

— Revelation 21:9

Revelation presents two women.

Mystery Babylon.

The Bride of Christ.

One belongs to the beast.

One belongs to the Lamb.

One is judged.

One inherits the Kingdom.

THE NEW JERUSALEM

"And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God."

— Revelation 21:10

EN

the New Jerusalem.

Mystery Babylon is the great harlot.

One city passes away.

One city remains forever.

One is built by man.

One comes down from God.

CHRIST IS THE HEAD

“And he is the head of the body, the church...”

Christ governs His Bride.

The beast governs Mystery Babylon.

Christ is the Head of the Church.

The Bride lives under the government of Christ.

The harlot rides the government of the beast.

ONE SPIRIT

EN

“That is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.”

The Bride is one with Christ.

She shares His life.

She shares His Spirit.

She shares His purpose.

Mystery Babylon lives by mixture.

The Bride lives by union with Christ.

THE BRIDEGROOM

“He that hath the bride is the bridegroom...”

— John 3:29

Jesus Christ is the Bridegroom.

The Church is His Bride.

The voice of the Bridegroom calls His people out of Mystery Babylon.

The Bride hears His voice.

The Bride follows the Lamb.

EN

WITHOUT SPOT

“That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke... among whom ye shine as lights in the world.”

— Philippians 2:15

God is preparing a spotless people.

A holy people.

A mature people.

A people conformed to the image of His Son.

The Bride reflects the glory of Christ.

THE SPIRIT AND THE BRIDE

“And the Spirit and the bride say, Come...”

— Revelation 22:17

The Spirit and the Bride speak with one voice.

The Spirit prepares the Bride.

The Bride reveals Christ.

The Spirit invites the nations to the water of life.

EN

This is the final testimony of the Revelation of Jesus Christ.

THE DIVINE REVELATION

Mystery Babylon reveals the religion of the first man.

The Bride of Christ reveals the life of the second Man.

Mystery Babylon is built upon mixture.

The Bride is built upon Christ.

Mystery Babylon rides the beast.

The Bride follows the Lamb.

Mystery Babylon seeks earthly glory.

The Bride reveals heavenly glory.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ exposes Mystery Babylon so that He may prepare a glorious Bride.

The Word sanctifies the Bride.

The Holy Spirit transforms the Bride.

The Lamb receives the Bride.

EN

Jerusalem reveals the Bride.

The purpose of this revelation is not merely the fall of Mystery Babylon.

The purpose is the unveiling of the Bride of Christ, prepared without spot or wrinkle, filled with the life of Christ, and brought into the fullness of God's eternal purpose.

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

THE NEW JERUSALEM

The City Without Mixture

THE HOLY CITY

"And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband."

— Revelation 21:2

The New Jerusalem is God's holy city.

The New Jerusalem is prepared by God.

The New Jerusalem is the Bride of Christ.

The New Jerusalem stands in complete contrast to Mystery Babylon.

COME, I WILL SHEW THEE THE BRIDE

"Come, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife."

EN

And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God."

The Bride is the New Jerusalem.

The New Jerusalem is not Mystery Babylon.

Mystery Babylon is the city of the first man.

The New Jerusalem is the city of the second Man.

One belongs to the beast.

THE TABERNACLE OF GOD

"Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God."

— Revelation 21:3

The purpose of God has always been to dwell with His people.

The New Jerusalem reveals God's dwelling place.

Mystery Babylon reveals man's dwelling place.

EN

The New Jerusalem reveals God's eternal purpose fulfilled.

ALL THINGS ARE MADE NEW

— Revelation 21:5

The Kingdom of God is a new creation.

The New Jerusalem is new.

The new man is new.

The new heavens are new.

The new earth is new.

Mystery Babylon belongs to the old creation.

The New Jerusalem belongs to the new creation.

THERE SHALL BE NO MORE DEATH

“And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain...”

— Revelation 21:4

EN

gs to the first man.

Life belongs to the second Man.

Mystery Babylon is the administration of death.

The New Jerusalem is the administration of life.

Christ has swallowed up death in victory.

THE GLORY OF GOD

“Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious...”

— Revelation 21:11

The glory of God fills the New Jerusalem.

The light of Christ fills the New Jerusalem.

The presence of God fills the New Jerusalem.

There is no mixture in the glory of God.

There is only Christ.

THE LORD GOD ALMIGHTY AND THE

LAMB

EN

“And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.”

— Revelation 21:22

Mystery Babylon depends upon outward religion.

The New Jerusalem lives in the presence of God.

Christ Himself is the Temple.

The Lamb Himself is the dwelling place.

God and His people are one.

THE LAMB IS THE LIGHT

“And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon... for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof.”

— Revelation 21:23

The Lamb is the light of the New Jerusalem.

Darkness has passed away.

Confusion has passed away.

Mystery Babylon has passed away.

EN

gives light.

