Savior of the World: Introduction

Humanity's first captivity did not begin with chains forged by men.

It began with a lie.

The first prison was not built with iron bars, stone walls, or locked gates. It began with a whisper in a garden. Darkness entered through deception. Fear entered through deception. Shame entered through deception. Separation entered through deception. Death itself entered through deception.

The adversary's greatest weapon was never physical power. It was the power of falsehood.

EN

oment onward mankind has struggled beneath the weight of distorted r, confusion, accusation, and false identity. Entire systems have been built upon lies. Kingdoms have risen through deception. Men have lived beneath shadows while searching for truth.

Then the Savior of the World appeared.

He did not come carrying earthly weapons.

He did not establish His Kingdom through armies or political power.

He came carrying truth.

Jesus declared:

“You shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.”

Those words reveal one of the greatest mysteries in all Scripture. Truth is not merely information. Truth is not simply doctrine or intellectual understanding. Truth is a person revealed.

Jesus did not merely speak truth.

He declared:

“I am the truth.”

This changes everything.

For if Christ Himself is truth, then salvation becomes more than escaping judgment. Salvation becomes the unveiling of Christ within humanity. It becomes light entering darkness. It becomes revelation overcoming deception. It becomes freedom swallowing captivity.

llows that river from Genesis to Revelation.

We will see how bondage began with a lie, how Christ came as the living truth, how the White Horse Rider advances through revelation, and how truth progressively subdues every enemy until all things stand beneath the reign of Christ.

Because the Savior of the World still rides forth conquering and to conquer.

And His conquest is liberty.

CHAPTER 1

THE LIE THAT ENTERED EDEN

“Now the serpent was more subtle than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made...”

“And he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said?”

The first captivity of mankind did not begin with chains.

It began with a question.

Many imagine humanity's fall beginning with an act of disobedience alone, but beneath the outward act there was something deeper taking place. Before Adam

EN

With his hand, something first reached into his mind. Before man partook of the tree, another seed had already been planted.

A word entered.

A thought entered.

A suggestion entered.

The serpent did not appear carrying a sword.

He did not arrive with armies.

He did not attack through physical force.

He came carrying a lie.

The warfare began in the realm of understanding.

"Yea, hath God said?"

These words may appear small, but hidden within them was the seed of an entire kingdom of darkness. For the enemy's strategy was not first to destroy man; his strategy was to alter how man saw God.

Because once truth becomes distorted, everything flowing from it becomes distorted.

If God is seen incorrectly, then man sees himself incorrectly.

If man sees himself incorrectly, then fear enters.

If fear enters, then separation enters.

EN

enters, then death enters.

A river began flowing from a single lie.

THE FIRST CAPTIVITY WAS INVISIBLE

Most prisons throughout history were built with stone walls and iron bars.

But Eden reveals another kind of prison.

The first prison had no walls.

The first prison had no chains.

The first prison existed within perception.

Adam and Eve had walked openly with God. There was no fear. There was no shame. There was no hiding. There was only fellowship, peace, and rest.

But once deception entered, notice what immediately followed.

"And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked."

Suddenly shame appeared.

Suddenly fear appeared.

Suddenly hiding appeared.

Suddenly distance appeared.

No.

Did God withdraw Himself?

No.

Did heaven suddenly shut its doors?

No.

The change occurred within man.

Man's perception had become darkened.

The lie had created a false world within his understanding.

How powerful deception is!

One false thought can create years of bondage.

One false identity can imprison an entire lifetime.

One lie believed can build walls that were never there.

Many people continue living in prisons that heaven never built.

Some live imprisoned by fear.

Some live imprisoned by guilt.

Some live imprisoned by condemnation.

Some live imprisoned by shame.

Some live imprisoned by religion.

Some live imprisoned by false identity.

Yet many of these chains are invisible.

THE SAVIOR OF THE WORLD ENTERED THE SAME BATTLEFIELD

When Christ came into the world, He entered the very battlefield where the first captivity began.

He did not merely come to change behavior.

He came to reveal truth.

Notice His words:

“You shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.”

Why truth?

Because truth attacks the very root of captivity.

The Savior of the World did not simply come to manage symptoms.

He came to remove the lie beneath the symptoms.

Darkness had entered through deception.

Light would enter through revelation.

Bondage had entered through falsehood.

