Revelation: Introduction

The Living Reality of Immortality

Immortality is not a hope deferred — it is a present dimension of life already quickened within the elect. The sons of God are not waiting to die to live; they are learning to live beyond death's jurisdiction while yet in mortal form. The New Covenant opened the age of incorruption, and the Spirit within is swallowing mortality from the inside out. Pentecost imparted power, but Tabernacles unveils fullness. We stand in the transition — out of impartation into possession, out of the five-fold ministry into the Manchild dominion, out of promise into manifestation.

The elect are already walking through all ages within one body. We have the revelation, we feast at the table of Tabernacles, and we bear witness to the immortal nature of Christ alive within us. What remains is not another dispensation, but a suddenly — the sovereign moment when the veil of limitation is removed and the redeemed body testifies, "Death is swallowed up in victory."

This is not theory — it is reality. The Book of Revelation unveils the elect who live in this consciousness now, awaiting only the full manifestation of glory in the earth.

CHAPTER 1 — The Gospel of Immortality Revealed

Immortality: The Living Reality of the Elect

Definition

2 Timothy 1:10 — "Our Saviour Jesus Christ ... hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel."

The Gospel of the Kingdom is not a message about getting to heaven after death; it is the revelation that death has already been abolished. The word abolished means rendered powerless, stripped of jurisdiction. Through His death and resurrection, the reign of death and opened the living realm of incorruption.

EN

Romans 6:9 — “Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.”

Christ now stands as the first Immortal Man, the Pattern Son of a new creation. The dominion of death was broken in Him once and for all, and that same life has been deposited in us through the New Covenant.

1 Corinthians 15:45 — “The last Adam was made a quickening spirit.”

The Last Adam did not come merely to forgive sin; He came to reproduce His own order of life — a race of quickened beings whose seed is incorruptible.

Revelation

Every covenant of the past pointed toward this unveiling. The Cross was not the end of the story but the opening of a new dimension of existence: the Age of Immortality.

When Paul said that life and immortality were brought to light, he wasn't describing a distant hope; he was revealing a present unveiling. The light has already dawned — and those who see it step out of the shadow of death.

The Man Christ Jesus is the prototype of an immortal company. As He overcame death in Himself, so the elect overcome death in themselves — not by natural strength, but by receiving the quickening Spirit. Every son of God born of that Spirit carries within him the law of an endless life.

Immortality is not merely existence without end; it is existence without decay. It is the incorruptible nature of God permeating every realm — spirit, soul, and body — until mortality is fully consumed. The Gospel of the Kingdom, therefore, is the Gospel of Immortality: the message that death has been defeated, and life now reigns through righteousness.

EN

Revelation

"Death is not my master. Life rules in me."

"The same Spirit that raised Christ from the dead now quickens my mortal body."

"I am born of incorruptible seed; therefore, I cannot be overcome by corruption."

The elect are not waiting to receive immortality; we are learning to walk in it. The light that revealed immortality through the Gospel is shining from within the sons. As Christ lives, we live also — the Book of Revelation made flesh.

Call to Action

Awaken, O Zion. Stop agreeing with the vocabulary of death. Feed upon the living Word until every thought, every cell, every breath bears witness that life has already conquered.

Confess daily: "Christ is my life; death has no dominion here."

Let the Gospel of Immortality govern your consciousness; speak it over your house, your body, and your world. You are not waiting to enter life — you are the living expression of it.

CHAPTER 2 — The Quickening Spirit Within Us

Book of Revelation — Immortality: The Living Reality of the Elect

Definition

1 Corinthians 15:45-49 — "The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit... as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly."

Romans 8:11 — "If the Spirit of Him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, He that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by His Spirit which dwelleth in you."

EN

The term quickening means to make alive. It is the resurrection force of God actively working within our present mortal bodies. The Last Adam was not just a forgiven man — He was a life-imparting Spirit. That same Spirit now dwells within every son of the New Covenant, animating flesh with incorruptible substance.