THERE SHALL IN NO WISE ENTER

“And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth... but they which are written in the Lamb’s book of life.”

— Revelation 21:27

Nothing unclean enters the New Jerusalem.

Nothing false enters the New Jerusalem.

Nothing belonging to Mystery Babylon enters the New Jerusalem.

Every mixture has been removed.

Every work of the first man has passed away.

Christ is all.

The New Jerusalem is God’s final answer to Mystery Babylon.

Mystery Babylon is the city of confusion.

The New Jerusalem is the city of peace.

Mystery Babylon is built by the first man.

EN

The New Jerusalem comes down from God.

Mystery Babylon is sustained by the beast.

The New Jerusalem is illuminated by the Lamb.

Mystery Babylon passes away.

The New Jerusalem abides forever.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ begins with the revelation of the Son of God and culminates in the revelation of the New Jerusalem, where God's eternal purpose is fulfilled, His people dwell in His presence, His glory fills all things, and every trace of Mystery Babylon has forever disappeared.

The New Jerusalem is the fullness of God's Kingdom.

The New Jerusalem is the fullness of God's people.

The New Jerusalem is the fullness of Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER FIFTEEN

THE FULLNESS OF CHRIST

The Triumph of the Lamb

THE FULLNESS OF HIM

"And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all the church,

EN

Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all."

— Ephesians 1:22–23

The eternal purpose of God is the fullness of Christ.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ leads God's people into the fullness of Christ.

Mystery Babylon gives way to the Kingdom of God.

TILL WE ALL COME

"Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ."

— Ephesians 4:13

God is bringing His people into maturity.

God is bringing His people into unity.

God is bringing His people into the fullness of Christ.

The purpose of the Gospel is not merely conversion.

The purpose of the Gospel is conformity to Christ.

EN

CHRIST IN YOU

“To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.”

— Colossians 1:27

The greatest mystery is not Mystery Babylon.

The greatest mystery is Christ in you.

Christ within is the hope of glory.

Christ within is the answer to Mystery Babylon.

Christ within is the fullness of God’s purpose.

THAT GOD MAY BE ALL IN ALL

“And when all things shall be subdued unto him... that God may be all in all.”

— 1 Corinthians 15:28

This is the conclusion of the Revelation of Jesus Christ.

God will be all in all.

Every enemy will be subdued.

Every enemy opposed to Christ will end.

EN

Every work of Mystery Babylon will pass away.

Christ alone will remain.

THE KINGDOMS OF THIS WORLD

“The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.”

— Revelation 11:15

The Kingdom of Christ replaces every lesser kingdom.

The Kingdom of Christ replaces the kingdom of the beast.

The Kingdom of Christ replaces Mystery Babylon.

The Kingdom of Christ shall never end.

DEATH IS SWALLOWED UP IN VICTORY

“So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.”

The fullness of Christ triumphs over death.

EN

The fullness of Christ triumphs over corruption.

The fullness of Christ triumphs over the first man.

The fullness of Christ triumphs over Mystery Babylon.

Life swallows up death.

Christ swallows up Adam.

BEHOLD, I MAKE ALL THINGS NEW

“And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new.”

— Revelation 21:5

Everything finds its fulfillment in Christ.

The old creation passes away.

The new creation remains.

Mystery Babylon passes away.

The New Jerusalem remains forever.

THE SPIRIT AND THE BRIDE SAY, COME

EN

tion 22:17

The final invitation belongs to Christ.

The Spirit invites.

The Bride invites.

The water of life is freely given.

The work of redemption reaches its glorious purpose.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST

“The Revelation of Jesus Christ...”

— Revelation 1:1

The Revelation begins with Jesus Christ.

The Revelation ends with Jesus Christ.

Every symbol points to Jesus Christ.

Every prophecy reveals Jesus Christ.

Every promise is fulfilled in Jesus Christ.

Every mystery finds its answer in Jesus Christ.

EN

THE DIVINE REVELATION

The Revelation of Jesus Christ is the unveiling of God's eternal purpose.

Mystery Babylon is revealed so that it may be overcome.

The beast is revealed so that its dominion may end.

The seven heads are revealed so that the mind of Christ may reign.

The ten horns are revealed so that their temporary power may give way to the everlasting Kingdom of God.

The harlot is revealed so that the Bride of Christ may be prepared.

The New Jerusalem is revealed as God's eternal dwelling place.

The fullness of Christ is the end toward which every prophecy moves.

The fullness of Christ is the purpose for which every promise was given.

The fullness of Christ is the inheritance of the saints.

The fullness of Christ is the manifestation of the sons of God.

The fullness of Christ is the revelation of the Kingdom of God.

The fullness of Christ is God's eternal purpose fulfilled.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ does not end with Mystery Babylon.

It ends with Jesus Christ.

EN

orious.

Christ is exalted.

Christ fills all things.

Christ is all in all.

Amen.