Freedom would come through truth.

Fear had entered through confusion.

Peace would come through understanding.

The same place where captivity began would become the place where liberty would appear.

THE BATTLE CONTINUES TODAY

The serpent's language has not changed.

The voice still whispers:

"God has abandoned you."

"You are separated."

"You are not enough."

"You are forgotten."

"You are condemned."

"Remain hidden."

"Do not be afraid."

The strategy remains the same.

The battlefield remains the mind.

But the Savior still speaks.

"Fear not."

"Come unto Me."

"Neither do I condemn thee."

"I will never leave thee."

"You are accepted in the Beloved."

"You shall know the truth."

And where truth enters, chains begin falling.

Because truth does not merely inform.

Truth liberates.

Truth does not merely expose darkness.

Truth swallows darkness.

Truth does not merely confront the lie.

Truth subdues the lie.

EN

TRANSITION TO CHAPTER 2

If captivity began through darkness entering man's understanding, then we must ask another question:

What exactly is darkness?

For if truth makes men free, then darkness must be far more than the absence of light.

CHAPTER 2

DARKNESS CANNOT PRODUCE LIBERTY

"In Him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not."

Darkness is one of the most misunderstood words in Scripture.

When many hear the word darkness, they immediately think of the absence of sunlight, nighttime skies, or physical shadows. But the darkness spoken of throughout the Scriptures reaches far deeper than natural light and natural vision.

Darkness is blindness.

Darkness is confusion.

Darkness is deception.

Darkness is ignorance concerning the mind of God.

iving beneath a false understanding of reality.

The first captivity began when darkness entered man's perception, and since that day mankind has been attempting to navigate life while seeing through distorted lenses.

The tragedy is not merely that men are in darkness.

The tragedy is that many do not even know they are in darkness.

A blind man knows he cannot see.

But spiritual blindness often convinces a man that he sees perfectly while walking directly into destruction.

This is why darkness is so dangerous.

Darkness can feel normal.

Darkness can become familiar.

Darkness can become tradition.

Darkness can become religion.

Darkness can become identity.

DARKNESS HIDES TRUE IDENTITY

The moment Adam believed the lie, his view of himself changed.

Before deception entered, Adam stood openly before God.

No shame.

No fear.

No hiding.

No condemnation.

Then suddenly:

"I heard Thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; and I hid myself."

Notice what happened.

Fear appeared.

Then hiding appeared.

But ask this question:

Who told Adam he was naked?

God did not say it.

Heaven did not say it.

Love did not say it.

The lie had altered perception.

The lie created a false identity.

EN

only began seeing himself differently than God saw him.

And this continues throughout the earth today.

People often live beneath identities heaven never assigned.

Some say:

"I am worthless."

"I am rejected."

"I am broken."

"I am abandoned."

"I am too far gone."

"I am condemned."

But heaven continually speaks another language.

Heaven says:

"You are accepted."

"You are loved."

"You are called."

"You are known."

"You are not forgotten."

EN

Darkness speaks one story.

Truth speaks another.

RELIGION CAN OPERATE IN DARKNESS TOO

This can become uncomfortable because many imagine darkness exists only in the world.

But Jesus often confronted darkness within religious systems.

He said:

“Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites...”

Outwardly they looked clean.

Outwardly they appeared righteous.

Outwardly they possessed knowledge.

But inwardly there remained blindness.

Jesus repeatedly said:

“Having eyes, see ye not?”

That statement is staggering.

Because one can possess information and still lack revelation.

memorize Scripture and still miss Christ.

One can know verses and still not know truth.

Darkness is not merely ignorance of words.

Darkness is blindness concerning the person of Christ.

Because Christ Himself declared:

“I am the light of the world.”

Notice He did not say:

“I bring some light.”

He did not say:

“I know about light.”

He said:

“I AM the light.”

LIGHT DOES NOT FIGHT DARKNESS

Light does something greater.

Light reveals.

When a lamp enters a dark room, darkness does not resist.

EN

es not argue.

Darkness does not negotiate.

Darkness simply disappears.

Truth functions the same way.

When truth enters:

Confusion begins leaving.

Fear begins leaving.

Shame begins leaving.

Bondage begins leaving.

The reason is simple:

Darkness survives only where light is absent.

This is why the Savior of the World came carrying revelation.

He came carrying truth.