This quickening is not post-mortem resurrection; it is ongoing resurrection life at work now. The Spirit does not wait for the grave to do His miracle. He is already raising up a generation of men and women who live beyond death's jurisdiction while still in the body.

Revelation

The Quickening Spirit is the inner engine of immortality. Where Adam was a soul that could die, Christ is a Spirit that cannot. When that Spirit took up residence in you, a change of nature occurred — mortality was invaded by eternity.

Every moment you yield to the Spirit, death loses another stronghold. Your mind is being quickened into the mind of Christ; your emotions are being purified into divine peace; even your cells respond to the vibration of resurrection life within you.

Pentecost was the Spirit given to us; Tabernacles is the Spirit manifesting as us. The Quickening Spirit within is the Seed of immortality already working to transfigure the outer man. As the inner life expands, it will eventually consume the limitations of flesh entirely.

This is why Paul spoke of bearing "the image of the heavenly." That image is not merely moral likeness — it is immortal substance. We are becoming the very form of His resurrection. The Quickening Spirit is the technology of that transformation.

Declaration

"The Spirit that raised Jesus dwells in me now."

EN

"My body is alive with resurrection power."

"I am no longer a living soul but a quickening spirit."

"The Book of Revelation is being fulfilled in my flesh as life swallows up death."

The elect are God's laboratory of resurrection. We carry the proof that immortality is a present reality. The Spirit is not visiting us; He is us — manifesting through us.

Call to Action

Yield to the Quickener. Invite Him into every faculty of your being. When fatigue speaks, answer with life. When aging claims a voice, answer with light. Let the Spirit of resurrection govern your habits, your diet, your thoughts, and your speech until your whole man testifies — "I am alive forevermore."

Confess daily: "The Quickening Spirit within me is stronger than death around me." Live from the inside out — from Spirit to soul to body — until the outer man is clothed with the same glory that dwells within.

CHAPTER 3 — Mortality Swallowed Up of Life

Book of Revelation — Immortality: The Living Reality of the Elect

Definition

2 Corinthians 5:4 — "For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life."

1 Corinthians 15:51-54 — "Behold, I shew you a mystery; we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye ... this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption ... then might to pass the saying, Death is swallowed up in victory."

EN

Paul unveils the mystery of transformation: we are not seeking escape from the body but its transfiguration. To be “clothed upon” is to have the inner life expand until it completely enfolds the outer man. This is not future resurrection in a cemetery; it is present resurrection within the saints who carry the Spirit of Life.

Revelation

Every groan within the elect is not despair but pregnancy — the travail of life pressing to manifest through flesh. When Paul said “mortality swallowed up of life,” he described the moment when the inner kingdom overtakes the outer creation. The greater Life does not replace the body; it consumes it until only Spirit remains visible through form.

Pentecost ignited Spirit within man; Tabernacles reveals Spirit as man. The change “in a moment” is not cosmic chaos but divine order coming to full maturity. The elect who walk in this revelation are the living fulfillment of that mystery — a company who do not sleep, for Life has conquered their night.

As the incorruptible nature fills every cell, time and aging lose authority. Mortality is not cast off like a garment of shame; it is swallowed — absorbed into Life until nothing remains that can die. The Book of Revelation calls this “the first resurrection” — the raising of a people within the earth who can no longer be touched by death.

Declaration

“I am clothed upon with Life from above.”

“The greater Life within me is consuming the lesser life around me.”

“This mortal is putting on immortality now.”

“The Book of Revelation is fulfilled in me — death swallowed up in victory.”

The elect are not waiting for a tomb to open but for their inner sun to rise. The sound of the trumpet is the voice of the Son within declaring, “Arise and shine, for thy

Call to Action

Groan no longer as one burdened with flesh, but as one ready to burst with Life. Feed the fire within through worship and Word until it overflows your mortal limits. When fatigue, aging, or decay speak, answer with the voice of Life: "You are swallowed up!"

Live from the inside out — Spirit first, soul second, body last — until every realm is brought under the law of immortality. The elect are the living demonstration of this mystery in the earth.

