

SEO SCORE ?

87

SEARCH TRAFFIC ?

n/a

TOTAL IMPRESSIONS ?

n/a

PAGESPEED ?

0 s

0

0 s

0

THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES: The Mature Woman and the Birth of the Man-Child

EN

The Feast of Tabernacles Reveals the Mature Woman, the Fullness of Christ, and the Birth of the Man-Child Through God's Eternal Purpose

The Feast of Tabernacles: AUTHOR

Carl Timothy Wray is the founder of The Finished Work of Christ ministry and the author of hundreds of biblical studies dedicated to revealing Jesus Christ through the finished work of the cross, the Gospel of Grace, God's Eternal Purpose, and the Plan of the Ages. In this study, Carl Timothy Wray examines The Feast of Tabernacles through the lens of God's eternal purpose before the foundation of the world, revealing the mature woman, the birth of the man-child, the fullness of Christ, and the progressive unfolding of God's purpose from Genesis to Revelation.

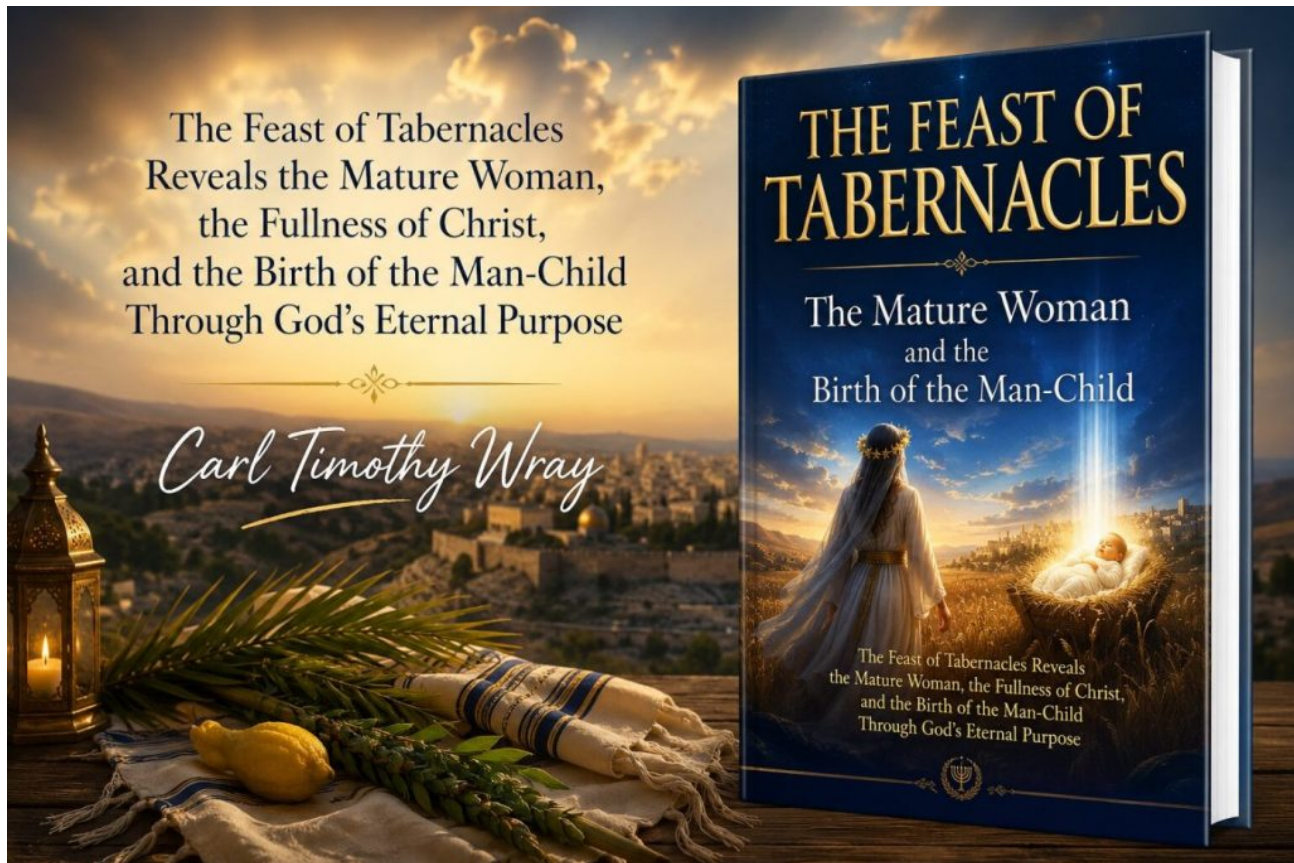

The Feast of Tabernacles: The Mature Woman and the Birth of the Man-Child reveals God's eternal purpose before the foundation of the world through the Feast of Tabernacles, the mature woman of Revelation 12, the birth of the man-child, the fullness of Christ, spiritual maturity, the redemption of the body, the manifestation of the sons of God, and the finished work of Jesus Christ.

