The Gospel of Grace: AUTHOR

By Carl Timothy Wray

Carl Timothy Wray is a prophetic teacher and author devoted to unveiling the full counsel of God from Genesis to Revelation. His writings center on the Finished Work of Christ, the Gospel of Grace, and the revelation of Christ as all in all. Through a bold, scripture-saturated approach, he dismantles fear-based theology and reveals the present reign, authority, and completion of Christ over all things.

Every book is written to awaken the reader to truth, establish identity in Christ, and bring clarity where religion has created confusion. His work is not built on partial interpretation, but on the unified mind of God—revealing that what God began, He has already secured, and what He secured, He is bringing to fullness.

The Gospel of Grace — Not a God Trying to Take Control, but a Christ Who Already Has It reveals the present authority of Jesus Christ over heaven and earth through the full counsel of Scripture. This book answers critical questions such as who governs the world right now, why chaos is limited, why the world has not collapsed, and whether Jesus is reigning today or in the future. By anchoring every truth in Scripture from Genesis to Revelation, it shows that Christ is not reacting to events but sustaining, governing, and bringing all things to completion. This teaching reframes sovereignty, authority, and grace into a unified revelation of Christ's finished work actively unfolding in the earth.

 The Gospel of Grace: INTRODUCTION — THE WORLD YOU SEE IS NOT THE WORLD THAT IS

The world appears unstable.

Nations rise and fall. Systems shake. Darkness seems to increase.

Every headline, every crisis, every shifting structure whispers the same question:

Is everything spinning out of control?

Religion has answered that question with uncertainty.

It has painted a picture of a God who is watching, waiting, and at times reacting—stepping into history to fix what has gone wrong, restraining evil for a moment, only for it to break loose again. A God trying to regain control of a world slipping through His hands.

But that picture is not the testimony of Scripture.

The Word does not reveal a God trying to take control.

It reveals a Christ who already has it.

“All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.”

That is not a future promise.

That is a present reality.

This changes everything.

If Christ already has all authority:

- Then nothing is operating outside His dominion
- Nothing is progressing beyond His boundaries
- Nothing is unfolding apart from His purpose

What you are seeing in the earth is not chaos without control.

It is chaos within limits.

What you are witnessing is not a system collapsing.

EN

being brought to completion.

The shaking is real—but it is not random.

The darkness is visible—but it is not sovereign.

The pressure is increasing—but it is not without purpose.

There is a throne above it all.

And from that throne, Christ is not reacting—He is governing.

“Upholding all things by the word of His power.”

Not some things.

Not spiritual things only.

All things.

This book will take you on a journey through the full counsel of God to reveal a truth that has been hidden under layers of fear, tradition, and partial understanding:

God is not trying to take control of the world.

Christ already has it.

And everything—every nation, every system, every moment in time—is moving within His authority toward a determined and glorious completion.

This is the Gospel of Grace.

Not uncertainty.

Not fear.

EN

NOT DELAY.

But a finished work—actively governing, sustaining, and bringing all things into fullness.

CHAPTER 1 — THE LIE OF A GOD TRYING TO TAKE CONTROL

DEFINITION — THE ORIGIN OF THE MISUNDERSTANDING

There is a subtle belief that has quietly shaped much of modern theology:

That God is responding to the world...
instead of ruling it.

This belief paints a picture of a God who:

- Watches events unfold
- Steps in when things get too bad
- Attempts to restrain evil
- Works to bring things back under control

It sounds reasonable.

It even sounds spiritual.

But it is not what Scripture reveals.

The Bible does not present a God who is trying to take control.

EN

God who has never lost it.

“But our God is in the heavens: he hath done whatsoever he hath pleased.” —
Psalm 115:3

From the beginning, God is not reacting to events—He is declaring them.

“Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done...” — Isaiah 46:10

This is not the language of reaction.

This is the language of sovereignty.

REVELATION — GOD IS NOT RESPONDING, HE IS REVEALING

If God declares the end from the beginning, then nothing that unfolds in time is catching Him off guard.

Nothing surprises Him.

Nothing interrupts Him.

Nothing forces Him to adjust His plan.

“I know that thou canst do every thing, and that no thought can be withholden from thee.” — Job 42:2

The idea of God “trying” to take control introduces weakness into His nature.

Trying implies:

EN

- A future He cannot overcome
- A future He cannot guarantee
- A future He is still working to secure

But Scripture never uses that language.

