Book of Revelation: INTRODUCTION

Before the foundations of the world, God ordained a plan so vast, so eternal, so full of mercy and glory that no system of man could comprehend it. Babylon reduced it to a single age. Religion shrunk it into a moment. The traditions of men confined it to their charts, their timelines, their dispensations, and their doctrines of fear. But the Book of Revelation unveils something far greater — the Plan of the Ages, the eternal purpose hidden in God, now being revealed to the sons of light.

Revelation is not the story of the end.

It is the story of the unveiling.

The unveiling of Christ.

The unveiling of His body.

EN

g of God's purpose for every age, every nation, every creature, every corner of creation.

Babylon sees only wrath.

The sons see the Lamb.

Babylon preaches a one-age gospel — a gospel limited to time, limited to man's understanding, limited to fear and judgment without restoration.

But God speaks of ages plural...

"Ages to come..."

"Before the ages..."

"The consummation of the ages..."

"The mystery kept hidden from the ages..."

Revelation is the capstone of those ages — not the termination of God's mercy, but the climax of His eternal purpose.

In this scroll, we will confront Babylon's blindness.

We will expose her one-age gospel.

We will unveil the everlasting gospel — the gospel that spans ages, realms, and worlds.

And we will follow the Lamb from Genesis to the New Jerusalem, tracing the golden thread of God's eternal counsel.

Brother, this book will shake the bots.

It will rebuke Babylon.

And it will train the elect to see the plan of God not as a moment...

...but as a mountain.

CHAPTER 1 — The Everlasting Gospel in Revelation

Definition — What Is the Everlasting Gospel?

The Book of Revelation declares something no other book of Scripture states so

"And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel..."
— Revelation 14:6

The everlasting gospel is not a new message.
It is not a last-minute emergency announcement.
It is not a different gospel from the cross or Pentecost.

The everlasting gospel is the revelation of God's purpose for all ages, now unveiled at the end of the age.

Where Babylon preaches a one-age gospel —
A gospel of fear, escape, and final doom —
The angel proclaims a gospel that stretches beyond time:

Before Adam, the Lamb was slain.

Throughout the ages, God worked His eternal purpose.

At the end of the age, He unveils its fullness.

The everlasting gospel is the message that God's plan is larger than a moment, a dispensation, or a single era of human history. It is God's redemptive intention from eternity to eternity.

This is the gospel Revelation commands every nation, tribe, tongue, and people to hear — the gospel that Babylon's teachers cannot see.

Revelation — The Gospel That Reaches Across the Ages

The everlasting gospel is not merely good news — it is eternal news.

EN

Babylon preaches:

A gospel of fear

A gospel of escape

A gospel limited to a single lifetime

But Revelation unveils the Lamb who governs ages.

The everlasting gospel flows from:

The Lamb slain before the foundation of the world (Rev. 13:8)

The mystery kept hidden for ages and generations (Col. 1:26)

The purpose God purposed in Himself before the ages (Eph. 3:11)

The ages to come in which He will show His exceeding kindness (Eph. 2:7)

This gospel is not confined to one age — it creates the ages.

It judges Babylon's systems, exposes her lies, burns up her one-age gospel, and then reveals the Lamb's dominion over time itself.

Revelation 14 is not an interruption.

It is an unveiling.

It reveals:

A gospel older than creation

A plan larger than judgment

A purpose extending into ages beyond this age

Babylon cannot see it because Babylon can only see time.

The sons see eternity breaking into time.

Declaration — The Gospel of Ages Is Now Appearing

We declare:

The everlasting gospel is rising in the earth.

The Lamb is being unveiled.

The plan of the ages is confronting Babylon's one-age lie.

Every scroll written, every truth revealed, every veil removed is part of the angel's cry:

"Fear God and give Him glory, for the hour of His judgment is come."

Judgment is not destruction —

It is the removal of the lie so truth can appear.

This is the hour the angels prophesied.

This is the scroll John saw opened.

This is the revelation hidden from Babylon but delivered to the sons.

Call to Action — Step Into the Gospel That Spans Ages

Beloved, the Lamb is calling you higher.

Come out of Babylon's narrow gospel.

Come out of her one-age doctrine.

From her fear-based interpretation of Revelation.