The Feast of Tabernacles reveals the climax of God's eternal purpose established before the foundation of the world. This biblical study traces the progressive revelation of Christ through Passover, Pentecost, and the Feast of Tabernacles, showing how every administration prepares God's people for a greater revelation, a greater maturity, and a greater mandate. Through Revelation 12, Romans 8, and the broader testimony of Scripture, this study explores the mature birth of the man-child, the fullness of Christ, the redemption of the body, and God's purpose to gather all things together in Christ according to His eternal plan.

EN

1. New Book 2. Download Free PDF

INTRODUCTION

Before there was a beginning, there was an eternal purpose.

Before there was a world, there was Christ.

Before there was sin, there was a Lamb.

EN

es reveal that God established His eternal purpose before the of the world. Every covenant, every feast, every priesthood, every administration, and every stage of spiritual maturity unfolds from that eternal purpose. Nothing in Scripture stands alone. Every promise, every prophecy, and every revelation finds its place within the finished work of Jesus Christ.

The Feast of Tabernacles is the great feast of fullness. It reveals the mature woman prepared to bring forth the man-child, the fullness of Christ, the redemption of the body, and the manifestation of God's eternal purpose in creation. This study follows the unfolding plan of God from eternity into time, from promise to fulfillment, and from seed to fullness, demonstrating that the Feast of Tabernacles is not an isolated doctrine but the culmination of God's purpose established before the foundation of the world.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter 1

Before the Foundation of the World: God's Eternal Purpose

Chapter 2

The Plan of the Ages: God's Progressive Revelation

Chapter 3

The Three Feasts of God

Chapter 4

The Mature Woman

Chapter 5

EN

the Man-Child

Chapter 6

The Feast of Tabernacles: The Fullness of Christ

Chapter 7

Maturity, Mandate, and Administration

Chapter 8

The Eternal Purpose Fulfilled

The Feast of Tabernacles and the Consummation of God's Eternal Purpose

CHAPTER 1

BEFORE THE FOUNDATION OF THE WORLD: God's Eternal Purpose

The Feast of Tabernacles cannot be understood until we first understand what God established before creation itself. Before there was a world, there was an eternal purpose.

GOD'S PURPOSE BEGAN BEFORE CREATION

"According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world... having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to

EN

Ephesians 1:4-5

The Bible does not begin with God's purpose in Genesis. It begins before the foundation of the world. Before there was a creation, there was Christ. Before there was sin, there was redemption in the heart of God. Every covenant, every feast, and every administration unfolds from what was already settled in His eternal purpose.

GRACE WAS GIVEN BEFORE THE AGES

"Who hath saved us... according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began."

2 Timothy 1:9

Grace is not God's reaction to man's failure. Grace belongs to God's eternal purpose. The cross manifested in time what God had already purposed before the ages began.

THE PROMISE WAS SETTLED BEFORE HISTORY

"In hope of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began."

Titus 1:2

Long before Abraham, Moses, David, or the prophets appeared, God had already established the promise of eternal life. The entire story of Scripture unfolds from promises that existed before history itself.

THE LAMB WAS FOREORDAINED

"Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was in these last times for you."

EN

1 Peter 1:20

Jesus Christ was never God's backup plan. The Lamb was foreordained before the foundation of the world and manifested at the appointed time according to God's eternal purpose.

GOD DECLARES THE END FROM THE BEGINNING

"Declaring the end from the beginning... saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will accomplish all my purpose."

Isaiah 46:10

God is never surprised by history. He declares the end from the beginning because His purpose was already established before creation. History reveals what eternity had already settled.

HIS WORKS HAVE ALWAYS BEEN KNOWN

"Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world."

Acts 15:18

Every age, every administration, every feast, and every revelation unfolds according to God's eternal purpose. Nothing catches Him by surprise because His counsel stands forever.