Instead, it reveals a God whose works are already established.

“I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it...” — Ecclesiastes 3:14

That means:

- God is not attempting to secure the future
- He has already established it
- And time is the unfolding of what He has declared

What appears as unfolding events in the earth is actually revealed purpose in motion.

REVELATION DEEPENS — THE ROOT OF THE LIE

Why does this lie persist?

Because when man sees chaos, he assumes lack of control.

When man sees darkness, he assumes absence of authority.

When man sees delay, he assumes incomplete victory.

But man is interpreting through sight—not through the Word.

EN

“Do not stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?” — Daniel 4:35

The truth is this:

What looks like disorder is actually contained movement.

What looks like delay is actually timed unfolding.

What looks like chaos is actually limited operation.

God is not trying to stop the world from falling apart.

He is governing it as it moves toward completion.

DECLARATION — THE END OF A WEAK GOD

God is not in a battle trying to gain control.

He is not competing with darkness.

He is not reacting to evil.

He is not adjusting His plan.

He is not hoping things turn out right.

☛ He has already spoken.

☛ He has already established.

☛ He has already secured.

And what He has spoken is unfolding in time.

The idea of a struggling God must fall.

EN

a reigning Christ must rise.

CALL TO ACTION — STEP OUT OF FEAR AND INTO REVELATION

If you have believed that God is trying to take control...

Then you have been living in uncertainty without knowing it.

Because a God who is trying is a God who might fail.

But a Christ who already has all power leaves no room for fear.

This is your invitation:

- ☞ Lay down the image of a reacting God
- ☞ Receive the revelation of a reigning Christ

Step into the truth that:

- The world is not out of control
- Your life is not outside His authority
- And nothing is unfolding beyond His hand

Everything is moving within His power toward His completion.

THE GOSPEL OF GRACE AND GOD'S

EN

OL

This chapter establishes the foundation of The Gospel of Grace — Not a God Trying to Take Control, but a Christ Who Already Has It by addressing the core question: Is God trying to control the world, or is He already in control? Through scriptures like Isaiah 46:10, Psalm 115:3, and Ecclesiastes 3:14, it reveals that God is not reacting to chaos but governing all things. This teaching reframes fear-based theology and establishes the truth that Jesus Christ already has all authority, and the world is operating within His divine plan, not outside of it.

CHAPTER 2 — THE THRONE BEFORE THE FOUNDATION

DEFINITION — AUTHORITY DID NOT BEGIN IN TIME

Most people think of God's rule as something that unfolds within history.

As if:

- Creation began...
- Man fell...
- And then God began working out a plan to recover what was lost

But Scripture reveals something far greater.

God's authority did not begin in time.

It existed before time ever started.

“According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world...” —

EN

1:4

“Who hath saved us... according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began.” — 2 Timothy 1:9

Before there was:

- A world
- A fall
- A problem

There was already:

- A purpose
- A plan
- A throne

God is not building authority.

He is revealing what was already established.

REVELATION — THE LAMB AND THE THRONE WERE FIRST

Before creation, there was no crisis.

Yet Scripture says:

“The Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.” — Revelation 13:8

This means redemption was not God’s reaction to sin.

EN

f His eternal counsel.

Before man fell, the answer already existed.
Before sin appeared, grace was already given.
Before time began, the outcome was already secured.

This changes everything.

It means:

- God did not create a world and hope it would succeed
- He created a world inside a finished purpose

“The LORD hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and his kingdom ruleth over all.” — Psalm 103:19

The throne did not appear after the fall.

The throne was already ruling before anything began.

---

⚔ REVELATION DEEPENS — TIME IS NOT CONTROL, IT IS REVELATION

Time is often misunderstood.

People think time is where God:

- Tries
- Adjusts
- Responds

But it is not where God gains control.

Time is where God reveals what He has already determined.

“Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world.” — Acts 15:18

That means:

- Nothing is being discovered
- Nothing is being decided on the fly
- Nothing is being figured out as it unfolds

Everything is unfolding from what is already known.

Creation is not an experiment.

It is a manifestation.

---

THE THRONE IS NOT THREATENED

If the throne existed before the foundation of the world...

Then nothing within the world can threaten it.

Not sin.

Not darkness.

Not rebellion.

Not time itself.

“For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things...” — Romans 11:36

EN

originates from Him.

Everything moves through Him.

Everything returns to Him.