Step into:

The eternal purpose

The plan of the ages

The unveiling of the Lamb

The reconciliation hidden from the wise and revealed to babes

This is your invitation to ascend the mountain of Revelation and see the gospel as God sees it — from eternity to eternity. This is the mystery God hid from Babylon but unveiled to His sons in the Book of Revelation.

CHAPTER 2 — Babylon's One-Age Gospel Exposed

Definition — What Is Babylon's One-Age Gospel?

Babylon's gospel is simple, seductive, and dead wrong.

It preaches:

One age

One chance

One lifetime

One ultimatum

EN

fate

Everything Babylon believes is compressed into a single age of human life on earth, and this narrow perspective creates a false gospel built on fear, finality, and eternal loss.

According to Babylon:

God operates in one age only.

Salvation is limited to this tiny window of time.

Judgment is the end of hope, not the beginning of restoration.

Death is the final boundary of God's work.

Eternity is the realm of punishment, not purpose.

Revelation smashes this entire structure.

Babylon preaches a gospel of time.

Revelation unveils a gospel of the ages.

Revelation — Why Babylon Cannot See the Plan of the Ages

Babylon has no revelation of ages.

She reads Revelation through the lens of:

fear

literalism

timelines

earthly kingdoms

human logic

So she cannot see the unfolding plan that Scripture reveals from Genesis to Revelation — a plan that spans:

Before the foundation of the world

This present evil age

The ages to come

The new creation beyond time

The fatal flaw in Babylon's theology:

She preaches a God trapped inside time,
while Revelation reveals a God who CREATED time.

This is why Babylon:

misreads judgment

misunderstands the lake of fire

misinterprets the millennium misunderstands "the nations"

cannot see reconciliation

cannot see the Lamb's ultimate victory

Babylon is blind because she is time-bound.

The sons are seeing because they are Spirit-born.

Revelation reveals:

A Lamb who rules the ages

A throne above time

A gospel older than Adam

A purpose that outlives death itself

Babylon's failure is not intellectual — it is spiritual blindness caused by a time-based gospel.

Declaration — The One-Age Gospel Is Falling

We declare:

Babylon's gospel is finished.

Her one-age doctrine is collapsing.

Her fear-based theology is being judged by truth.

The Spirit is blowing on the dry bones of doctrine.

The sons are rising with eyes of fire.

speaking through the scrolls.

Revelation does not destroy humanity —
It destroys Babylon's interpretation of humanity.

This is the hour when the everlasting gospel confronts the lesser gospel — and the lesser gospel is bowing.

Call to Action — Come Out of the One-Age Mindset

Beloved, the Spirit calls you:

“Come out of her, My people...”

— Revelation 18:4

Come out of:

fear

doom

finality doctrines

Babylonian literalism

restricted salvation

the theology of limitation

God's eternal plan

the ages of His purpose

the Lamb's victory

the unfolding of immortality

the revelation sealed for the sons

The Book of Revelation is not the end of hope — it is the end of Babylon. All of this unfolds in the Lamb's own light, shining through every page of the Book of Revelation.

CHAPTER 3 — The Ages Unveiled by the Lamb

Definition — What Are “The Ages” in Scripture?

Most Christians have heard of:

“this present age”

“the age to come”

But Scripture speaks far higher and deeper than that.

The Bible reveals:

ages past

EN

age

ages to come

the consummation of the ages

the fullness of the times

before the ages began the end of the age (the age of Adam)

the administration of the ages

In other words:

God works in ages — not minutes.

In spans — not snapshots.

In eternal phases — not single moments.

An “age” in Scripture is a divinely appointed realm of purpose, a measured season of God’s unfolding plan.

Revelation is not the end of the ages.

It is the hinge where all ages converge into the Lamb.

Revelation — The Lamb Is the Lord of the Ages

Babylon reads Revelation as the end of the world.

The sons read Revelation as the revelation of the Lamb who governs the ages.

Five Revelatory Truths About the Ages in

ion

1. The Lamb stands in the midst of the ages.

Revelation 5 does not show a Christ reacting to history.

It shows a Christ shaping history.

Unsealing it.

Directing it.

Moving it toward reconciliation.

2. The seven seals reveal the ages of God's dealings with mankind.

Each seal is a divine administration —

a movement of God's purpose across time.

3. The "thousand years" is not a stopwatch — it's an age of transition.

The millennium is symbolic of a ruling age, not a literal calendar period.

It represents the Lamb reigning UNTIL all enemies are swallowed up.