THE ETERNAL PURPOSE IS JESUS CHRIST

"According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord."

Ephesians 3:11

EN

Jesus Christ is the center of God's eternal purpose. Every page of Scripture points toward Him. The Feast of Tabernacles is not an isolated doctrine—it is another revelation of the purpose God established before the foundation of the world.

CHAPTER SUMMARY

Before we study the Feast of Tabernacles, we must first establish God's eternal purpose. What was settled before the foundation of the world unfolds throughout the plan of the ages until God's purpose reaches its fullness in Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 2

THE PLAN OF THE AGES: God's Progressive Revelation

God's eternal purpose was established before the foundation of the world, but His purpose unfolds through the plan of the ages. The ages do not reveal a God changing His mind. They reveal a God progressively unveiling what He purposed from the beginning until all things are gathered together in Christ.

THE MYSTERY OF HIS WILL

"Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself: That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ..."

Ephesians 1:9–10

The plan of the ages is the unfolding of God's eternal purpose. What was hidden in eternity is progressively revealed in time. Every administration moves toward one conclusion—the gathering together of all things in Christ according to God's eternal purpose.

EN

THE AGES SERVE THE ETERNAL PURPOSE

"According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord."

Ephesians 3:11

Time exists to serve eternity. The ages were not created for their own sake but to accomplish what God purposed before the foundation of the world. Every covenant, every priesthood, every feast, and every administration becomes another step in the revelation of Jesus Christ.

GOD REVEALS HIS PURPOSE PROGRESSIVELY

"First the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear."

Mark 4:28

Jesus revealed that God's Kingdom develops progressively. The life of Christ unfolds from seed to harvest. God does not bypass growth. Every stage prepares for the next until the fullness of His purpose is revealed.

FROM GLORY TO GLORY

"But we all... are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord."

2 Corinthians 3:18

The Christian life is a continual unveiling of Jesus Christ. Every revelation produces another measure of transformation. God's purpose is not merely to inform His people but to conform them to the image of His Son.

EN

THIRTY, SIXTY, AND ONE HUNDREDFOLD

"But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold."

Matthew 13:8

Jesus described increasing measures of fruitfulness. Scripture consistently reveals progression rather than stagnation. God moves His people from one measure of maturity to another as His purpose unfolds throughout the ages.

MATURITY IS ALWAYS CONNECTED TO REVELATION

"For when for the time ye ought to be teachers... strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age."

Hebrews 5:12–14

God never intended His people to remain spiritual infants. As revelation increases, maturity increases. Every administration brings greater understanding, greater responsibility, and a greater capacity to reveal Christ.

EVERY AGE HAS ITS OWN MANDATE

"Unto whom much is given, of him shall much be required."

Luke 12:48

Every administration carries its own revelation, maturity, and mandate. God never requires from one age what He has reserved for another. Each age faithfully fulfills its purpose while preparing the way for the greater revelation that follows.

EN

THE THREE FEASTS REVEAL THE PLAN

"These are the feasts of the LORD... even holy convocations."

Leviticus 23:2

The Three Feasts reveal the progressive unfolding of God's purpose.

Passover reveals redemption.

Pentecost reveals growth, preparation, and ministry.

The Feast of Tabernacles reveals fullness.

Each feast builds upon the previous one until God's eternal purpose reaches its appointed fulfillment in Christ.

CHAPTER SUMMARY

The plan of the ages is the progressive revelation of God's eternal purpose. What was established before the foundation of the world unfolds through successive ages, increasing revelation, growing maturity, and expanding mandate until all things are gathered together in Christ. Understanding this progression prepares us to see how the Three Feasts reveal the unfolding purpose of God from redemption to fullness.

CHAPTER 3

THE THREE FEASTS OF GOD

God's eternal purpose unfolds progressively through the Three Feasts of God. These feasts were not merely Jewish celebrations or historical events. They were prophetic signs that revealed God's redemptive plan from beginning to end. Each feast unveils another dimension of Jesus Christ, another measure of maturity, and another stage in the unfolding of God's eternal purpose.

EN

THE FEASTS WERE APPOINTED BY GOD

"These are the feasts of the LORD, even holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons."

Leviticus 23:4

The feasts belong to the Lord. They were established by God as prophetic pictures of His eternal purpose. Each feast was appointed for its own season, revealing that God works according to divine order and perfect timing.