Because truth reveals reality as God sees it.

And when reality is seen properly, chains begin falling.

THE SAVIOR OF THE WORLD ENTERS THE

EN

OWS

Many imagine Christ standing far away from darkness.

But throughout the Gospels He continually moved toward it.

He entered places religion avoided.

He touched lepers.

He spoke with outcasts.

He sat with sinners.

He entered tombs.

He walked into storms.

He approached broken people.

Why?

Because light always moves toward darkness.

And every time Christ entered darkness, something happened:

Eyes opened.

Captives were released.

Fear departed.

Life appeared.

Because darkness cannot produce liberty.

Only truth can.

Only light can.

Only Christ can.

TRANSITION TO CHAPTER 3

If darkness is blindness concerning God's reality, then another question rises before us:

What exactly is truth?

Because Jesus did not merely say:

"You shall hear truth."

He said:

"You shall know the truth."

And truth, as we are about to discover, is not merely information.

Truth became flesh.

CHAPTER 3

YOU SHALL KNOW THE TRUTH

EN

Jesus to those Jews which believed on Him, If ye continue in My word, then are ye My disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make

| you free."

Throughout the ages mankind has searched for truth.

Men have crossed oceans searching for truth.

They have climbed mountains searching for truth.

They have built schools, philosophies, governments, and religions searching for truth.

Some sought truth through knowledge.

Some sought truth through laws.

Some sought truth through traditions.

Some sought truth through power.

Yet after thousands of years of searching, humanity still struggled beneath fear, division, confusion, and death.

Why?

Because truth was never intended to be merely information.

Truth was intended to be a person revealed.

TRUTH IS GREATER THAN INFORMATION

EN

...e believe that if they simply collect enough facts, they will arrive at truth.

But information alone does not transform people.

People can know facts and remain in bondage.

People can know verses and remain afraid.

People can know doctrine and remain condemned.

People can know religion and remain imprisoned.

The Pharisees possessed enormous amounts of information.

They knew the Law.

They memorized Scripture.

They studied continually.

Yet standing before them was the very One whom Scripture testified about, and they failed to recognize Him.

Jesus said:

"Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of Me."

What a staggering statement.

They possessed words.

But they missed the Word.

They possessed information.

But they missed Truth Himself.

Because truth is not merely gathered.

Truth is unveiled.

TRUTH PUT ON FLESH

The Gospel makes one of the most astonishing declarations in all Scripture:

| “And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us.”

Truth did not remain hidden in heaven.

Truth did not remain locked inside scrolls.

Truth walked among men.

Truth touched lepers.

Truth sat beside fishermen.

Truth entered homes.

Truth stood before sinners.

Truth wept.

Truth healed.

Truth spoke.

Truth became visible.

Jesus later declared:

| "I am the way, the truth, and the life."

Notice what He did not say.

He did not say:

"I know truth."

He did not say:

"I teach truth."

He did not say:

"I carry truth."

He said:

"I AM truth."

That changes the entire conversation.

Because if Christ Himself is truth, then truth becomes far greater than intellectual understanding.

EN

...es seeing Him.

Truth becomes knowing Him.

Truth becomes having His mind formed within us.

TRUTH REVEALS WHAT THE LIE HIDDEN

Remember where our journey began.

The lie entered Eden and immediately distorted perception.

Adam suddenly believed things that heaven never spoke.

He believed separation.

He believed shame.

He believed fear.

He believed hiding.

The lie darkened reality.

Now the Savior of the World arrives and begins reversing everything deception introduced.

Where shame existed:

Truth says:

Where fear existed:

Truth says:

"Fear not."

Where condemnation existed:

Truth says:

"Neither do I condemn thee."

Where separation existed:

Truth says:

"I will never leave thee nor forsake thee."

Truth continually unmask what the lie concealed.

Because darkness survives by hiding reality.

Light survives by revealing reality.

TO KNOW TRUTH IS TO EXPERIENCE TRUTH

Jesus did not merely say:

| "You shall hear truth."

ay:

“You shall study truth.”

He said:

“You shall KNOW the truth.”

In Scripture, knowing often speaks of something deeper than intellectual awareness.

It speaks of union.

It speaks of experience.

It speaks of intimacy.

A man can know about water and still remain thirsty.

A man can know about bread and still remain hungry.

A man can know about Christ and still not know Christ.