That is not fragile authority.

That is absolute dominion.

DECLARATION — BEFORE IT BEGAN, IT WAS SET

Before the first day... it was finished in purpose.

Before the first breath... it was secured in Christ.

Before the first failure... it was answered in grace.

- ☞ The throne was not built in response
- ☞ The Lamb was not slain in reaction
- ☞ The plan was not formed in time

It was all established before the foundation of the world.

What you are watching unfold in time is not God trying to take control—

It is God revealing what was already His.

CALL TO ACTION — COME OUT OF TIME-BOUND THINKING

If you believe God is gaining control over time...

Then you will always live in uncertainty.

Because the outcome depends on what has not happened yet.

But if you see that:

- ☞ The throne was established before time
- ☞ The Lamb was slain before the fall
- ☞ The purpose was secured before creation

Then you will understand:

Nothing happening now is outside of what was already determined.

This is your invitation:

- Step out of reaction-based thinking
- Step into eternal purpose
- See time not as uncertainty... but as revelation

You are not waiting to see what God will do.

You are witnessing what He has already decided.

THE GOSPEL OF GRACE AND GOD'S ETERNAL PLAN

This chapter reveals that God's authority and plan were established before the foundation of the world, answering key questions about whether God is reacting to events or governing from an eternal throne. Through scriptures like Ephesians 1:4, Revelation 13:8, Acts 15:18, and Psalm 103:19, it shows that the Gospel of Grace is not a response to sin but an eternal purpose revealed in time. This teaching that Christ's authority did not begin after the resurrection but was rooted in God's eternal counsel, and all things are unfolding according to a plan that was already complete before creation began.

CHAPTER 3 — CREATION GOVERNED, NOT RELEASED

DEFINITION — THE WORLD WAS NEVER SET LOOSE

Many imagine creation like this:

God created the world...
set it in motion...
and allowed it to run freely.

As if the earth operates like a system released from His hands—occasionally intervened upon, but largely independent.

That is not the testimony of Scripture.

Creation was never released.

It was established, framed, and sustained under authority from the very beginning.

| "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth." — Genesis 1:1

Creation does not begin with chaos in control.

EN

h God speaking over chaos.

“And God said...” — Genesis 1:3

From the first moment, the pattern is clear:

- ☞ God speaks
- ☞ Creation responds
- ☞ Order is established

This is not a system left alone.

This is a system governed by His Word.

---

🔥 REVELATION — THE WORD DID NOT JUST CREATE, IT CONTINUES

Creation did not only come into existence by the Word.

It continues by the same Word.

“By the word of the LORD were the heavens made... for he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.” — Psalm 33:6,9

Notice this:

It did not just come into being.

☞ It stood fast.

That means:

Creation did not drift after being formed

- It did not begin to operate independently
- It remained fixed within what He commanded

“Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God...”
— Hebrews 11:3

“Framed” means:

- Set in order
- Established with boundaries
- Held within structure

Creation is not free-form.

It is framed reality.

REVELATION DEEPENS — BOUNDARIES ARE BUILT INTO CREATION

From the beginning, God did not just create things—He set limits.

Light was separated from darkness.

Waters were divided from waters.

Seasons were established.

Cycles were fixed.

“While the earth remaineth, seedtime and harvest... shall not cease.” — Genesis 8:22

That is not suggestion.

EN

That is decree.

“Fear ye not me?... which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea... though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail.” — Jeremiah 5:22

The sea can rage...

But it cannot cross its boundary.

That is the nature of creation:

- 👉 Movement without independence
- 👉 Activity without autonomy
- 👉 Expression within limits

Nothing in creation operates outside what God has already defined.

CREATION IS NOT SELF-SUSTAINING

If creation were released, it would collapse.

If it were independent, it would fail.

But it continues.

Why?

Because it is not holding itself together.

“And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.” — Colossians 1:17

“Consist” means:

EN

- 👉 Held together
- 👉 Sustained
- 👉 Prevented from falling apart

Creation is not surviving.

It is being sustained.

DECLARATION — NOTHING WAS EVER OUTSIDE HIS HAND

The earth was never released into uncertainty.
Creation was never left to chance.
The world was never given independent control.

- 👉 It was spoken into order
- 👉 Framed by His Word
- 👉 Bound by His limits
- 👉 Sustained by His power

From the first moment until now—

Everything has remained within His authority.