PASSOVER REVEALS REDEMPTION

"Christ our passover is sacrificed for us."

1 Corinthians 5:7

Passover reveals the foundation of redemption. The Lamb of God takes away the sin of the world, delivering mankind from the bondage of sin and death. Every journey with God begins at the cross. Without the blood of the Lamb, there is no entrance into God's redemptive purpose.

Passover establishes redemption, but redemption is the beginning of the journey, not its completion.

PENTECOST REVEALS PREPARATION

"And when the day of Pentecost was fully come..."

Acts 2:1

EN

Pentecost reveals the outpouring of the Holy Spirit and the beginning of a new administration. The Spirit empowers the Church, forms Christ within His people, and prepares a mature company through teaching, ministry, and spiritual growth.

The gifts of the Spirit, the ministry of the Spirit, and the growth of the believer all belong within this administration of preparation.

THE FIVEFOLD MINISTRY PREPARES THE SAINTS

"For the perfecting of the saints... till we all come... unto a perfect man."

Ephesians 4:11–13

The ministry gifts were given to equip the saints and bring God's people into maturity. Pentecost is not merely about receiving power; it is about being prepared. Christ is formed within His people as they grow from spiritual infancy into maturity.

Every administration has a revelation.

Every revelation produces maturity.

Every maturity prepares God's people for the next unfolding of God's purpose.

THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES REVEALS FULLNESS

"The feast of tabernacles... after that ye have gathered in the fruit of the land."

Leviticus 23:39

EN

The Feast of Tabernacles is the feast of fullness. It follows the harvest and points beyond preparation to completion. The prophetic vision of Tabernacles is not merely another beginning but the fulfillment toward which Passover and Pentecost have always been moving.

The first feast reveals redemption.

The second feast reveals preparation.

The third feast reveals fullness.

FROM FIRSTFRUITS TO FULL HARVEST

“We ourselves... which have the firstfruits of the Spirit... waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.”

Romans 8:23

Paul describes believers as possessing the firstfruits of the Spirit while still anticipating something greater. The firstfruits point toward the full harvest. God’s purpose continues moving toward the redemption of the body and the fullness of His work in creation.

The Feast of Tabernacles reveals that greater hope.

THE FEASTS REVEAL ONE ETERNAL PURPOSE

“That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ.”

Ephesians 1:10

EN

The Three Feasts are not separate purposes.

They are one purpose unfolding progressively.

Passover lays the foundation.

Pentecost builds the house.

The Feast of Tabernacles reveals the completed dwelling of God with His people.

Every feast reveals another dimension of Jesus Christ until God's eternal purpose reaches its appointed fulfillment.

CHAPTER SUMMARY

The Three Feasts reveal the progressive unfolding of God's eternal purpose. Passover establishes redemption. Pentecost prepares a mature people through the ministry of the Holy Spirit. The Feast of Tabernacles reveals the fullness of God's purpose as every stage of His redemptive plan moves toward its completion in Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 4

THE MATURE WOMAN

The Feast of Tabernacles reveals more than a feast. It reveals a prepared people. Throughout Scripture, God uses the picture of a woman to reveal His covenant people. As His purpose unfolds through the ages, that woman grows from immaturity to maturity until she is prepared to bring forth the fullness of Christ according to God's eternal purpose.

GOD PREPARES THE WOMAN

EN

“And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun... and she being with child cried, travailing in birth.”

Revelation 12:1–2

The woman does not appear suddenly. She is the result of God’s work throughout the ages. Clothed with the sun, crowned with twelve stars, and standing upon the moon, she represents a people who have been prepared by God’s dealings. She is no longer a spiritual infant. She has reached a state of maturity that enables her to conceive and bring forth according to God’s purpose.

CHRIST MUST BE FORMED WITHIN

“My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you.”

Galatians 4:19

Paul reveals the heart of the Pentecostal administration. The ministry of the Spirit is not simply to produce converts but to form Christ within His people. Spiritual maturity is measured by the degree to which Christ is revealed in the inner life.

Before there can be a birth, there must first be formation.

THE PERFECT MAN IS A PREPARED PEOPLE

“Till we all come... unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ.”

Ephesians 4:13

The ministry gifts were given to prepare God’s people for maturity. The goal is not

EN

ncy but growth into the measure appointed for that administration. God prepares a people capable of carrying greater revelation because every new administration requires greater spiritual capacity.