But once truth becomes living experience, something begins changing within.

Fear begins loosening.

Darkness begins retreating.

Shame begins dissolving.

Captivity begins breaking.

Because truth was never designed merely to enter the mind.

Truth was designed to enter the heart.

THE SAVIOR OF THE WORLD STILL REVEALS HIMSELF

Even now Christ continues revealing Himself.

He still enters dark places.

He still opens blind eyes.

He still calls captives out of prisons.

He still reveals the Father's heart.

He still destroys lies with light.

And every unveiling of Christ becomes another invasion of liberty into darkness.

Because truth does not simply explain reality.

Truth transforms reality.

TRANSITION TO CHAPTER 4

If truth is not merely information but the living Christ revealed, then another question rises before us:

How exactly does truth make men free?

EN

Do not merely say that truth informs.

He declared something much greater:

| "The truth shall make you free."

CHAPTER 4

THE TRUTH SHALL MAKE YOU FREE

| "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

These words of Jesus are among the most powerful words ever spoken.

Notice carefully what Jesus did not say.

He did not say:

"The truth might help you."

He did not say:

"The truth may improve your life."

He did not say:

"The truth could give you more information."

He declared something absolute:

| "The truth shall make you free."

creative power.

Truth is not passive.

Truth does not merely sit in the background waiting to be admired.

Truth acts.

Truth moves.

Truth reveals.

Truth changes.

Truth liberates.

When truth enters a man, something begins happening inside him.

Things that once held him begin losing their authority.

Things that once ruled him begin loosening their grip.

Because truth does not merely expose bondage.

Truth destroys its power.

BONDAGE SURVIVES THROUGH DECEPTION

Every prison depends upon something.

Every chain has a source.

EN

through believing something.

Condemnation survives through believing something.

Shame survives through believing something.

Captivity survives through believing something.

Remove the lie beneath the prison, and suddenly the prison itself begins collapsing.

This is why Jesus continually addressed roots rather than symptoms.

Religion often attempts to modify behavior.

Christ continually addressed the heart.

Religion says:

"Try harder."

Christ says:

"Come unto Me."

Religion says:

"Fix yourself."

Christ says:

"Abide in Me."

Religion says:

"Perform."

Christ says:

"Receive."

Why?

Because external pressure can restrain behavior for a season.

But truth transforms the inner man.

FREEDOM BEGINS INSIDE

Many imagine freedom only in outward terms.

Freedom from oppression.

Freedom from poverty.

Freedom from sickness.

Freedom from circumstances.

But Jesus repeatedly pointed toward a deeper liberty.

A man can be free externally while remaining bound internally.

A man can possess wealth and still live in fear.

A man can possess success and still live in shame.

EN

possess knowledge and still live in confusion.

The chains Christ came to destroy often cannot be seen with natural eyes.

He entered prisons hidden within the soul.

Prisons of fear.

Prisons of guilt.

Prisons of rejection.

Prisons of false identity.

Prisons of accusation.

Prisons of darkness.

Many spend years trying to escape prisons whose doors were already opened.

Because the lie tells them:

"Remain where you are."

"You are still condemned."

"You are still separated."

"You are still unworthy."

But truth arrives and announces another reality:

"Whom the Son sets free is free indeed."

THE SAVIOR OF THE WORLD BREAKS INVISIBLE CHAINS

Throughout the Gospels Jesus continually encountered people carrying invisible chains.

The woman bent over for eighteen years carried a chain.

The man among the tombs carried chains.

The woman caught in adultery carried chains.

Blind Bartimaeus carried chains.

The tax collector carried chains.

Even Peter carried chains of fear and misunderstanding.

Some chains appeared outwardly.

Others remained hidden.

But wherever Christ entered, something happened.

Fear lost authority.

Shame lost authority.

Darkness lost authority.

Accusation lost authority.

Because light was entering the room.

Truth was entering the room.

And truth always demands that bondage release its hold.

FREEDOM IS THE FRUIT OF REVELATION

Many seek freedom by striving.

Many seek freedom by effort.

Many seek freedom by self-improvement.

Yet Jesus pointed toward another path.

He said:

“You shall KNOW the truth.”

Because freedom grows out of revelation.

When truth reveals the Father’s heart, fear begins disappearing.

When truth reveals Christ, shame begins disappearing.