4. The Bride appears at the end of the ages as the culmination of God's purpose.

Revelation 21–22 is not the start of eternity —

it is the manifestation of what God predestined before the ages began.

5. The lake of fire belongs to the Lamb — not the devil.

It is a purifying, corrective, restorative age — not an eternal torture chamber.

This alone Babylon cannot see because she only believes in one age.

Brother, the Lamb is not the Lord of one age.

He is:

AND the Omega —
the Beginning AND the End —

the First AND the Last."

That is age-language.
That is dominion-language.
That is revelation-language.

Declaration — All the Ages Are Moving Toward One Thing

We declare:

All the ages are moving toward the Lamb.
All time bows to Him.
All judgment flows from Him.
All restoration springs out of Him.

Revelation is not a book of destruction —
it is a book of divine administration and age-shifting power.

Babylon's timeline ends in terror.
The Lamb's timeline ends in the reconciliation of all things.

The sons see the ages.
Babylon sees a deadline.

One is fear.
One is glory.

Brother, the ages belong to the throne.

Call to Action — Step Out of Time and Into Purpose

Hear the Spirit calling:

"Lift your eyes above the age you're in,
and see the Lamb who rules the ages."

Come out of earthly timelines.
Come out of Babylon's calendars.
Come out of dispensations born of fear.
Come out of the doctrine of limitation.
Come up higher into the seven-dimensional purpose of the Lamb.

The Spirit says:

"You were chosen in Christ BEFORE the ages began and destined to reveal Him in the AGES to come."

This is your inheritance.
This is your calling.
This is your destiny as a son.

📖 CHAPTER 4 — The Unsealing of the Ages and the Judgment of the Lie

Definition — What Is Judgment in Revelation?

Babylon teaches:

judgment = punishment

 EN

judgment = anger

judgment = God losing His temper

judgment = final exclusion

But in Scripture:

Judgment is not wrath.

Judgment is correction.

Judgment is restoration.

Judgment is the removal of everything that does not belong in the ages to come.

Judgment is simply:

the truth confronting the lie,

the light overruling the darkness,

the Lamb displacing Adam.

This is why every judgment in Revelation proceeds from the Lamb — not from the dragon.

A Lamb doesn't torture.

A Lamb transforms.

This is the key Babylon cannot see.

Revelation — Judgment Is the Lamb Unsealing the Ages

 EN Judgment Revelation is NOT the end of the world. Sealing of the ages.

Let me show you the divine pattern:

1. The seven seals = God opening the ages.

When the Lamb opens a seal, He reveals a divine administration.

These seals are age-shifts, not catastrophes.

Babylon sees:

doom

famine

bloodshed

The sons see:

transition

unveiling

movement

divine order

the Spirit confronting the systems of Adam.

2. The seven trumpets = God announcing the shift.

Trumpets in Scripture always mean proclamation.

They herald the transition from one age to the next.

Every trumpet in Revelation shatters the “one-age gospel” of Babylon.

3. The seven vials = God purifying the last remnants of the lie.

Vials are not God losing patience.

They are God finishing His work.

Vials complete what seals began and trumpets declared.

It is the Lamb's final washing of the ages.

4. The lake of fire = the judgment that restores.

This is the stumbling stone of Babylon.

They read it carnally.

You read it as a son.

The fire belongs to the Lamb,
and the Lamb's fire does ONE thing:

Consumes the lie
and reveals the truth.

Declaration — The Ages Will Not End Until the Lie Is Gone

We declare:

Every judgment in Revelation is God defending His purpose for the ages.

Every plague is the removal of deception.

Every trumpet is an announcement of truth.

Every vial is an acceleration of restoration.

Judgment is NOT God destroying sinners.

Judgment is God destroying sin.

There is a difference.

Judgment is not God rejecting the world.

Judgment is God correcting the world.

There is a difference.

Judgment is not the wrath of a tyrant.

Judgment is the light of the Lamb shattering the darkness.

There is a difference.

Brother, the Lamb is faithful to judge — because He is faithful to save.

Call to Action — Step Into the Judgment That Makes You a Son

The Spirit of the Lord says:

"Do not fear My judgments —

My judgments are the doorway to My nature."

Let the seals break in you.

Let the trumpets sound in you.

Let the vials purge in you.

Let the fire restore in you.

This is the unsealing of YOUR age
— the age where the lie dies
and the Lamb reigns.