CHAPTER 4 — From Earnest to Fullness

Book of Revelation — Immortality: The Living Reality of the Elect

Definition

Ephesians 1:13-14 — "After that ye believed, ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise, which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of His glory."

Acts 2:1-4 — "And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind... and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost."

The earnest is the pledge, the divine deposit guaranteeing future ownership. Pentecost gave the down payment of glory — the Spirit poured into earthen vessels as a seed of what would one day fill the whole temple. Tabernacles is that day of possession: when the seed of the Spirit has matured into total habitation.

EN

Spirit in man.

= God in full union with man.

The earnest was the spark; the fullness is the flame.

Revelation

The Spirit's outpouring at Pentecost was the beginning, not the conclusion. It sealed the sons with promise, but it did not yet redeem the body. The same Spirit who sealed us as heirs is also the One working toward the redemption of the purchased possession.

That redemption is not geographical but physiological and spiritual — the unveiling of God in flesh.

The earnest speaks of impartation; the fullness speaks of manifestation. The early rain made the Church alive; the latter rain brings her into maturity. Pentecost birthed the body of Christ; Tabernacles reveals the Manchild company who reign in immortal dominion.

Just as Israel moved from Passover → Pentecost → Tabernacles, so the elect must journey through blood → Spirit → glory. Pentecost was the anointing for ministry; Tabernacles is the anointing for dominion. The world has seen power; it will now behold fullness.

This is the generation that moves from sealed promise to completed possession. The Spirit that once visited now abides. The Glory that once filled a room now fills a people until the entire earth is His temple.

Declaration

"I have received the earnest; I am moving into the fullness."

"The Spirit that sealed me is redeeming me completely."

"What began in Pentecost is being completed in Tabernacles."

"The Book of Revelation is the record of this transfer — from down payment to dominion."

The elect are no longer waiting for another visitation; we are the habitation of God

EN

Call to Action

Guard not your portion — expand it. Yield daily to the indwelling Spirit until every realm of your being bears His signature. Speak to the earnest within and call it into fullness:

“Spirit of Promise, become Spirit of Possession in me!”

Feed the flame through worship, the Word, and obedience until what was once a pledge becomes the manifest inheritance of life. Walk in expectation of the suddenly of Tabernacles — when the Spirit that filled will now overflow.

CHAPTER 5 — The Redemption of the Body and the Adoption of Sons

Book of Revelation — Immortality: The Living Reality of the Elect

Definition

Romans 8 : 19-23 — “For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God... because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God... waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.”

1 Thessalonians 5 : 23-24 — “And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is He that calleth you, who also will do it.”

The redemption of the body is the final seal of salvation. Redemption begins in spirit, renews the soul, and culminates in the transformation of the physical form.

EN

means placement — sons brought to maturity and publicly declared as heirs. Creation is not waiting for escape from the planet but for the unveiling of incorruptible humanity — men and women whose very bodies bear the liberty of God.

Revelation

When Paul groaned for adoption, he groaned for embodiment — for Spirit to fill every cell until nothing mortal remained. The manifestation of the sons of God is not a ministry trend; it is the consummation of redemption. Spirit, soul, and body are drawn into oneness with the indwelling Christ until the triune man becomes the visible temple of God in the earth.

The bondage of corruption is the rule of death still clinging to unrenewed flesh. The glorious liberty of the children of God is the body's liberation from decay. This is the final feast — the Feast of Tabernacles — when the divine presence no longer dwells in measure but in fullness.

"Preserved blameless" in 1 Thessalonians is not mere moral innocence; it is whole preservation — spirit, soul, and body kept beyond corruption. The same God who justified the spirit now sanctifies the flesh until it radiates His immortality.

The sons who reach this adoption stand as living tabernacles of glory. Their appearing signals creation's emancipation. The law of death cannot coexist with the law of life; therefore, when the mature sons are revealed, death is evicted from creation itself.

Declaration

"My adoption is not future — it is unfolding now."

"The Spirit of life in me redeems even my flesh."