When truth reveals sonship, rejection begins disappearing.

When truth reveals love, insecurity begins disappearing.

Truth enters like sunrise breaking across a dark horizon.

EN

...y have filled the sky all night long.

But once light appears, darkness begins retreating.

Not because darkness decided to leave.

But because light arrived.

THE SAVIOR OF THE WORLD CONQUERS THROUGH LIBERTY

Earthly kingdoms conquer through force.

They use armies.

They use weapons.

They use power.

But the Kingdom of God moves differently.

The Savior of the World conquers by setting captives free.

He conquers through truth.

He conquers through light.

He conquers through revelation.

He conquers through love.

EN

by changing hearts.

And every life transformed by truth becomes another testimony that light is swallowing darkness.

TRANSITION TO CHAPTER 5

If truth makes men free and liberty becomes the evidence of Christ's Kingdom at work, then another mystery begins appearing before us:

How does the Savior conquer the world?

For Revelation speaks of One riding upon a white horse:

| "And He went forth conquering, and to conquer."

And His conquest is unlike anything the kingdoms of men have ever seen.

CHAPTER 5

THE WHITE HORSE RIDER GOES FORTH CONQUERING

| "And I saw, and behold a white horse: and He that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto Him: and He went forth conquering, and to conquer."

Throughout history kingdoms have conquered through violence.

Kings conquered with swords.

EN

quered with armies.

Nations conquered through fear.

Men conquered through force.

But the Kingdom of God advances differently.

The Savior of the World does not conquer as the kingdoms of men conquer.

The Savior of the World does not come riding with natural weapons.

The Savior of the World does not build His Kingdom through intimidation.

The Savior of the World conquers through truth.

This is where many misunderstand the nature of Christ's Kingdom.

When people hear the language of conquest, they often imagine destruction.

They imagine military campaigns.

They imagine political dominion.

They imagine forced surrender.

But heaven reveals another kind of conquest.

The Savior of the World rides forth conquering and to conquer through revelation.

He rides carrying light into darkness.

He rides carrying truth into deception.

He rides carrying liberty into captivity.

He rides carrying life into death.

THE WHITE HORSE REVEALS THE NATURE OF THE SAVIOR OF THE WORLD

Throughout Scripture white continually points toward purity, righteousness, and heavenly light.

This rider appears upon a white horse because the mission of the Savior of the World is not darkness spreading itself over creation.

The mission of the Savior of the World is light advancing.

The mission of the Savior of the World is truth invading lies.

The mission of the Savior of the World is liberty swallowing captivity.

Notice something remarkable.

The rider carries a bow.

Yet no arrows are mentioned.

Then later we see another image:

▮ “Out of His mouth goeth a sharp sword.”

The weapon of the Savior of the World is revelation.

EN

operates through truth.

His sword proceeds from His mouth.

Because the greatest enemy of mankind was never merely outward corruption.

The greatest enemy was deception.

The first captivity began with:

“Yea, hath God said?”

The first prison began with a lie.

So the Savior of the World enters the battlefield carrying the very thing needed to overthrow the lie:

Truth.

THE SAVIOR OF THE WORLD CONQUERS THE ADVERSARY BY REVEALING THE FATHER

The adversary continually speaks:

“God is distant.”

“You are abandoned.”

“You are condemned.”

“Remain hidden.”

Remain hidden.”

"You are separated."

"You are unworthy."

But the Savior of the World rides forth declaring another message:

"Fear not."

"Come unto Me."

"I will never leave thee."

"You are accepted in the Beloved."

"Neither do I condemn thee."

"I and My Father are one."

Every revelation of Christ becomes another victory.

Every unveiling of truth becomes another conquest.

Every lie exposed becomes another enemy beneath His feet.

The Savior of the World does not conquer people.

The Savior of the World conquers the darkness holding people captive.

THE SAVIOR OF THE WORLD IS STILL RIDING

EN

the White Horse Rider belongs only to future events.

But look around.

The Savior of the World is still riding.

Every time eyes are opened:

The Savior of the World rides.

Every time fear loses authority:

The Savior of the World rides.

Every time truth breaks a lie:

The Savior of the World rides.

Every time shame falls away:

The Savior of the World rides.

Every time a son awakens to his identity:

The Savior of the World rides.

The conquest continues.

Light keeps advancing.