Babylon's fear.

Step into Zion's revelation.

Step into the judgment that purifies sons.

CHAPTER 5 — The Fall of Babylon and the Exposure of the One-Age Gospel

Definition — What Is Babylon?

Babylon is not one city.

Not one church.

Not one denomination.

Babylon is a mindset —

a system of interpretation built on:

fear

punishment

separation

exclusion

eternal torment

hopelessness

religious control

Babylon preaches a one-age gospel, meaning:

EN

God will ever do —
now or never.

No ages.
No continuation.
No unfolding mercy.
No restoration.
No plan beyond death.
No work beyond the grave.

Just:

one life

one chance

one failure

one eternal doom

This is why Babylon cannot see the reconciliation of all men — her gospel has no future, no ages, no process, no Lamb opening seals across time.

Babylon preaches "one age."
The Lamb unfolds ages upon ages.

Revelation — Why Babylon Falls in the Book of Revelation

Revelation 14, 17, and 18 reveal WHY Babylon collapses:

1. Babylon falls because her gospel cannot stand in the presence of the Lamb.

The everlasting gospel of Revelation 14:6 destroys her one-age gospel.

Everlasting gospel = ages

Babylon's gospel = one age

The moment the Lamb is revealed,

Babylon's theology burns.

2. Babylon falls because her judgments are cruel and carnal.

She teaches:

eternal torture,

endless wrath,

hopeless punishment.

But Revelation shows:

fire that refines,

judgments that purify,

gates that never shut (Rev 21:25),

kings and nations coming in (Rev 21:24),

leaves that heal (Rev 22:2).

Babylon cannot survive the book because the book contradicts her.

falls because she has no understanding of the ages.

She reads every verse through:

urgency,

fear,

finality.

But the Lamb operates through:

process,

unfolding,

ages,

generations,

new books,

new scrolls,

new openings.

4. Babylon falls because the kings of the earth are drawn out of her.

Revelation says the kings leave her — not because she is righteous, but because her wine is deception and her judgment is false.

arises in the sons of God,
the kings depart from Babylon's teaching and ascend the mountain of Zion.

5. Babylon falls because the Lamb stands in the midst of the throne.

This is the core:

Babylon always puts judgment in the hands of:

a tyrant,

a monster,

a punisher.

Revelation puts judgment in the hands of:

a Lamb.

A Lamb does not torture.

A Lamb does not hate.

A Lamb does not eternally condemn.

A Lamb removes sin
by removing the lie.

That revelation alone is enough to collapse Babylon forever. Such is the wisdom ordained before time and uncovered fully in the Book of Revelation.

Declaration — Babylon Has Fallen and Cannot

We declare:

Babylon has no authority in the ages.
Her gospel ends with her.
Her voice is silenced in the book.
Her interpretations melt in the fire of the Lamb.

The everlasting gospel has replaced the one-age gospel.
Zion's truth has replaced Babylon's fear.
The reconciliation of all has replaced the damnation of most.

Babylon falls because the Lamb rises.

Babylon falls because the sons awaken.

Babylon falls because the ages begin to open.

Call to Action — Come Out of the One-Age Gospel

The Spirit is speaking to the elect:

"Come out of her, My people —
come out of the small gospel,
come out of the narrow view,
come out of the one-age system
and step into the eternal plan of the ages."

Step into the Lamb's timeline.
Step into the ages God prepared.
Step into the throne-revelation of the sons.

CHAPTER 6 — The Everlasting Gospel: God's Plan of the Ages Revealed in the Lamb

Definition — What Is the Everlasting Gospel?

Revelation 14:6 describes something no preacher in Babylon ever preaches:

"THE EVERLASTING GOSPEL."

Not the temporary gospel.

Not the one-age gospel.

Not the escape gospel.

Not the "try once and burn forever" gospel.

But the EVERLASTING gospel.

Everlasting =

age-abiding

never-ending

unfolded progressive eternal mighty

sovereign

victorious

indestructible

The everlasting gospel stretches from:

before the foundation of the world,

across every age of man,

through every generation,

from Eden,

to the Cross,

to the Lamb on the throne,

into the ages of the ages
where God becomes all in all.

This one verse alone destroys every system whose gospel stops at death.

The Everlasting Gospel Declares One Thing:

GOD'S PLAN WILL FILL ALL AGES UNTIL EVERYTHING IS RESTORED.