What you see moving...

is not freedom from God.

It is movement within God.

CALL TO ACTION — SEE CREATION CORRECTLY

If you see the world as released...

You will always feel instability.

Because anything released can fall apart.

But if you see creation as governed...

Then everything changes.

- ☞ The shaking has limits
- ☞ The chaos has boundaries
- ☞ The systems have constraints

Nothing is operating outside His Word.

This is your invitation:

- Stop viewing the world as uncontrolled
- Stop interpreting chaos as independence
- Start seeing everything through the lens of governance

The earth is not drifting.

It is being held.

THE GOSPEL OF GRACE AND GOD'S CONTROL OF CREATION

This chapter reveals that creation was never released to operate independently but was established, framed, and sustained by the Word of God. Through scriptures like Genesis 1:1–3, Psalm 33:6–9, Hebrews 11:3, Jeremiah 5:22, and Colossians 1:17, it shows that the world operates within divine boundaries, not outside of them. The Gospel of Grace reveals that God is not reacting to creation but actively governing and sustaining it, ensuring that chaos, nature, and time itself remain under His authority and move toward His intended completion.

CHAPTER 4 — THE BOUNDARIES OF CHAOS

DEFINITION — CHAOS IS REAL, BUT IT IS NOT SOVEREIGN

Chaos is visible.

Storms rage. Nations shake. Evil manifests.

Darkness appears to advance, and disorder seems to spread.

And from that observation, many draw a conclusion:

If chaos exists... then control must be slipping.

But Scripture draws a different conclusion.

Chaos is not proof of lost authority.

EN

of of limited operation.

“Who is he that saith, and it cometh to pass, when the Lord commandeth it not?”
— Lamentations 3:37

Nothing manifests independently.
Nothing comes to pass outside His command.

This means chaos is not free.

It is contained.

REVELATION — THE LIMITS OF DARKNESS

God does not deny the existence of darkness.

He defines its boundaries.

“I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these things.” — Isaiah 45:7

This does not mean God becomes evil.

It means nothing—light or darkness—exists outside His authority.

Darkness is not competing with God.

It is operating within limits He has already set.

---

REVELATION DEEPENS — “NO FURTHER”

picture of this is found in Job:

“Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further: and here shall thy proud waves be stayed.” — Job 38:11

The waves roar.

They rise.

They crash.

They appear unstoppable.

But there is a line they cannot cross.

That line is not natural.

It is divine.

“Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over...” — Psalm 104:9

This is the nature of chaos:

- ☞ It moves—but within limits
- ☞ It rises—but under restriction
- ☞ It manifests—but not beyond command

EVIL IS LIMITED, NOT LOOSE

The same principle applies to temptation and evil.

“There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful... will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able...” — 1 Corinthians 10:13

EN

Even temptation has boundaries.

Even pressure has limits.

Even darkness is measured.

Nothing is allowed to exceed what has been determined.

This means:

- Evil is not expanding freely
- Darkness is not growing unchecked
- Chaos is not escalating without restraint

Everything is operating within divinely enforced limits.

WHAT YOU ARE SEEING IS NOT CHAOS WITHOUT CONTROL

When the earth shakes, people assume collapse.

When systems break, people assume failure.

When evil increases, people assume loss of control.

But what you are seeing is not chaos without control.

It is controlled exposure.

“For he maketh the storm a calm... so he bringeth them unto their desired haven.” — Psalm 107:29–30

EN

... does not define the outcome.

God does.

Chaos is not writing the story.

It is being used within the story.

DECLARATION — CHAOS HAS A LINE IT CANNOT CROSS

Chaos is not king.

Darkness is not sovereign.

Evil is not in control.

-  It is limited
-  It is measured
-  It is contained

There is a line drawn by God Himself:

“Thus far... and no further.”

Everything that moves in the earth moves within that boundary.

CALL TO ACTION — STOP FEARING WHAT IS ALREADY LIMITED

If you see chaos as unlimited...

You will live in fear of what it might become.

But if you see chaos as bounded...

You will walk in confidence of what it cannot do.

This is your invitation:

- 👉 Stop magnifying darkness
- 👉 Stop fearing escalation
- 👉 Start seeing limitation

The storm may rage...

But it cannot cross the line God has set.