GOD ALWAYS PREPARES THE WINESKIN

"Neither do men put new wine into old bottles... but they put new wine into new bottles."

Matthew 9:17

Before God pours out greater fullness, He prepares the vessel that will receive it. Throughout Scripture, God prepares the wineskin before He pours the new wine. The mature woman represents that prepared vessel—a people whose hearts have been enlarged by grace to receive the next unfolding of God's purpose.

SPIRITUAL MATURITY CREATES CAPACITY

"Strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age."

Hebrews 5:14

God never entrusts greater responsibility to spiritual infancy. As maturity increases, capacity increases. Revelation produces growth, and growth prepares God's people for greater measures of His purpose. The mature woman is therefore a picture of spiritual capacity developed through God's dealings across the ages.

THE WOMAN TRAVAILS BEFORE THE BIRTH

"For as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children."

Isaiah 66:8

EN

Travail is not a sign of failure. It is the final preparation before birth. Throughout Scripture, God uses travail to describe the transition from promise to manifestation. The mature woman has reached the point where preparation gives way to fulfillment.

THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES REVEALS A PREPARED PEOPLE

“The Feast of Ingathering... at the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field.”

Exodus 23:16

The Feast of Tabernacles celebrates the completed harvest. It points beyond beginning and beyond preparation to the fullness of God’s work. Just as the harvest is gathered when it has reached maturity, the Feast reveals a people prepared through God’s eternal purpose for the next stage of His redemptive plan.

CHAPTER SUMMARY

The mature woman represents a people prepared by God’s eternal purpose through the plan of the ages. Christ has been formed within them, spiritual maturity has enlarged their capacity, and they stand ready to bring forth according to God’s appointed time. The Feast of Tabernacles reveals not only the fullness of Christ but also the prepared vessel through whom God’s purpose continues to unfold.

CHAPTER 5

THE BIRTH OF THE MAN-CHILD

EN

The mature woman is not the end of God’s purpose. She has been prepared to bring forth. Throughout Scripture, God prepares the vessel before He reveals a greater measure of His glory. The birth of the man-child reveals the transition from preparation to manifestation and marks the unfolding of another stage in God's eternal purpose.

THE MAN-CHILD IS BROUGHT FORTH

"And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne."

Revelation 12:5

The birth of the man-child reveals that God's work of preparation has reached its appointed season. The woman has fulfilled her purpose by bringing forth what she has carried. The emphasis is no longer upon preparation but upon manifestation, authority, and the purpose of God moving forward.

GOD ALWAYS BRINGS FORTH IN HIS APPOINTED TIME

"But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son..."

Galatians 4:4

God never moves prematurely. Every manifestation in Scripture comes in the fullness of God's appointed time. Just as Christ appeared in the fullness of time, every stage of God's purpose unfolds according to His eternal counsel and perfect order.

FIRST THE PREPARATION, THEN THE MANIFESTATION blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear."

EN

Jesus revealed that God's Kingdom unfolds progressively. The full ear never appears before the seed has matured. Every stage prepares for the next. The birth of the man-child follows the same divine pattern. Preparation comes first. Manifestation follows.

FROM TRAVAIL TO BIRTH

"As soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children."

Isaiah 66:8

Travail is not the destination. Travail prepares for birth. Throughout Scripture, God's people move from promise to fulfillment through seasons of preparation until His purpose is brought forth in His appointed time.

THE BIRTH REVEALS A NEW ADMINISTRATION

"The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ..."

Revelation 11:15

Throughout the Bible, God marks new stages of His purpose with new administrations. As His purpose unfolds, greater revelation brings greater responsibility and a broader manifestation of His Kingdom. The birth points beyond preparation toward a new stage in God's redemptive plan.

THE THRONE REVEALS DIVINE AUTHORITY

EN

"Her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne."

Revelation 12:5

The throne represents God's authority and government. Throughout Scripture, God's purpose is never merely to reveal power but to establish His righteous rule. The throne reminds us that every stage of maturity ultimately serves the manifestation of God's Kingdom.

THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES POINTS TO FULLNESS

"The Feast of Tabernacles... after that ye have gathered in the fruit of the land."

Leviticus 23:39

The Feast of Tabernacles celebrates the completed harvest. It points beyond firstfruits to fullness, beyond preparation to completion. The birth of the man-child is presented within this larger movement of God's eternal purpose toward the fullness revealed in the Feast of Tabernacles.