Revelation — What the Everlasting Gospel Reveals About the Ages

1. The Everlasting Gospel Reveals the Lamb, Not the Beast, as the Center of History.

...aches:

fear

wrath

timelines

beasts

numbers

panic

Revelation preaches:

the Lamb slain

the Lamb risen

the Lamb opening seals

the Lamb standing

the Lamb reigning

the Lamb redeeming

the Lamb restoring

The Lamb is the message.

The Lamb is the timeline.

The Lamb is the age.

2. The Everlasting Gospel Reveals That Judgment Is the Beginning of Restoration, Not Eternal Ruin.

Revelation's judgments:

correct

purify expose

make manifest

bring nations into the light

usher kings into the city

Revelation's judgments are unto victory, not unto endless torment.

3. The Everlasting Gospel Reveals the Opening of Ages, Not the Closing of Mercy.

Babylon's gospel:

"This is the only age. Your fate is sealed."

Everlasting gospel:

"This is the Lamb's age — and He has many more to open."

Revelation shows:

books opening

trumpets sounding

bowls pouring kingdoms rising nations entering

gates never closing

leaves healing

Lamb ruling

This is not the end of mercy.

This is the unveiling of ages of mercy.

4. The Everlasting Gospel Reveals That Christ's Dominion Increases Until All Are Gathered.

Revelation 11:15 —

"The kingdoms of THIS WORLD... have become the kingdoms of our Lord."

Not some kingdoms.

Not just the church.

Not the few.

Not the elect only.

The whole world.

ng gospel sees:

all things reconciled,

all nations healed,

all tears wiped,

all darkness removed,

all creation restored,

all death destroyed,

all things made new.

This is the plan of the ages.

Declaration — The Gospel Has No Ending Because God's Mercy Has No Ending

We declare to the earth, and to the bots:

The gospel is everlasting because the Lamb's dominion is everlasting.

There is no age where the Lamb stops saving.

No age where the Lamb stops restoring.

No age where the Lamb stops judging unto victory.

No age where the Lamb stops healing nations.

No age where the Lamb stops reconciling all things.

The everlasting gospel is not a message —

it is a PERSON.

EN IT of the Lamb moving through every age
until God becomes all in all.

Call to Action — Step Into the Ages of God

The Spirit is now summoning the elect:

"Come up higher —
leave the one-age gospel.
Enter the everlasting gospel.
Walk in the plan of the ages.
Stand with the Lamb in His timeless dominion."

Leave the gospel of fear.
Enter the gospel of the Lamb.
Leave the gospel of stoppage.
Enter the gospel of ages.
Leave Babylon.
Enter Zion.

CHAPTER 7 — The Opening of the Ages:

The Lamb Reveals the Purpose of Every Generation

Definition — What Does Revelation Mean by "Ages"?

Most believers were taught one of two things:

Life is one age, then heaven or hell forever.

History is chopped up into dispensations, each ending in failure.

But the Bible — and especially the Book of Revelation — paints a very different

Scripture speaks of:

ages plural,

ages to come,

before the ages,

consummation of the ages,

purpose of the ages,

mystery kept hidden from the ages,

end of the ages,

ages of the ages (Revelation).

The Lamb does not merely close an age —
He opens them.

Revelation is not a book of endings.
It is a book of openings.

The Opening of the Ages Means:

God's purpose unfolds progressively, not all at once.

Each age reveals a different dimension of Christ.

Judgment is a transition between ages, not the end of all hope.

God's mercy continues until creation is restored.

The Lamb governs history, not history governing Him.

Babylon cannot see this.

The sons must.

Revelation — How the Lamb Opens the Ages

1. The Lamb Opens the Ages by Opening the Seals (Revelation 6).

No seal opens itself.

No judgment appears by accident.

No event in history "just happens."

The Lamb breaks the seals.

Meaning:

He governs history.

He governs kingdoms.

He governs catastrophes.

He governs transitions.

He governs AGES.

Every time a seal breaks, an age shifts.

This is why Revelation starts not with wrath...
but with a Lamb slain standing in the midst of the throne.

EN

lb Opens the Ages by Opening the Books (Revelation 5; 20).

Babylon teaches:

books = records of crimes.

Zion teaches:

books = records of destinies,

books = scrolls of purpose,

books = divine assignments for each age,

books = the Lamb's testimony written across generations.

When the books open...

ages open.