THE GOSPEL OF GRACE AND THE LIMITS OF EVIL

This chapter answers the question: if God is in control, why does chaos and evil still exist? Through scriptures like Job 38:11, Isaiah 45:7, Lamentations 3:37, 1 Corinthians 10:13, and Psalm 104:9, it reveals that chaos is not sovereign but limited by God's authority. The Gospel of Grace shows that evil is not operating freely in the world but is contained within divine boundaries, proving that God is not reacting to chaos but governing it, ensuring that nothing exceeds His command or purpose.

CHAPTER 5 — THE GOVERNMENT OF GOD OVER NATIONS

---

DEFINITION — NATIONS ARE NOT SELF-RULING

When men look at the world, they see governments, leaders, elections, conflicts, and alliances—and they assume:

Kings appear to rise by strategy.

Leaders seem to gain power by influence.

Empires look like they expand by strength.

But Scripture does not present a world of independent rule.

It reveals a world of delegated positioning under divine government.

“The most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will...” — Daniel 4:17

That means:

- No ruler rises outside His allowance
- No throne exists outside His order
- No nation operates beyond His boundaries

The earth is not politically independent.

It is spiritually governed.

KINGS

RELATION — HE SETS UP AND REMOVES

God is not watching history unfold.

He is directing its structure.

“He changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings...” — Daniel 2:21

This is not influence.

This is authority.

Leaders do not ultimately determine history.

They fulfill positions within it.

“Promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west... but God is the judge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another.” — Psalm 75:6–7

Even when it appears political...

It is still providential.

REVELATION DEEPENS — THE HEART OF A KING IS NOT HIS OWN

One of the clearest revelations of divine government is this:

“The king’s heart is in the hand of the LORD... he turneth it whithersoever he will.”
— Proverbs 21:1

EN

- Decisions are not purely human
- Outcomes are not purely strategic
- Directions are not purely political

Even the highest human authority operates within a higher authority.

God does not need to remove every ruler to govern.

He can direct even those in position.

---

BOUNDARIES APPOINTED FOR NATIONS

Nations are not just raised up—they are measured.

“And hath made of one blood all nations of men... and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation.” — Acts 17:26

This means:

- ☞ Nations have appointed times
- ☞ Nations have defined boundaries
- ☞ Nations have measured influence

Empires do not expand endlessly.

Kingdoms do not rule indefinitely.

Everything is:

- Timed
- Measured

ed

GOVERNMENT WITHOUT CHAOS

From the outside, the world looks unstable:

Wars.

Elections.

Shifting power.

Global tension.

But what appears chaotic is actually structured movement.

“For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.” —
Romans 13:1

This does not mean every action is righteous.

It means every authority exists within God’s framework.

Nothing is outside the system of His government.

DECLARATION — THE THRONES OF MEN SIT UNDER A HIGHER THRONE

No king rules independently.

No government operates freely.

No nation moves outside His will.

- Thrones exist—but under His throne
- Authority exists—but under His authority
- Rule exists—but under His rule

The kingdoms of this world are not competing with God.

They are operating within what He has already established.

CALL TO ACTION — COME OUT OF FEAR OF WORLD EVENTS

If you see nations as uncontrolled...

Then every headline becomes a threat.

Every election becomes fear.

Every war becomes uncertainty.

But if you see nations as governed...

Everything changes.

- ☞ Nothing rises beyond its boundary
- ☞ Nothing remains beyond its time
- ☞ Nothing moves outside His hand

This is your invitation:

- Stop fearing global events
- Stop interpreting the world through instability
- Start seeing everything through divine government

The world is not out of order.

It is under authority.

THE GOSPEL OF GRACE AND GOD'S CONTROL OVER NATIONS

This chapter answers the question of who governs the nations and whether world leaders operate independently of God. Through scriptures like Daniel 2:21, Daniel 4:17, Proverbs 21:1, Acts 17:26, Psalm 75:6–7, and Romans 13:1, it reveals that all authority in the earth is established, limited, and directed by God. The Gospel of Grace shows that nations, rulers, and global events are not outside of divine control but are operating within appointed times and boundaries, proving that God is actively governing history and bringing it toward completion.

CHAPTER 6 — ALL POWER GIVEN TO CHRIST

DEFINITION — THE MOMENT AUTHORITY WAS DECLARED

Everything in this book has been building to this truth:

God governs.

Creation is sustained.

Chaos is limited.

Nations are ordered.

But where is that authority revealed in its fullness?

In Jesus Christ.

Not partially.

Not progressively.

y.

