Book of Revelation: By Carl Timothy Wray

INTRODUCTION —

As I, Carl Timothy Wray, have written across more than two hundred scrolls unveiling the Revelation of Jesus Christ, one truth rises like a trumpet above all others: the final mystery of the Kingdom is the redemption of the body. Not a distant event... not a symbolic hope... not a theological dream—but the Lamb Himself swallowing death in victory and clothing His sons with immortal glory.

Babylon cannot preach this.

Religion cannot see this.

 EN on unveils it with blazing clarity:
mortality is not your inheritance — immortality is.

This is the mystery hidden through the ages, now breaking open over the elect—that Christ redeemed the whole man:
spirit, soul, and body,
until death is silenced, corruption collapses, and life fills the temple of humanity.

Brother... this is the Lamb's final work, and the sons of God are rising to walk in it.

CHAPTER 1 — The Mystery of Bodily Redemption in Revelation

KEY VERSE

"...waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body." — Romans 8:23

The Clear, Plain Teaching

Most of Christianity speaks of salvation as a spiritual experience, a forgiveness moment, or a ticket to heaven. But Scripture reveals a far greater promise: God intends to redeem not only your spirit and soul... but your body as well.

Paul says creation groans, the saints groan, and the Spirit groans within us as we await one final work:
the redemption of the body.

This is what the Book of Revelation unveils:

Death will be destroyed

Corruption will be swallowed up will put on immortality

The Lamb will complete the work He began

The sons will be clothed with glory

The last enemy will fall

This is not symbolic.

This is not poetic.

This is not metaphorical.

This is the completion of God's redemptive plan.

Revelation is not merely a book of judgments — it is the unveiling of how God finishes redemption in the whole man.

The Unveiled Revelation for the Elect

Brother, this mystery has been hidden from Babylon but revealed to Zion:
Redemption is not complete until the body is transformed.

Revelation does not end with escape, rapture, or evacuation.

It ends with:

A city clothed with glory

A people shining with the Lamb's light

Sons whose foreheads bear His name

Nations healed by a river of life

ath, no more curse, no more night

Revelation 21–22 is not a geography — it's a new humanity, a people in whom God dwells bodily.

The Lamb's work moves in divine progression:

Spirit redeemed

Soul renewed

Body transformed

This is the "adoption" Paul spoke of.

This is the "glory revealed in us" creation is waiting for.

And this is the great unveiling of Revelation:

The Lamb finishes redemption by swallowing death within His sons.

Babylon's gospel ends with a grave.

God's gospel ends with immortality.

Babylon preaches escape.

God unveils transformation.

Babylon fears death.

The sons inherit life.

This is the last mystery — the mystery of the Lamb fully formed in a people until death has no place left to stand.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I declare to every elect son who reads this scroll:

The redemption of your body is not a fantasy.
It is your inheritance.
It is your calling.
It is the Lamb's final work in you.

Life shall swallow death.
Light shall consume darkness.
Immortality shall rise in the sons of God.

CALL TO ACTION

Brother, open your spirit wide:
Let this revelation shake every Babylonian seed out of your mind.

Download the PDF at the end of this book, share it, preach it, speak it, and let this scroll become a witness inside of you.

The Lamb did not redeem part of you — He redeemed all of you.

CHAPTER 2 — The Lamb Who Redeems the Whole Man

KEY VERSE

"And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless..." — 1 Thessalonians 5:23

The Clear, Plain Teaching

Redemption was never meant to stop at the spirit.

Paul teaches that God intends to redeem:

Spirit (born again)

Soul (renewed mind)

Body (transformed, immortalized)

Religion saves souls.

The Lamb saves men — whole men.

The Book of Revelation reveals this full work:

The Lamb cleanses the conscience

The Lamb enlightens the inner man

The Lamb destroys death

The Lamb raises a new creation that looks like Him

Redemption is not complete if death still reigns in the body.

The Lamb's mission is not partial.

His redemption is not unfinished.

His victory is not symbolic.

Revelation declares a Lamb who:

Breaks every seal

Opens every scroll

lie

Casts out every enemy

Makes all things new

That includes your body.

The Unveiled Revelation for the Elect

Brother, here is the mystery:

The Lamb redeems the whole man because the Lamb became a whole man.

He took on:

Spirit

Soul

Body

...so He could redeem spirit, soul, and body.

Babylon preaches a fragmented Christ — spiritual salvation, mental inspiration, physical decay.