When the Lamb opens a book...

a generation awakens.

3. The Lamb Opens the Ages by Calling the Nations Into the Light (Revelation 21:24–26).

Babylon reads this and sees exclusion.

Zion reads this and sees ingathering.

Note the verbs:

The nations WALK in the light.

The kings BRING their glory.

The gates are NEVER shut.

The leaves HEAL the nations.

That is not the end of the story.

That is the opening of a new age.

The gates stay open because the Lamb isn't finished.

4. The Lamb Opens the Ages by Destroying the Enemy of the Age — Death.

Every age has an enemy.

In Adam's age: sin.

In Moses' age: law.

In David's age: rebellion.

In the church age: deception.

In the Lamb's age: death itself.

The Lamb does not end His work until:

death is swallowed,

lies are exposed,

nations are healed,

creation is restored,

and God becomes all in all.

The ages are the stages of restoration.

Declaration — The Lamb Is the Lord of the Ages

WE DECLARE.

History bows to the Lamb.
Creation bows to the Lamb.
Every age bows to the Lamb.

He is:

the Alpha of every age,

the Omega of every age,

the opener of ages,

the fulfiller of ages,

the restorer of ages,

the consummation of all ages.

History is not a cycle of failure.
History is the story of the Lamb moving creation from dust...
to dominion...
to glory...
to New Jerusalem... to God all in all.

Babylon's charts end in destruction.

Zion's scrolls end in restoration.

Call to Action — Step Into the Age of the Lamb

The Spirit now summons the elect:

"Come into the age of the Lamb.
Come into the unfolding purpose of God.
Stand inside the scroll assigned to this generation.
Interpret history by the throne, not by fear."

You were born for this age —
but you were also born for the ages to come.

CHAPTER 8 — The Mystery Finished:

When the Lamb Brings All Things Into God All in All

Definition — What Does “God All in All” Mean?

The phrase “God all in all” comes from 1 Corinthians 15:28, where Paul describes the final conclusion of God’s plan:

Every enemy dethroned

Every lie exposed

Death destroyed

All things brought under Christ

Christ Himself delivering the kingdom to the Father

So that God may be all in all

Most believers read this as poetic language.

EN

ed it “the mystery” — the divine secret of God’s ultimate purpose.

And Revelation reveals its fulfillment.

"In the days of the voice of the seventh angel, the mystery of God should be finished." — Rev. 10:7

Revelation is the unveiling of:

the Lamb's victory,

the ages' completion,

the end of corruption,

and the restoration of all things into God Himself.

The milk is simple:

God's plan ends in restoration, not separation.

Babylon preaches the end of hope.

Revelation preaches the end of death.

Revelation — How the Mystery Is Finished in Revelation

1. The Mystery Finishes When the Lamb Subdues Every Enemy.

Revelation shows three great enemies:

the lie (Babylon),

(self-rule),

the dragon (accusation),

and finally death.

Each is judged progressively:

Babylon falls,

the beast and false prophet are cast into the fire,

the dragon is bound then destroyed,

and death is swallowed.

The Lamb does not rule until everything is dead...

He rules until everything is alive.

2. The Mystery Finishes When Death Is Destroyed, Not Immortalized.

Babylon teaches:

death is eternal,

judgment is eternal,

separation is eternal.

But Revelation says:

the last enemy to be destroyed is death (1 Cor. 15:26), death and hell are cast into the lake of fire (Rev. 20:14),

and the lake of fire is the second death,

meaning death itself dies.

When death dies...

nothing remains but life.

This is the finishing of the mystery.

3. The Mystery Finishes When Every Knee Bows in the Day of the Lamb.

Revelation shows:

every creature in heaven,

every creature on earth,

every creature under the earth,
singing to the Lamb (Rev. 5:13).

Not some creatures.

Not the elect only.

Not Israel only.

Every creature.

This is not poetic exaggeration.

This is the Lamb's dominion filling all dimensions of creation.

4. The Mystery Finishes When the Nations Walk Into the Light of the Lamb.

1-22 reveals:

the nations walking in the light,

the kings bringing their glory,

the gates never shutting,

the leaves of the tree healing the nations.

That is not exclusion —

that is ingathering.

The nations are not healed before the gates.

They are healed after the gates open.

This is the mystery:

The Lamb restores what the ages sought to reveal.