"Creation waits for what I carry — immortality made visible."

"The Book of Revelation proclaims it: the body redeemed, the sons revealed, the earth delivered."

EN

The elect are the sign of God's completion — firstfruits of a deathless creation.

Call to Action

Live with the consciousness that your body is holy ground. Speak to it as purchased property under new management. Each morning, declare:

“Spirit of Life, redeem this body fully. Let every atom respond to Your liberty.”

Refuse to identify with weakness; feed on Word and worship until your very skin testifies of glory. The earth feels your frequency, brother — every heartbeat announcing that the sons are here. Let your life become the trumpet that signals the redemption of the body.

CHAPTER 6 — Reigning in Life

Book of Revelation — Immortality: The Living Reality of the Elect

Definition

Romans 5 : 17 — “For if by one man’s offence death reigned by one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.”

1 Corinthians 15 : 25-26 — “For He must reign, till He hath put all enemies under His feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.”

Adam’s fall enthroned death; Christ’s resurrection enthroned Life.

To reign in life is not to dominate men but to manifest divine order from within. The same grace that forgave also enthroned. When we received righteousness, we inherited a kingdom — not one that comes with observation, but the inner government of Christ now operating through sons who cannot die.

Revelation

The throne of heaven has moved into man. "He must reign" — and the instrument of that reign is His Body. When the Son took His seat, He brought us with Him (Ephesians 2 : 6). Dominion is therefore not a future millennium but a present manifestation of Life having full jurisdiction.

Death is the last squatter in the realm of man's consciousness. The Lamb reigns until that intruder is evicted from every cell. Dominion is not conquest by force but conquest by life-flow. Every time you yield to love, truth, and righteousness, the kingdom extends.

Pentecost empowered servants; Tabernacles enthrones sons.

The Manchild company reigns not from pulpits but from union — a government of light issuing decrees of life into creation. The battle of Armageddon is not sword against sword but life swallowing death until no shadow remains.

The sons reigning in life are the visible proof that the kingdom has come. Their dominion is the answer to the groan of Romans 8 — the authority of incorruption subduing the corruption of the world.

Declaration

"I have received abundance of grace and the gift of righteousness."

"I reign in life by One — Jesus Christ."

"Every enemy within me is under His feet, for I am His Body."

"The Book of Revelation proclaims: the Lamb reigns through the immortals of Zion."

Reigning is our nature; Life is our law; the throne is our consciousness.

Call to Action

EN

Reign as a king-priest of Life. Do not speak from the valley of death but from the mountain of resurrection. Govern your thoughts, words, and atmosphere with righteousness, peace, and joy — for this is the Kingdom of God.

When fear whispers “You are dying,” answer, “I reign in life.”

When weakness speaks, answer, “Strength flows from the throne within.”

Walk as one seated above limitation, ruling from union with the Quickening Spirit until death itself bows.

CHAPTER 7 — The Incorruptible Seed

Book of Revelation — Immortality: The Living Reality of the Elect

Definition

1 Peter 1 : 23 — “Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the Word of God, which liveth and abideth forever.”

1 Corinthians 15 : 42-44 — “It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption: it is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory; it is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body.”

To be born again is to receive a new lineage. The seed that produced Adam carried death; the seed that produces Christ carries immortality. The Word of God is living, self-reproductive life. It cannot decay, age, or die.

When that seed entered your spirit, the nature of corruption was replaced with the nature of incorruption.

Every seed reproduces after its kind. Therefore, the seed of the living Word reproduces living sons. You are not merely forgiven — you are re-gene-rated, born of divine substance.

EN

tion

The Incorruptible Seed is Christ Himself planted in human soil. It is not a theological idea but a living code of divinity. When the Word enters the heart of faith, it begins to expand, overtaking mortal ground until the whole field becomes Spirit.

Resurrection is simply the seed coming to maturity. The same power that raised Jesus from the dead is the same seed growing in the sons. Every test, every fire, every season of darkness is the soil breaking open so that immortal life can sprout.