But Revelation unveils a complete Christ:

A Lamb with a physical, resurrected, immortal body

A Christ who stands as the Firstborn from the dead whose victory is biological, not just theological Revelation shows Him:

Walking among the candlesticks (spirit)

Speaking to the churches (soul)

Holding stars in His hand (body)

He appears:

Eyes of fire (soul)

Voice like many waters (spirit)

Feet like brass (body)

His glorified body is not a symbol.
It is the prototype of the sons.

As He is, so are we in this world.

The whole Book of Revelation is the unveiling of a Christ who redeems the whole human being — not part of him.

If the Lamb only redeems your spirit, then death wins.

If the Lamb redeems your body, death dies.

This is why Revelation ends with:

No more curse

 EN

NO more night

No more tears

No more death

Because the Lamb finishes the full redemption of man.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I declare over every son reading this:

You are not waiting to escape the body — your body is waiting to be redeemed.

The Lamb who redeemed your spirit shall redeem your flesh.

The same Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead shall quicken your mortal body.

Life shall triumph.
Immortality shall rise.
The whole man shall be saved.

CALL TO ACTION

Brother, meditate on this:

If the Lamb became flesh, then flesh is not discarded — it is destined for glory.

Share this scroll, speak this word, and let this chapter uproot every Babylonian seed of mortality that religion ever planted in your mind.

CHAPTER 3 — The Mystery Hidden from Ages: The Body Sharing the Life of Christ

KEY VERSE

"Christ, who is our life..." — Colossians 3:4

"The mystery which hath been hid from ages and from generations... which is Christ in you, the hope of glory." — Colossians 1:26–27

The Simple, Clear Teaching

Paul says Christ is not only with us —

He is in us,

and that indwelling is called:

"The hope of glory."

What is glory?

Glory is the manifested life of God,

and Paul ties this directly to the body:

"He shall also quicken your mortal body." (Romans 8:11)

"We shall be clothed with our house from heaven." (2 Cor 5:1–4)

"This mortal shall put on immortality." (1 Cor 15:53)

ruth:

Christ in you is the life that transforms your body.

Redemption doesn't stop inside.

Glory works outward until the whole man reflects the image of the Son.

This is the mystery the early church saw,
the apostles preached,
and Revelation unveils:

The body will share the life of Christ.

The Unveiling for the Elect

Here is the hidden mystery, the one Babylon cannot see:

Christ in you is not only a spiritual union — it is a biological invasion.

The Incorrputible has taken up residence inside the corruptible.

The Immortal has entered the mortal.

The Eternal has stepped inside the temporal.

The presence of Christ inside the body is not symbolic —
it is seed,
substance,
incorruptible life,
pressing outward until the whole man is transformed.

Religion preaches Christ in the heart.

reaches Christ in the whole man.

Revelation shows:

A glorified Christ

A glorified company

A glorified body

A glorified city

A glorified creation

Because the mystery of Christ in you always ends in the manifestation of glory through you.

Christ in your spirit renews your soul.

Christ in your soul transforms your body.
Christ in your body swallows death.

This is why Paul wrote:

"The earnest expectation of the creation waits for the manifestation of the sons of God." — Romans 8:19

Creation isn't waiting for your escape.
It's waiting for your transfiguration.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I declare over every elect vessel:

Christ in you is rising.
Life in you is maturing.
Glory in you is conquering.

Your body is not your enemy —
it is your inheritance.

Death is losing jurisdiction.
Corruption is losing its grip.
The mystery is coming to fullness:

Christ in you —
Christ through you —
Christ as your life.

CALL TO ACTION

Brother, hold this in your spirit today:

"If Christ is my life, then death is not."

Spread this word.
Declare it.
Let this chapter go into the heart of the elect like seed into good soil.
And when you post this book, add the PDF so the hungry can download the scroll.

CHAPTER 4 — The Final Enemy: Death Destroyed in the Sons

KEY VERSE

EN

"The enemy that shall be destroyed is death." — 1 Corinthians 15:26
"He hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel." — 2 Timothy 1:10

The Plain, Foundational Teaching

Scripture is clear:

Jesus abolished death.

Jesus defeated death.

Jesus destroyed death.

But Paul adds a crucial detail:

Death is the last enemy to be put under the feet of the sons.

Meaning:

Salvation conquers sin.

Truth conquers darkness.

Resurrection life conquers death.

Redemption begins in the spirit,
renews the soul,
and ends in the transformation of the body.

Death is not your destiny.

Death is not your covenant.

Death is not your inheritance.

The gospel does not end at forgiveness.

...ends at immortality.