CHAPTER SUMMARY

The birth of the man-child reveals the transition from preparation to manifestation. God prepares His people, brings forth according to His appointed time, and continues unfolding His eternal purpose through successive stages of revelation. The Feast of Tabernacles points toward this fullness as God's purpose moves from promise to manifestation and from preparation to completion.

CHAPTER 6

EN

THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES: The Fullness of Christ

The Feast of Tabernacles is the great feast of fullness. It stands as the climax of God's unfolding purpose through the ages. What began in God's eternal purpose before the foundation of the world, and what was progressively revealed through Passover and Pentecost, now points toward the fullness of Christ.

THE FEAST OF INGATHERING

"Also in the fifteenth day of the seventh month... when ye have gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep a feast unto the LORD seven days."

Leviticus 23:39

The Feast of Tabernacles was celebrated after the harvest had been gathered. It was the feast of ingathering, rejoicing, and completion. This order is significant. God reveals that fullness follows harvest, and completion follows preparation. The Feast of Tabernacles celebrates the completion of what God has been bringing forth through His eternal purpose.

WE POSSESS THE FIRSTFRUITS WHILE LOOKING FOR FULLNESS

"And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits of the Spirit... waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body."

Romans 8:23

Paul describes a people who possess the firstfruits of the Spirit while still anticipating something greater. The firstfruits are real, but they point beyond themselves. They

EN

...e for the full harvest. The Feast of Tabernacles directs our attention to the completion of God's work and the fullness toward which His purpose has always been moving.

THE WHOLE CREATION WAITS

"For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God."

Romans 8:19

Paul widens the vision beyond the individual believer. The whole creation is portrayed as longing for the fulfillment of God's purpose. The Feast of Tabernacles reaches beyond personal experience and points toward the restoration of creation under the reign of Jesus Christ.

CHRIST FILLS ALL THINGS

"He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things."

Ephesians 4:10

The goal of God's eternal purpose is the fullness of Christ. His work is not limited to one people or one generation. Scripture consistently presents Christ as filling all things according to the Father's purpose. The Feast of Tabernacles celebrates the increasing manifestation of that fullness.

FROM GLORY TO GLORY UNTIL FULLNESS

"But we all... are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord."

2 Corinthians 3:18

EN

God's purpose unfolds progressively. Every revelation of Christ brings another measure of transformation. The Feast of Tabernacles stands as the prophetic picture of the fullness toward which this transforming work has always been directed.

THE FULLNESS OF TIMES

"That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ."

Ephesians 1:10

Paul describes a divinely appointed fullness of times in which God's eternal purpose reaches its great objective. The Feast of Tabernacles fits naturally within this vision of fullness, gathering, and completion. The One who established His purpose before the foundation of the world faithfully brings that purpose toward its appointed fulfillment.

GOD DWELLS WITH HIS PEOPLE

"Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them."

Revelation 21:3

The name "Tabernacles" itself reminds us of God's desire to dwell with His people. From Genesis to Revelation, Scripture moves toward the promise of God's presence fully manifested. The Feast of Tabernacles celebrates not only harvest but communion, fellowship, and the abiding presence of God among His people.

CHAPTER SUMMARY

The Feast of Tabernacles reveals the fullness of Christ and the completion of God's unfolding purpose. What was established before the foundation of the world, gressively through the plan of the ages, and foreshadowed in Passover and Pentecost, now points toward the fullness of God's purpose as Christ fills all things and God dwells with His people.

EN

CHAPTER 7

MATURITY, MANDATE, AND ADMINISTRATION

God never gives a mandate without first preparing the vessel to carry it. Throughout Scripture, every administration is accompanied by a measure of revelation, a level of spiritual maturity, and a divine assignment. As God's eternal purpose unfolds, revelation increases, maturity grows, and the mandate expands until His purpose reaches its fullness in Jesus Christ.

GOD WORKS THROUGH DIFFERENT ADMINISTRATIONS

"Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit..."

2 Corinthians 3:6

Throughout the Scriptures, God reveals His purpose through different administrations. Each administration serves the eternal purpose established before the foundation of the world. God never abandons His purpose; He progressively unfolds it according to His appointed times and seasons.

EVERY ADMINISTRATION HAS A MANDATE

EN

"Unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required."