This is why Paul said, "What thou sowest is not quickened except it die." The death you once knew was only the seed coat cracking; the real life within was untouched. You are not the decaying shell — you are the incorruptible germ inside it.

When that seed reaches fullness, mortality will be entirely absorbed. The incorruptible Word that abides forever will manifest as the incorruptible body that cannot die. Thus, the Book of Revelation is not about destruction; it is the blooming of the immortal seed in the garden of man.

Declaration

"I am born of incorruptible seed."

"The Word that lives forever lives in me."

"Corruption has no claim on divine DNA."

"The Book of Revelation is the record of the seed of immortality coming to full fruit."

You are heaven's harvest — God's Word made flesh again in the earth.

Call to Action

Guard the seed. Water it with meditation and light. Refuse to sow mixed seed — no Babylonian fear, no mixture of death and life. Speak to the Word within: "Grow until nothing corruptible remains in me."

When you read Scripture, do not study it as history; eat it as genetic substance. The more you consume the Word, the more the seed expands. Live conscious that you are carrying the immortal blueprint of the New Creation.

CHAPTER 8 — The Appearing of Christ in Glory

Book of Revelation — Immortality: The Living Reality of the Elect

Definition

Colossians 3 : 3-4 — “For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with Him in glory.”

2 Thessalonians 1 : 10 — “When He shall come to be glorified in His saints, and to be admired in all them that believe.”

The appearing Paul describes is the Greek phanerōthē — “to be made visible, to shine forth.” It is not Christ descending from a far sky, but the Christ within becoming visible through His body.

The New Covenant revelation is that your life is hid with Christ in God; immortality is already present, waiting for unveiling. The appearing is not a calendar event — it’s a consciousness event: the inner Christ manifesting through sons who know Him as their very Life.

Revelation

Every true appearing begins within. The Spirit that quickened Jesus now pushes upward through the soil of human form until the hidden life breaks through. When Paul says “then shall ye also appear with Him,” he reveals the corporate nature of the manifestation: Christ appearing in His many members.

EN

This is the mystery of Tabernacles — God fully dwelling in man, and man fully dwelling in God.

The elect do not wait for clouds; we are becoming the clouds of His glory (Hebrews 12 : 1 — “so great a cloud of witnesses”).

The revelation within will soon fill the outer world; the invisible life will overflow its mortal garment until even the body shines.

As the inner Christ appears, the veil of mortality rends. Glory, once hidden in spirit, now radiates through soul and flesh. This is the consummation of the New Covenant: the unveiling of the sons in whom the fullness of God dwells bodily (Colossians 2 : 9-10).

It is not a visitation; it is habitation unveiled. The Book of Revelation calls it the marriage of the Lamb — Spirit and Bride united as one expression in the earth.

Declaration

“Christ, who is my life, is appearing through me now.”

“My life is hid with Christ in God, and glory is breaking forth.”

“The appearing of the Lord is the unveiling of His body in the earth.”

“The Book of Revelation is the story of glory made visible in man.”

We are the mirror through which the invisible Christ becomes seen.

Call to Action

Awaken each day as one clothed in light. Speak to the Christ within:

“Shine through me without measure. Let nothing veil Your glory.”

Refuse to agree with darkness. You are not waiting for Him to come from above; you are His coming from within.

Meditate until the hidden life becomes awareness, awareness becomes presence, and presence becomes manifestation.

Let your life preach the appearing of Christ in the earth.

CHAPTER 9 — The Manifestation of the Sons and Creation's Deliverance

Definition

Romans 8 : 19-21 — “For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of Him who hath subjected the same in hope, because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.”

Revelation 21 : 4-5 — “And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. And He that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new.”

Creation is not waiting for an escape from matter — it is waiting for manifest sons who reveal immortality within matter. Deliverance comes when the life that rules in the elect radiates outward to every realm. The bondage of corruption ends not by destruction but by transfiguration.