Truth keeps revealing.

Liberty keeps appearing.

The Kingdom keeps growing.

Because the Savior of the World went forth conquering—and He is still conquering.

THE GREAT CONSUMMATION OF THE SAVIOR OF THE WORLD

Paul wrote:

“He must reign till He hath put all enemies under His feet.”

The reign of Christ is not passive.

The Savior of the World is actively subduing darkness.

The Savior of the World is actively overcoming deception.

The Savior of the World is actively swallowing fear.

The Savior of the World is actively bringing light where shadows ruled.

Truth keeps advancing.

Light keeps advancing.

Life keeps advancing.

The conquest continues until every enemy stands beneath His feet.

EN

mission of the Savior of the World is not partial victory.

The mission of the Savior of the World is complete triumph.

TRANSITION TO CHAPTER 6

If the Savior of the World conquers through truth and rides forth through revelation, then another question rises before us:

What is the sword proceeding out of His mouth?

For heaven's warfare does not begin with natural weapons.

Heaven's warfare begins with the Word.

CHAPTER 6

THE SWORD PROCEEDING OUT OF HIS MOUTH

| "And out of His mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it He should smite the nations."

Many imagine warfare in Revelation as natural conflict.

They picture armies gathering.

They picture weapons clashing.

They picture earthly kings rising against earthly kingdoms.

EN

continually reveals another dimension of warfare.

The Savior of the World fights differently.

The Savior of the World does not ride carrying steel in His hand.

The Savior of the World carries a sword proceeding from His mouth.

That alone should cause us to stop and consider what kind of Kingdom this really is.

Natural swords cut flesh.

Natural swords wound bodies.

Natural swords can conquer territory.

But the sword of the Savior of the World reaches deeper.

It cuts through deception.

It cuts through false identity.

It cuts through darkness.

It cuts through fear.

It cuts through every lie that keeps mankind imprisoned.

The Savior of the World is not merely fighting against men.

The Savior of the World is confronting the falsehoods that hold men captive.

THE FIRST SWORD OF DARKNESS ENTERED EDEN

Long before Revelation's sword appeared, another weapon entered the garden.

The serpent came carrying words.

Notice carefully:

The first captivity did not begin through violence.

The first captivity began through speech.

"Yea, hath God said?"

The first wound upon humanity was not physical.

The first wound was spiritual.

A lie pierced perception.

A lie altered identity.

A lie introduced fear.

A lie introduced shame.

A lie introduced separation.

Words released darkness.

EN

ed prisons.

Words shaped kingdoms.

So now the Savior of the World enters history carrying another word.

But unlike the serpent's word, this word carries life.

Where darkness spoke confusion:

The Savior of the World speaks truth.

Where darkness spoke condemnation:

The Savior of the World speaks grace.

Where darkness spoke fear:

The Savior of the World speaks peace.

Where darkness spoke separation:

The Savior of the World speaks reconciliation.

The first sword wounded mankind.

The sword of the Savior of the World heals mankind.

THE WORD EXPOSES WHAT HIDES IN DARKNESS

EN

/S:

“For the Word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword...”

Light has a remarkable property.

Light reveals what darkness hides.

Truth works exactly the same way.

The Savior of the World continually shines light into hidden places.

He reveals fear hiding beneath confidence.

He reveals pride hiding beneath religion.

He reveals wounds hiding beneath anger.

He reveals unbelief hiding beneath tradition.

He reveals lies hiding beneath identity.

This is why truth can sometimes become uncomfortable.

Because truth removes masks.

Truth removes hiding places.

Truth removes illusions.

Truth removes false worlds men have built around themselves.

EN

oy men—

but to free them.

Because whatever truth exposes, truth can heal.

THE SWORD OF THE SAVIOR OF THE WORLD SUBDUES THE ADVERSARY

The adversary survives through deception.

Darkness survives through concealment.

Fear survives through uncertainty.

Bondage survives through falsehood.

Remove the lie and the prison begins collapsing.

This is why the Savior of the World continually speaks.

Every word He releases becomes an invasion of liberty.

"Fear not."

"Come unto Me."

"Your sins are forgiven."

"Rise and walk."

EN

to you."

"I will never leave thee."

With every declaration:

Darkness loses territory.

Fear loses authority.

Bondage loses strength.

Death loses ground.

The Savior of the World keeps advancing.