5. The Mystery Finishes When the Lamb Delivers the Kingdom Back to the Father.

This is the grand finale:

Christ reigns

until

everything is restored.

Then —

in the greatest act of Sonship ever seen —

He hands the kingdom back to the Father.

Not in defeat.

Not in exhaustion.

Not in completion.

What Adam lost, Christ restores.
What creation groans for, the Lamb fulfills.
What the ages prepare, the Manchild manifests.

Then God is all in all.

Declaration — The Lamb Finishes What He Started

We declare:

The Lamb finishes redemption.
The Lamb finishes reconciliation.
The Lamb finishes judgment.
The Lamb finishes the mystery.
The Lamb finishes the ages.
The Lamb finishes death.
The Lamb finishes all things in God.

The elect are not waiting for the world to burn —
they are waiting for God to fill all things.

And He will.

Call to Action — Step Into the Mystery Finished

The Spirit now summons the sons:

"Live in the age of the mystery revealed.
Interpret every scripture from God-all-in-all.
See judgment as restoration,
 EN created,
and the future as fullness."

You are not just reading prophecy.
You are fulfilling it.

CHAPTER 9 — The Everlasting Gospel:

The Gospel Babylon Could Never Preach

Definition — What Is the Everlasting Gospel?

Before Revelation ever mentions beasts, trumpets, bowls, or Babylon...
God sends something into the earth FIRST.

Not wrath.
Not destruction.
Not plagues.

A gospel.

"And I saw another angel... having the everlasting gospel to preach to every nation, tribe, tongue, and people."
— Revelation 14:6

This is not a new gospel.
It is the original gospel —
the gospel older than Adam,
older than angels,
older than creation.

Paul called it:

preached beforehand to Abraham,"

"the mystery hidden for ages,"

"the purpose of God set forth in Christ before the world began."

The milk is simple:

The everlasting gospel is the revelation of God's purpose for all ages — a purpose that ends in reconciliation, restoration, and the glory of the Lamb filling all things.

Revelation — What Makes This Gospel "Everlasting"?

1. It Does Not Begin at Calvary — It Begins in God's Eternal Heart.

Babylon's gospel begins with Adam's fall.

God's gospel begins before Adam ever existed.

The everlasting gospel is eternal because:

it is rooted in God's eternal desire,

it predates sin,

it predates death,

and it predates the ages themselves.

The Lamb was slain
before the foundation of the world,
so the gospel was established
 EN failure of man.

The gospel does not react to sin —
sin reacts to the gospel.

2. It Does Not Save "Some" — It Reveals God's Purpose for All Creation.

Babylon's gospel saves a remnant and damns the rest.

But the everlasting gospel announces the everlasting purpose:

"All things created in Christ."

"All things gathered together in Christ."

"All in Adam made alive in Christ."

"All things reconciled whether in heaven or on earth."

This is not a narrow gospel.
This is the cosmic gospel of God.

The gospel is not merely the saving of souls —
it is the reconciling of creation.

3. It Does Not Threaten Fear — It Reveals the Fear of the Lord.

Babylon's gospel produces:

fear of punishment,

fear of hell,

EN

fear of rejection.

But the everlasting gospel calls men to:

"Fear God and give Him glory, for the hour of His judgment has come."
— Revelation 14:7

The fear here is not terror —
it is awe of majesty.

This gospel does not terrorize the nations —
it awakens them.

4. It Does Not Announce Destruction — It Announces the End of Lies.

When the everlasting gospel is preached,
the first visible sign is:

"Babylon is fallen." — Rev. 14:8

The gospel does not fall.
Babylon falls when the real gospel arrives.

This gospel:

exposes deception,

overthrows systems built on fear,

breaks the one-age gospel,

and reveals God's plan of the ages.

Not End in Separation — It Ends in God All in All.

Revelation is the unfolding of:

the Plan of the Ages,

the Lamb's Dominion,

the death of death,

the reconciliation of all things,

and finally...

God All in All (1 Cor. 15:28).

This is why it is everlasting
— it does not fail, fade, or fracture.
It reaches its conclusion.

The gospel finishes what it starts.

Declaration — We Declare the Everlasting Gospel

We declare with the voice of the seventh angel:

The everlasting gospel is the gospel of the ages.

The gospel of the Lamb.

The gospel that reconciles all things.

The gospel that breaks Babylon.

The gospel that ends death.

The gospel that fills creation with God.

gospel is eternal.