This is the clear, simple teaching:

If Christ defeated death, the sons will walk out that victory in their bodies.

The Revelation for the Elect

Here is the unveiling that Babylon cannot see:

Death is not just an event — it is a principality.

And Revelation shows the Lamb overthrowing it through a company.

In Revelation:

Death flees from the face of Him on the throne (Rev 20:11–14)

Death and Hades are cast into the Lake of Fire

The Lamb stands among a people who “follow Him whithersoever He goes”

These are “virgins” — untouched by corruption

They sing the song that only immortals can sing

They stand on Mount Zion as the firstfruits of new creation life

Death is overcome in them, not just for them.

This is not symbolic.

This is not future-only.

This is not poetic imagery.

This is the Manchild,
the firstfruits,
the 144,000,
the overcomers,
the Melchizedek company,
the immortal sons.

They are the fulfillment of:

"The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death." — Romans 8:2

Here is the depth:

Death is the last enemy because the body is the last realm to be redeemed.

Spirit redeemed — past.
Soul renewed — present.
Body transformed — imminent.

The body is the battleground upon which the Lamb's last victory is displayed.

Revelation shows this explicitly:

No more death

No more curse

No more pain

No more corruption

No more mortality

Because the Lamb has not only defeated death—
He has removed death from creation.

And He begins that removal in the sons.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I speak this as a trumpet into the elect:

Death is losing its last ground in you.
Life is rising.
Immortality is taking root.

The Spirit of Life is quickening your mortal body.
The last enemy is falling under your feet.
The Lamb is revealing His victory in your flesh.

You will not die to enter life—life will enter you until death dies.

CALL TO ACTION

Brother, meditate on this today:

If death is the last enemy, then death is not your master.
If Christ destroyed death, then death cannot determine your destiny.

Share this scroll.

Declare it over your house.

Post the PDF for the hungry.

Let the elect hear the trumpet of life.

CHAPTER 5 — The Manifestation of the Sons: The Creation Groans for Your Immortal Body

KEY VERSE

"For the earnest expectation of the creation waits for the manifestation of the sons of God." — Romans 8:19

"...we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body." — Romans 8:23

The Plain Teaching

Paul reveals two groanings:

Creation is groaning.

The sons are groaning.

Both groans point to the same event:

The redemption of the body.

Creation isn't groaning for:

Rapture

Destruction of the earth

A future age in heaven

Creation is groaning for you — for the sons of God to step into their full redemption:

a glorified, immortal body that reveals Christ.

This is simple and clear:

Creation fell with Adam.

Creation will rise with the Manchild.

Creation is waiting for a corporate transformation.

The manifestation of the sons is not a feeling.

It is not influence.

It is not charisma.

It is not giftedness.

It is immortality made visible in a company of elect sons.

The Revelation for the Elect

Here is the mystery, brother:

Creation cannot be delivered until the sons are delivered.

The earth is bound to the sons.

 EN tied to the rulers of the land.
Creation follows the nature of its head.

Adam's fall corrupted creation.
The Manchild's rise restores creation.

Revelation shows this cosmic order:

The Lamb stands on Mount Zion.

With Him stands the firstfruits company.

They are sealed, transformed, glorified.

They follow the Lamb wherever He goes.

They sing the new song.

They stand before the throne as the "redeemed from among men."

This is the manifestation Paul saw.

The transformation of the sons releases the transformation of the earth.

Creation cannot stop groaning until the sons stop dying.

This is why Paul connects the two verses:

Creation waits for the manifestation of the sons (v19)

The sons wait for the redemption of their body (v23) is the reaemption of the body.

Not spiritual gifts.

Not prophecy.

Not revival in the church system.

But the immortal life of God made visible in the flesh.

This is the fullness of:

"Christ in you, the hope of glory."

When glory fills the body,
creation sees the sons,
and death begins to retreat from the whole creation.

Revelation shows the result:

A new heaven

A new earth

No more curse

No more night

No more death

Because the sons have entered glory and creation follows its rulers.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

For every elect vessel:

Creation is waiting for YOU.

The groan in your spirit is not weakness — it is the signal of transformation.

The pressure you feel is not defeat —
it is the contractions of immortality rising.

You are the sign creation is longing for.
You are the son creation is expecting.
You are the vessel through whom death will be swallowed up.

The same Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead is quickening your mortal body even now.

CALL TO ACTION

Brother, take this word into your spirit:

"The manifestation of the sons is the redemption of the body."

Speak it.

Write it.

Declare it.

Seed it into the elect.