Luke 12:48

Every administration carries its own responsibility. God never requires from one generation what He has reserved for another. As revelation increases, so does responsibility. Greater light brings a greater calling because every administration is designed to accomplish its appointed work within God's unfolding purpose.

SPIRITUAL MATURITY PRECEDES GREATER RESPONSIBILITY

"Strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age..."

Hebrews 5:14

God prepares His people before entrusting them with greater responsibility. Spiritual maturity is not measured merely by knowledge but by the capacity to receive and faithfully carry a greater revelation of Jesus Christ. Growth is always connected to purpose.

THE MINISTRY PREPARES THE SAINTS

"And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; For the perfecting of the saints..."

Ephesians 4:11-12

The ministry gifts were given to prepare God's people. Their purpose is to equip, strengthen, and build the Body of Christ so that believers grow into spiritual maturity. Preparation is never the final destination; it equips God's people for the next unfolding of God's eternal purpose.

EN

GOD ALWAYS PREPARES BEFORE HE ENTRUSTS

"Thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things."

Matthew 25:21

Throughout Scripture, faithfulness precedes greater responsibility. God develops character before enlarging influence. The pattern is consistent: preparation comes before promotion, maturity before greater stewardship, and growth before expanded responsibility.

THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES REVEALS THE FULLNESS OF THE MANDATE

"The Feast of Tabernacles... after that ye have gathered in the fruit of the land."

Leviticus 23:39

The Feast of Tabernacles points beyond preparation to completion. It reveals the fullness of God's purpose after the harvest has reached maturity. The feast reminds us that God's work is moving toward completion according to the eternal purpose He established before the foundation of the world.

GOD'S PURPOSE MOVES TOWARD FULLNESS

"Till we all come... unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ."

4:13

EN

The goal of every administration is Christ. Every revelation, every ministry, every season of growth, and every divine assignment moves toward the fullness of Christ. God's eternal purpose is not fragmented into separate plans but unfolds as one continuous revelation centered in His Son.

CHAPTER SUMMARY

God's eternal purpose unfolds through successive administrations. Each administration carries its own revelation, maturity, and mandate. As God's people grow in spiritual maturity, He entrusts them with greater responsibility, always moving toward the fullness revealed in Jesus Christ. The Feast of Tabernacles stands as the prophetic picture of that fullness, where God's purpose reaches its appointed completion.

CHAPTER 8

THE ETERNAL PURPOSE FULFILLED

The Bible begins with God's eternal purpose before the foundation of the world and ends with that same purpose fully manifested in Jesus Christ. The Feast of Tabernacles reveals the completion of the journey. What God purposed before creation is progressively revealed through the ages until every enemy is subdued, every promise is fulfilled, and God is all in all.

THE FULLNESS OF TIMES

"That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him."

Ephesians 1:10

EN

The eternal purpose of God has always moved toward one glorious objective—the gathering together of all things in Christ. The Feast of Tabernacles reveals this fullness. God’s purpose is not divided into many unrelated plans but unfolds through one continuous revelation until everything finds its fulfillment in His Son.

EVERY ENEMY SHALL BE SUBDUED

“For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.”

1 Corinthians 15:25–26

The reign of Christ is purposeful. Every enemy is brought into subjection until the final enemy, death itself, is destroyed. The Feast of Tabernacles points beyond preparation to the complete triumph of God’s eternal purpose as life overcomes death and Christ reigns without rival.

THEN COMES THE END

“Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father... that God may be all in all.”

1 Corinthians 15:24, 28

Paul brings the story of redemption to its glorious conclusion. God’s eternal purpose reaches its fulfillment when the Kingdom is presented to the Father and God is all in all. The journey that began before the foundation of the world reaches its appointed completion in the fullness of His purpose.

THE TABERNACLE OF GOD IS WITH MEN

“Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and EN be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their

God.”

Revelation 21:3

From Genesis to Revelation, God has desired to dwell with His people. The Feast of Tabernacles celebrates this abiding reality. God’s presence is no longer pictured in temporary shadows but in the fullness of His dwelling among His creation according to His eternal purpose.

BEHOLD, I MAKE ALL THINGS NEW

“And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new.”

Revelation 21:5

The conclusion of God’s purpose is not abandonment but renewal. The One who declared the end from the beginning now declares the completion of His work. The new creation stands as the testimony that God’s eternal purpose has never failed.

THE KNOWLEDGE OF THE GLORY OF THE LORD

“For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.”