The Savior of the World keeps conquering.

The Savior of the World keeps subduing.

Because truth continues swallowing the lie.

THE SWORD IS STILL PROCEEDING

Many imagine Christ spoke long ago and then fell silent.

But the Savior of the World is still speaking.

He still opens eyes.

He still reveals Himself.

EN

oys fear.

He still awakens sons.

He still breaks chains.

He still overturns false identities.

His sword is still proceeding from His mouth.

The White Horse Rider is still moving.

The conquest continues.

Truth continues.

Light continues.

Freedom continues.

Because the Savior of the World has not ceased riding.

TRANSITION TO CHAPTER 7

If the Savior of the World rides forth through truth and subdues through revelation, then another question rises before us:

How long does this reign continue?

For Scripture declares:

EN

... reign till He hath put all enemies under His feet."

CHAPTER 7

HE MUST REIGN UNTIL ALL ENEMIES FALL

“Then cometh the end, when He shall have delivered up the Kingdom to God, even the Father; when He shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. For He must reign, till He hath put all enemies under His feet.”

Many imagine the reign of Christ as something passive.

Some imagine Christ seated far away, watching history unfold while waiting for a future moment to finally act.

But Paul paints an entirely different picture.

The Savior of the World is not sitting in inactivity.

The Savior of the World is reigning.

And reign implies movement.

Reign implies purpose.

Reign implies administration.

Reign implies victory unfolding.

Paul does not merely say that Christ reigns.

He says:

EN

reign till...”

That word till reveals progression.

Something is happening.

Something is advancing.

Something is moving toward fulfillment.

The Savior of the World is actively bringing all things beneath the authority of life, truth, and light.

THE SAVIOR OF THE WORLD SUBDUES THROUGH TRUTH

When many hear the word subdue, they immediately imagine force.

They imagine domination.

They imagine chains.

They imagine outward restraint.

But we have already followed another river through this book.

The Savior of the World conquers through revelation.

The Savior of the World conquers through truth.

The Savior of the World conquers through light.

Jesus said.

“You shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.”

Notice the mystery here.

Truth itself performs a work.

Truth enters.

Truth reveals.

Truth exposes.

Truth liberates.

Truth subdues.

Darkness is subdued by light.

Fear is subdued by love.

Confusion is subdued by understanding.

False identity is subdued by revelation.

Death itself is subdued by life.

The Savior of the World continually brings every enemy into subjection through the power of truth.

EN

ENEMIES ARE LOSING GROUND

Paul says:

“The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.”

Notice he does not say:

“The last inconvenience.”

He says:

“The last enemy.”

Scripture reveals many enemies that oppose the life of God:

Fear opposes faith.

Darkness opposes light.

Hatred opposes love.

Deception opposes truth.

Death opposes life.

These enemies have worked throughout the history of humanity.

They entered through deception.

They spread through darkness.

They built kingdoms through fear.

But the Savior of the World entered carrying another Kingdom.

Every healing revealed His Kingdom.

Every opened eye revealed His Kingdom.

Every captive released revealed His Kingdom.

Every lie exposed revealed His Kingdom.

Every heart transformed revealed His Kingdom.

The enemies have been losing territory ever since.

Because wherever the Savior of the World appears, something begins retreating.

Darkness retreats.

Fear retreats.

Bondage retreats.

Death retreats.

THE FEET OF CHRIST

Paul says all enemies shall be placed beneath His feet.

The feet speak of dominion.

The feet speak of authority.

EN

ak of completed victory.

In ancient times kings placed their feet upon conquered territory as a sign that authority had changed hands.

Yet the Savior of the World conquers unlike earthly rulers.

Earthly kingdoms place people beneath their feet.

The Savior of the World places deception beneath His feet.

The Savior of the World places fear beneath His feet.

The Savior of the World places darkness beneath His feet.

The Savior of the World places death beneath His feet.

Because the purpose of the Kingdom is not destruction of mankind.

The purpose of the Kingdom is liberation of mankind.

THE REIGN CONTINUES

The White Horse Rider is still moving.

The sword is still proceeding.

Truth is still speaking.

Light is still advancing.

The Savior of the World is still reigning.

Every revelation of Christ becomes another victory.

Every unveiled truth becomes another enemy falling.

Every chain broken becomes another testimony.