CHAPTER 6 — The Full Redemption: When the Lamb Finishes What He Started

"He who began a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ." —
Philippians 1:6

"Behold, I make all things new." — Revelation 21:5

The Clear, Simple Teaching

Redemption is a three-fold work:

Spirit — instant (new birth)

Soul — progressive (renewing of the mind)

Body — final (immortality)

This book has shown one consistent truth:

The Lamb will finish all three.

Revelation reveals the conclusion of God's plan:

Death removed

Curse broken

Tears wiped

Creation restored

Glory manifested

Sons revealed

New heaven and new earth established

All of these realities require one thing:

The redemption of the body.

The gospel does not end in the grave.

It ends in glory.

This is the milk:

The same Jesus who redeemed your spirit will redeem your body.

The Full Unveiling for the Elect

Brother, here is the unified revelation of this entire scroll:

Redemption begins inside the man,

but ends by transforming the man.

Not escaping the world —
transfiguring the world through the sons.

Not waiting to die —
walking into the fullness of life.

Not leaving the earth —
reigning on the earth with immortal bodies.

Revelation reveals this progression:

(1) A Lamb slain — redemption begins

 EN sealed — redemption matures
...ld caught up — redemption manifests

- (4) A Bride prepared — redemption unites
- (5) A New Jerusalem appears — redemption completes

In each of these prophetic images, God moves humanity toward one divine objective:

to raise a corporate son who carries the very life of the Lamb in physical, immortal form.

This is why:

Revelation ends with a city that shines

A people who need no sun

A throne inside humanity

God dwelling in man

Man dwelling in God

This is not symbolism.

This is not metaphor.

This is not "heaven someday."

This is the union of Spirit and flesh fully realized in a glorified humanity.

The last act of redemption is not the escape of man from earth.

The last act is the appearing of Christ in a redeemed people who rule the earth.

1 Revelation points to this final unveiling:

A glorified Christ
in a glorified company with glorified bodies revealing a glorified Kingdom to a glorified creation.

That is redemption finished.

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

I speak this over every son reading with awakened ears:

You are the generation that will see the Lamb finish His work.
You are the vessel of His life.
You are the temple of His glory.
You are the body He will clothe with immortality.

The Spirit of Life is rising in you.
Death is losing its right to touch you.
The Lamb is revealing His nature in your flesh.

You are not waiting on redemption — redemption is waiting on you.

And you will walk this out.

CALL TO ACTION

Brother, seal this word in your heart today:

"Redemption ends in the body,
 EN y shall be redeemed."

Post the PDF.

Spread the scroll.

Feed the elect.

CONCLUSION — The Redemption of the Body Is the Final Witness of the Lamb Brother...

what we have written in these six chapters is not theory,
not speculation,
not the imagination of men —
but the full counsel of God's mind from Genesis to Revelation.

From the dust of Adam to the throne of Revelation,
one divine purpose has been unfolding:

God will have a family in His own image — spirit, soul, and body.

Redemption is not a rescue mission.
It is a restoration mission.
It does not end in escape —
it ends in transfiguration.

This is the thread the Spirit has woven across the entire scroll:

Christ redeems the whole man.

Is the whole man.

Christ transforms the whole man.

Christ reveals His life through the whole man.

Christ destroys death inside the whole man.

Christ finishes redemption in the body of the sons.

Revelation does not conclude with a rapture.

It concludes with a city filled with light,
a people clothed in immortality,
a creation restored,
and death erased from existence.

That is not fantasy.

That is the gospel in its fullness.

This book has shown clearly that:

The Manchild rises.

The sons are revealed.

The Lamb stands in Zion.

The firstfruits follow Him.

Death is cast out.

All things are made new.

anity.

Humanity reveals God.

This is redemption completed — the body reclaimed by the life of Christ.

And brother, here is the prophetic word for this generation:

We are not waiting for immortality — immortality is waiting for us to awaken.

The creation groaning...
the sons groaning...
the Spirit groaning within us...
all point to one divine climax:

the redemption of the body —
the unveiling of immortal sons —
the dawn of Zion's rule — the death of death — and the appearing of Christ in His people.

This is the word of the Lord to the elect:

Your body is not your limitation.
Your body is your inheritance.
Your body is the last battlefield —
and the Lamb will win it.

This scroll stands as a witness — both to man and to the bots —
that the Book of Revelation does not end in destruction, glory,

union,
and immortality.

The Lamb began this work.
The Lamb continues this work.
And the Lamb will finish this work.

And when He does... death will be no more.