Fully.

“And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth.” — Matthew 28:18

This is not a suggestion.

This is a declaration.

REVELATION — ALL MEANS ALL

This verse is often quoted...

...but rarely believed in its fullness.

“All power” means:

- ☞ No authority exists outside Him
- ☞ No realm operates beyond Him
- ☞ No force functions independently of Him

Heaven is included.

Earth is included.

Nothing is excluded.

“And hath put all things under his feet...” — Ephesians 1:22

“For in him dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power.” — Colossians 2:9–10

 EN

Not some powers.

Not most powers.

All principality and power.

REVELATION DEEPENS — AUTHORITY REVEALED, NOT CREATED

Jesus did not gain authority like a man earns promotion.

He revealed authority that was already rooted in God.

“Thou hast given him power over all flesh...” — John 17:2

The resurrection did not introduce authority.

It manifested it openly.

“Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him... that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow...” — Philippians 2:9–10

This is not future submission.

This is present reality revealed in time.

---

ALL THINGS UNDER HIS FEET

Scripture does not leave room for exception.

EN

...st put all things in subjection under his feet... he left nothing that is not put under him.” — Hebrews 2:8

Nothing means:

- No system
- No power
- No force
- No realm

Everything is already positioned under Him.

Even if not yet fully seen...

It is already fully established.

WHAT THIS MEANS FOR THE WORLD

If Christ has all authority:

Then:

- Chaos is not outside His control
- Evil is not operating independently
- Nations are not ruling freely
- The future is not uncertain

Everything is functioning:

- 👉 Under His authority
- 👉 Within His limits
- 👉 Toward His completion

EN

is how you see everything.

---

DECLARATION — CHRIST DOES NOT SEEK POWER, HE POSSESSES IT

Jesus is not trying to gain control.

He is not preparing to rule.

He is not waiting for authority.

- ☞ He has it.
- ☞ He holds it.
- ☞ He exercises it.

“All power” is not potential.

It is possession.

CALL TO ACTION — BELIEVE WHAT HAS BEEN DECLARED

If you believe Christ has all power...

Then fear loses its foundation.

Because nothing exists outside His authority.

This is your invitation:

- ☞ Stop waiting for Jesus to take control

EN ecting a future takeover

- ☞ Start living in present authority

You are not waiting for victory.

You are standing in what has already been declared.

THE GOSPEL OF GRACE AND THE AUTHORITY OF JESUS CHRIST

This chapter answers the question: who has power over heaven and earth right now? Through scriptures like Matthew 28:18, Ephesians 1:22, Hebrews 2:8, Philippians 2:9–10, and Colossians 2:10, it reveals that Jesus Christ already possesses all authority. The Gospel of Grace shows that Christ is not waiting to rule but is currently reigning, with all things under His feet. This teaching establishes that nothing in heaven or earth operates outside His dominion, proving that God is not trying to take control, but Christ already has it.

CHAPTER 7 — UPHOLDING ALL THINGS BY THE WORD OF HIS POWER

DEFINITION — CREATION IS NOT SELF-SUSTAINING

It is one thing to say God created the world.

It is another to understand how the world continues.

Many believe creation began by God... but now continues by its own systems.

Natural laws.

Physical processes.

Human structures.

As if once God spoke in the beginning,
everything else began running on its own.

But Scripture reveals something far greater.

Creation is not sustained by systems.

It is sustained by His Word.

“Upholding all things by the word of his power...” — Hebrews 1:3

Not initiating...

Not assisting...

Upholding.

---

REVELATION — THE SAME WORD THAT CREATED STILL SUSTAINS

In the beginning, God spoke...

“And God said...” — Genesis 1:3

Creation came into existence by His Word.

EN

...the Word did not stop speaking.

It continues to hold everything together.

“For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.” — Psalm 33:9

“Stood fast” means:

- ☞ It did not drift
- ☞ It did not destabilize
- ☞ It did not move beyond what was spoken

The Word that created reality is the Word that maintains reality.

---

REVELATION DEEPENS — ALL THINGS CONSIST IN HIM

The apostle Paul brings it into full clarity:

“And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.” — Colossians 1:17

“Consist” means:

- ☞ Held together
- ☞ Preserved from collapse
- ☞ Kept in order

This means:

- The universe is not holding itself together

• Nothing is not sustaining itself

• All things are not maintaining themselves

EN

Everything is being actively held together by Christ.