Every awakened son becomes another declaration that the Kingdom is advancing.

The conquest continues.

The reign continues.

The victory continues.

Because the Savior of the World must reign—until all enemies fall.

TRANSITION TO CHAPTER 8

If the Savior of the World continues reigning until every enemy is beneath His feet, then one final question remains:

What does the completed Kingdom look like?

For Scripture concludes with these astonishing words:

| “That God may be all in all.”

EN

SAVIOR OF THE WORLD — GOD ALL IN ALL

“And when all things shall be subdued unto Him, then shall the Son also Himself be subject unto Him that put all things under Him, that God may be all in all.”

These words stand among the greatest declarations in all of Scripture.

They reveal the destination of the entire journey.

They reveal the purpose hidden beneath the ages.

They reveal the reason the Savior of the World came.

From Genesis to Revelation, God has been moving toward one glorious conclusion:

God all in all.

Not merely God around all.

Not merely God over all.

Not merely God near all.

But God filling all.

God revealing Himself through all.

God becoming the fullness of all things.

EN

Savior of the World did not come merely to rescue individuals from isolated moments of suffering.

The Savior of the World came to reveal and establish the triumph of life over death, light over darkness, truth over deception, and love over fear.

Everything has been moving toward this great unveiling.

THE STORY BEGAN WITH SEPARATION

The Scriptures begin with darkness covering the deep.

The Scriptures begin with division appearing.

The Scriptures begin with confusion entering.

The Scriptures begin with humanity hiding among trees.

Adam hid.

Fear entered.

Shame entered.

Darkness entered.

The lie distorted perception.

Mankind suddenly lived beneath a world of separation.

But even there God immediately began revealing another story.

... revealing redemption.

He began revealing reconciliation.

He began revealing restoration.

He began revealing the coming of the Savior of the World.

Because from the very beginning heaven already carried the answer.

THE SAVIOR OF THE WORLD MOVES EVERYTHING TOWARD FULLNESS

Throughout our journey we have followed a river.

We saw the lie enter Eden.

We saw darkness spread through deception.

We saw Christ appear as truth.

We saw liberty emerge through revelation.

We saw the White Horse Rider go forth conquering.

We saw the sword proceeding from His mouth.

We saw the Savior of the World reigning until all enemies fall.

Now we arrive at the great conclusion:

EN

as been moving toward fullness.

The Savior of the World has been progressively revealing truth.

The Savior of the World has been progressively swallowing darkness.

The Savior of the World has been progressively bringing life where death ruled.

The Savior of the World has been progressively subduing every lie.

Because every lie opposes reality.

Every lie opposes truth.

Every lie opposes life.

And truth continually advances until deception can stand no longer.

THE NEW JERUSALEM REVEALS THE FINISHED PURPOSE

John looked and saw:

| “Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men...”

Notice the beauty here.

The story does not end with distance.

The story does not end with separation.

EN

es not end with abandonment.

The story ends with union.

The story ends with dwelling.

The story ends with fellowship.

The story ends with God among men.

Then John heard another declaration:

“Behold, I make all things new.”

Notice what he did not hear:

“Behold, I abandon all things.”

He did not hear:

“Behold, I discard all things.”

He heard:

“I make all things new.”

The Savior of the World came not merely to patch broken things.

The Savior of the World came to reveal life swallowing death and light swallowing darkness.

EN

Savior of the World Still Rides

Even now the conquest continues.

The White Horse Rider still rides.

The sword still proceeds.

Truth still advances.

Light still shines.

Captives still awaken.

Eyes still open.

Fear still falls.

Darkness still retreats.

Because the Savior of the World continues revealing Himself.

And every heart touched by truth becomes another testimony that His Kingdom is advancing.

The reign continues.

The unveiling continues.

The victory continues.

EN

DECLARATION

The Savior of the World entered a world imprisoned by deception.

He entered carrying truth.

He entered carrying light.

He entered carrying life.

And He continues going forth conquering and to conquer.

Truth is still making men free.

Light is still swallowing darkness.

Love is still overcoming fear.

Life is still overcoming death.

And the day shall come when every enemy stands beneath His feet—

That God may be all in all.

CALL TO ACTION

The question is not whether truth is advancing.

Truth is advancing.

The question is:

Will you continue walking into the light?

For the Savior of the World still speaks:

| "You shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."