Habakkuk 2:14

The prophets looked beyond their own generation and saw the earth filled with the knowledge of God’s glory. The Feast of Tabernacles celebrates this vision of fullness. What began as promise reaches manifestation as God’s glory fills His creation.

GOD’S COUNSEL SHALL STAND

EN

"My counsel shall stand, and I will accomplish all my purpose."

Isaiah 46:10

The final testimony of Scripture is the same as its beginning. God's purpose cannot fail because it rests upon His own counsel. The eternal purpose established before the foundation of the world reaches its appointed fulfillment exactly as He declared from the beginning.

CHAPTER SUMMARY

The Feast of Tabernacles reveals the fulfillment of God's eternal purpose. What was established before the foundation of the world unfolds through the plan of the ages, is progressively revealed through the Three Feasts, and reaches its appointed fullness in Jesus Christ. Every enemy is subdued, every promise is fulfilled, every purpose is accomplished, and God becomes all in all. The story of Scripture begins with God's eternal purpose and ends with that eternal purpose gloriously fulfilled.

CONCLUSION

The Feast of Tabernacles is far more than an Old Testament feast. It is the prophetic testimony of God's eternal purpose brought to its appointed fullness.

Before the foundation of the world, God established His purpose in Christ. Before there was a creation, He had already determined the end from the beginning. Throughout the plan of the ages, He progressively unfolded that purpose through covenants, priesthoods, feasts, prophets, apostles, and the revelation of His Son. Nothing in Scripture stands alone. Every promise, every prophecy, and every administration finds its place within God's eternal purpose.

Passover revealed redemption.

EN

vealed preparation.

The Feast of Tabernacles reveals fullness.

The mature woman reveals a prepared people.

The birth of the man-child reveals the next unfolding of God's purpose.

The fullness of Christ reveals the completion toward which every previous administration has been moving.

From Genesis to Revelation, the testimony is one. The Bible is not the story of many competing purposes but the revelation of one eternal purpose centered in Jesus Christ. The same God who chose us in Christ before the foundation of the world is faithfully bringing His purpose to completion according to the counsel of His own will.

The Feast of Tabernacles therefore calls us to lift our eyes beyond beginnings and behold the fullness of God's purpose. It reminds us that God's work is moving toward completion, His promises cannot fail, His counsel shall stand, and His eternal purpose will be fulfilled exactly as He declared.

Our confidence is not in human ability.

Our confidence is not in religious effort.

Our confidence rests entirely in the finished work of Jesus Christ and in the God who declared:

"My counsel shall stand, and I will accomplish all my purpose."

Isaiah 46:10

May the Holy Spirit continue to reveal Jesus Christ through the Scriptures, establish our hearts in God's eternal purpose, and open our eyes to behold the glory of the

EN

Tabernacles as the great feast of fullness, where every promise finds its "Amen" in Christ.

Continue Your Journey

If this study has encouraged you to see God's eternal purpose more clearly, we invite you to continue exploring the Scriptures through the resources of The Finished Work of Christ ministry.

All of our books, teaching series, videos, and study resources are provided to proclaim Jesus Christ, the finished work of the cross, the Gospel of Grace, God's Eternal Purpose, and the unfolding Plan of the Ages.

Free Online Library:

<https://www.thefinishedworkofchrist.com>

The Finished Work of Christ TV

Watch biblical teaching and prophetic studies dedicated to revealing Jesus Christ from Genesis to Revelation.

May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ continue to reveal His purpose in your heart until "the knowledge of the glory of the Lord covers the earth as the waters cover the sea."

EN

EN

Feast of Tabernacles Series:

1. THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES — THE FEAST OF FULLNESS
2. THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES — What Is the Vision of Tabernacles?
3. THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES: The Day That the Feast of Tabernacles Fully Comes
4. THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES: The Redemption of the Body
5. THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES: The Groaning of the Sons of God, the Full Adoption, and the Redemption of the Body

Leave a Reply

Logged in as Carl Timothy Wray. Edit your profile. Log out? Required fields are marked *

Comment *

Post Comment

Connect With Zion University

EN

share the cross every channel — the voice of Zion is sounding to all nations.

 Website

 YouTube

 Facebook

 Instagram

 TikTok

 Pinterest

 Medium

 LinkedIn

 Archive.org

© 2026 THE FINISHED WORK OF CHRIST - WordPress Theme by Kadence WP

EN