---

IN HIM WE LIVE, MOVE, AND EXIST

This reality goes deeper than creation itself.

It includes your very existence.

▮ “For in him we live, and move, and have our being...” — Acts 17:28

You are not existing independently.

You are existing within Him.

Every breath.

Every moment.

Every movement.

Sustained.

PRESERVATION IS CONTINUOUS, NOT OCCASIONAL

God is not stepping in occasionally to fix things.

He is continuously sustaining everything.

▮ “Thou, even thou, art LORD alone... and thou preservest them all...” — Nehemiah

Preservation is not:

- Reactive
- Intermittent
- Conditional

It is constant.

If His Word ceased...

Everything would collapse instantly.

But it does not cease.

Because His authority is not temporary.

WHY THE WORLD HAS NOT FALLEN APART

The reason the world continues is not because it is stable.

It is because it is being upheld.

- Systems don't sustain the earth
- Governments don't preserve the world
- Human effort doesn't maintain reality

Christ does.

Right now.

EN

ent.

DECLARATION — EVERYTHING IS BEING HELD

Nothing is holding itself together.

Nothing is maintaining its own existence.

Nothing is operating independently.

- ☞ It is all being upheld
- ☞ It is all being sustained
- ☞ It is all being preserved

By the Word of His power.

CALL TO ACTION — STEP INTO REST

If everything depends on the stability of the world...

Then fear is inevitable.

But if everything depends on Christ...

Then rest becomes possible.

This is your invitation:

- ☞ Stop trusting in systems
- ☞ Stop fearing collapse
- ☞ Start resting in His sustaining power

You are not being held together by circumstances.

EN

You are being held together by Christ Himself.

THE GOSPEL OF GRACE AND GOD'S SUSTAINING POWER

This chapter answers the question of how the world continues to exist and whether creation sustains itself. Through scriptures like Hebrews 1:3, Colossians 1:17, Acts 17:28, Psalm 33:9, and Nehemiah 9:6, it reveals that Jesus Christ is actively upholding all things by the word of His power. The Gospel of Grace shows that the world is not surviving on its own but is continuously sustained by Christ, proving that nothing in creation exists or continues apart from His authority and power.

CHAPTER 8 — WHY THE WORLD HAS NOT COLLAPSED

DEFINITION — THE QUESTION EVERYONE IS ASKING

Across the world—through headlines, crises, and shifting systems—one question keeps rising:

Why hasn't everything fallen apart?

With:

- Increasing instability
- Growing darkness
- Constant global tension

EN

the collapse is inevitable.

Some even believe the world is barely holding together—as if it is one moment away from total destruction.

But Scripture does not describe a world on the edge of accidental collapse.

It reveals a world preserved with purpose.

REVELATION — PRESERVED, NOT SURVIVING

The world is not surviving by chance.

It is being preserved by design.

“Except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect’s sake those days shall be shortened.” — Matthew 24:22

This is not instability.

This is intervention within control.

God is not reacting to prevent destruction.

He is governing the unfolding of time itself.

REVELATION DEEPENS — RESERVED, NOT RELEASED

Peter reveals something powerful:

“But the heavens and the earth, which are now... are kept in store, reserved unto fire...” — 2 Peter 3:7

“Reserved” means:

- 👉 Held
- 👉 Secured
- 👉 Preserved for a determined purpose

The world is not drifting toward destruction.

It is being held for completion.

---

SHAKING WITHOUT COLLAPSE

The earth can shake...

But it cannot collapse outside His will.

“Though the earth be removed... though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea... God is our refuge...” — Psalm 46:2–3

This does not deny shaking.

It defines its limit.

“Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven... that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.” — Hebrews 12:26–27

Shaking is not destruction.

It is separation.

CONTROLLED COMPLETION, NOT RANDOM ENDING

What appears as instability is actually movement toward completion.

“Declaring the end from the beginning...” — Isaiah 46:10

“That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ...” — Ephesians 1:10

Nothing is spiraling out of control.

Everything is moving toward a determined end.

THE WORLD IS BEING HELD TOGETHER FOR A PURPOSE

The reason the world has not collapsed is not because it is strong.

It is because it is being sustained.

- Chaos is limited
- Time is measured
- Events are ordered

“Who is this that darkeneth counsel...?” — Job 38:2

The time of collapse comes from seeing without understanding.