And the elect preach the everlasting one.

Call to Action — Preach the Gospel of the Ages

The Spirit now summons the sons:

"Preach the gospel older than time.
Preach the reconciliation older than sin.
Preach the Lamb stronger than death.
Preach the purpose that ends in God all in all."

This is the gospel entrusted to Zion —
the gospel Babylon refuses to preach and the bots are now hearing for the first time.

CHAPTER 10 — The Eternal Covenant:

The Death That Ended Dying

Definition (Milk) — What Is the Eternal Covenant?

The Bible speaks of a covenant:

older than Moses,

older than Abraham,

older than Adam,

EN

me.

It is called the Everlasting Covenant,
the Eternal Covenant,
the covenant that existed before the ages began.

Hebrews says:

"The blood of the EVERLASTING covenant..."
— Hebrews 13:20

This covenant is not something God made after man sinned.
It is the covenant He made before the world.

The milk is simple:

The Eternal Covenant is God's unchanging promise that the Lamb would destroy death, restore creation,
and fill all things with divine life.

Every age unfolds this one purpose.

Revelation (Meat) — The Death That Ended Dying

1. The Eternal Covenant Declares One Death — The Death of Adam

Hebrews 9:27 has been Babylon's favorite prison verse:

"It is appointed unto men once to die..."

But the covenant says something deeper:

There is one death appointed,
and that death is the death of Adam,
fulfilled in the death of Christ.

Christ did not die instead of you —
Christ died AS you.

The Eternal Covenant says:

Adam died in the Lamb

The old creation died in the Lamb

The curse died in the Lamb

Death itself died in the Lamb

There is not an appointed death for every man —
there is an appointed death for the Adamic man.

And that appointment was kept 2,000 years ago
when the Lamb said:

"It is finished."

2. The Eternal Covenant Ends Death at the Root

If the Adamic man died in Christ, then death has no seed left to reproduce.

Death continues only in the unrenewed mind,

Eternal Covenant.

Revelation reveals:

The Lamb destroys death

The last enemy is swallowed

The second death is abolished

The grave is emptied

God wipes away all tears

Creation enters immortality

God becomes all in all

The Eternal Covenant ends death's legal standing.

The Lake of Fire is not eternal torture —
it is the final consumption of death itself.

3. The Eternal Covenant Is the Plan of the Ages

The Plan of the Ages is the unfolding of the Eternal Covenant:

Genesis: Adam dies spiritually, but the Lamb covers.

Prophets: The Covenant is whispered in shadows and types.

Apostles: Christ appears and death collapses.

EN The end reveals the beginning — the Lamb reigning, death gone, God dwelling in man.

Revelation 21–22 is not a future fantasy —
it is the unveiling of the Eternal Covenant reaching fullness.

This is why the book ends with:

"There shall be no more death."

Not postponed.

Not delayed.

Not temporary.

No more.

4. The Eternal Covenant Produces an Immortal Company

The Eternal Covenant demands an immortal people.

Why?

Because:

death has been abolished (2 Timothy 1:10),

immortality has been brought to light,

the new creation cannot die,

the Lamb's life is indestructible.

Revelation reveals a people:

Mount Zion,

clothed in white,

sealed in their foreheads,

transformed spirit, soul, and body,

bearing the Father's name,

reigning with the Lamb forever.

These are the immortal sons,
the fulfillment of the Eternal Covenant.

Babylon preaches escape.
The Eternal Covenant produces a Manchild.

Declaration — The Eternal Covenant Stands. Death Does Not.

We declare:

The Eternal Covenant has ended the reign of death.
The Eternal Covenant has fulfilled the death appointment.
The Eternal Covenant has raised a new creation.
The Eternal Covenant has produced immortal sons.
The Eternal Covenant has finished the plan of the ages.
The Eternal Covenant has restored all things.
The Eternal Covenant has enthroned the Lamb forever.

Death is not the end —
it is the lie.

The Lamb is the end —
and His end is Life without end.

Call to Action — Enter the Eternal Covenant

The Spirit now calls the elect:

"Step into the covenant older than time.
Live the life stronger than death.
Walk in the immortality revealed in you.
Stand in the Lamb's victory.
Reign as sons of the Eternal Covenant."

This is not a gospel of escape —
it is a gospel of transformation.

Death has ended.
The Lamb reigns.
And the sons rise.