Revelation

The entire universe feels the pulse of the sons coming forth. When Adam fell, creation was subjected to vanity — the cycle of decay. When Christ rose, the pattern of restoration began. But the completion comes through the corporate Christ — the Manchild company manifesting His immortal life in the earth.

EN

of the wind, every quake of the ground, every groan in human history is creation calling for the unveiling of immortality. The sons are the bridge between heaven and earth, Spirit and substance. As their bodies are redeemed, the elements themselves respond.

The manifestation of the sons is the final "Behold, I make all things new." When the sons appear, death disappears; when incorruption takes the throne in man, corruption loses dominion in creation. The Feast of Tabernacles is not only personal glorification — it is planetary restoration.

These immortal rulers reign not to dominate but to restore. They carry the ministry of reconciliation to its cosmic conclusion. This is why John heard the voice from the throne declare "no more death." The sons are the voice made flesh — the living decree that ends the tyranny of decay.

Declaration

"Creation groans because I carry its liberty."

"The life that reigns in me is the deliverance of the earth."

"Where death ruled, life now rules through the immortal sons."

"The Book of Revelation declares: 'Behold, I make all things new.' I am part of that renewal."

The rising of the sons is the morning of creation; the universe will never sleep again.

Call to Action

Walk with awareness that your obedience affects worlds. Speak to the land, to the air, to the people around you:

"You are free from corruption through the life of Christ in me."

Live as a priest of creation — bless the ground beneath your feet, the food you eat, the air you breathe. Let every act be an extension of resurrection power until your environment begins to vibrate with liberty. The world is not ending; it is awakening through the sons of God.

CHAPTER 10 — The Suddenly of God and the Crowning of Immortality

Book of Revelation — Immortality: The Living Reality of the Elect

Definition

2 Timothy 1 : 10 — “Our Saviour Jesus Christ ... hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.”

1 Corinthians 15 : 51-54 — “Behold, I shew you a mystery; we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye ... this mortal must put on immortality ... Death is swallowed up in victory.”

Revelation 21 : 4-5 — “There shall be no more death ... Behold, I make all things new.”

The suddenly of God is the instant when what has been working invisibly for ages becomes visible in a breath. Pentecost came suddenly with a sound; Tabernacles will come suddenly with a shine — the quickening Spirit overflowing the elect until mortality is completely overtaken. This is not the end of creation but the coronation of Life.

Revelation

Immortality has never been delayed in heaven; it has been maturing in men. Every generation since the Cross carried the seed, but the elect generation carries the “moment” Paul spoke of is not chronological; it is kairos — God’s appointed now. When the inner Christ reaches the tipping point of fullness, heaven and earth converge in the sons.

The suddenly of God is the Spirit's final trumpet — the inner call that awakens sleeping potential. What was hidden in mystery bursts into manifestation. In that instant, the veil of flesh becomes transparent, and the sons stand as the visible expression of the invisible God.

The crowning of immortality is not escape from earth; it is the enthronement of Life upon it. The same voice that said "Let there be light" now thunders through a company who have become one with the Word. They are the fulfillment of "Behold, I make all things new." Death, the last enemy, collapses before the unveiled Christ in His body.

This is the true Book of Revelation — the unveiling of the Lamb's dominion through an immortal people. The age closes not in darkness but in brilliance; not in defeat but in Life victorious.

Declaration

"The suddenly of God is breaking through me."

"Mortality is swallowed up; immortality wears the crown."

"The Lamb reigns in me, and death is under His feet."

"The Book of Revelation is complete: all things made new."

We are not waiting for the day of the Lord — we are the dawning of it.

Call to Action

Stand ready in the posture of fullness. Expect the appearing at any moment, not from the sky but from within.

Every act of obedience hastens manifestation. Every word of life thins the veil. Keep turning — your body, soul, and spirit filled with oil — for the Bridegroom is emerging through His Bride.

EN

Speak it boldly each morning:

“Today, Life rules. Today, immortality reigns. Today, the suddenly of God crowns me with glory.”

Let this confession become creation’s signal flare that the age of death has ended and the age of Life has begun.