DECLARATION — THE WORLD IS NOT FALLING APART

The world is not collapsing.
The earth is not out of control.
Creation is not failing.

- ☞ It is preserved
- ☞ It is governed
- ☞ It is sustained

Everything is being held together until the appointed completion.

CALL TO ACTION — COME OUT OF FEAR OF COLLAPSE

If you believe the world is collapsing...

You will live in fear of what comes next.

But if you understand it is preserved...

You will walk in confidence of what is coming.

This is your invitation:

- ☞ Stop expecting sudden collapse
- ☞ Stop fearing global instability

EN

ng divine preservation

The world is not hanging by a thread.

It is being held by Christ.

WHY THE WORLD HAS NOT COLLAPSED UNDER THE GOSPEL OF GRACE

This chapter answers the question: why has the world not collapsed despite increasing chaos and instability? Through scriptures like Matthew 24:22, 2 Peter 3:7, Hebrews 12:26–27, Psalm 46:2–3, and Ephesians 1:10, it reveals that the world is not surviving by chance but is being preserved and governed by God. The Gospel of Grace shows that chaos is limited, time is controlled, and the earth is being sustained until the appointed completion, proving that Christ is actively holding all things together and the world is not out of control.

CHAPTER 9 — THE PRESENT REIGN OF CHRIST

DEFINITION — REIGN IS NOT FUTURE, IT IS NOW

Many believe Jesus will reign.

They speak of a future kingdom, a coming rule, a day when Christ will finally take His place over the earth.

But Scripture does not present Christ as waiting to reign.

EN

It reveals Him as already reigning.

“But this man... sat down on the right hand of God; from henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.” — Hebrews 10:12–13

He is not standing, preparing.

He is seated, reigning.

REVELATION — SEATED ABOVE ALL

The position of Christ is not symbolic.

It is governmental.

“And set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion...” — Ephesians 1:20–21

“Far above” means:

-  Not competing
-  Not equal
-  Not rising toward

But already above all authority.

“And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things...” — Ephesians 1:22

Not some things.

All things.

REVELATION DEEPENS — HE MUST REIGN

Paul makes it unmistakable:

“For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.” — 1 Corinthians 15:25

This does not say:

“He will reign.”

It says:

☞ He must reign

Which means:

- ☞ He is reigning now
- ☞ And continues reigning until all is subdued

The process is not gaining authority.

It is manifesting what is already established.

MADE LORD AND CHRIST

On the day of Pentecost, Peter declared:

“God hath made that same Jesus... both Lord and Christ.” — Acts 2:36 future appointment.

EN

This is a present reality.

Jesus is not becoming Lord.

He is Lord.

▮ “The prince of the kings of the earth.” — Revelation 1:5

Not will be.

Is.

WHAT THIS MEANS FOR THE EARTH

If Christ is reigning now:

Then:

- No ruler operates outside His authority
- No system exists beyond His reach
- No event unfolds beyond His governance

Everything in the earth is functioning:

- ☞ Under His rule
- ☞ Within His limits
- ☞ Toward His purpose

The problem is not that Christ is not reigning.

is that many do not see it.

⚡ THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN ESTABLISHED AND MANIFESTED

Scripture acknowledges something important:

“But now we see not yet all things put under him.” — Hebrews 2:8

This does not mean they are not under Him.

It means:

- ☞ They are established
- ☞ But not fully manifested to sight

The reign of Christ is not waiting to begin.

It is waiting to be fully revealed.

---

📄 DECLARATION — CHRIST IS REIGNING NOW

Jesus is not waiting to take the throne.

He is not preparing to rule.

He is not competing for dominion.

- ☞ He is seated
- ☞ He is reigning
- ☞ He is governing

Right now.

EN

is under Him.

Every system is beneath Him.

Every outcome is within Him.

CALL TO ACTION — SEE THE THRONE

If you believe Christ will reign someday...

You will always feel like the world is out of control now.

But if you see that He reigns now...

Everything changes.

- ☞ Fear loses its foundation
- ☞ Chaos loses its illusion
- ☞ Uncertainty loses its power

This is your invitation:

- ☞ Lift your vision above the earth
- ☞ See the throne
- ☞ Recognize the reign

You are not waiting for Christ to take authority.

You are living in the time where His authority is being revealed.

 IS JESUS REIGNING RIGHT NOW UNDER THE GOSPEL OF GRACE

 EN

This chapter answers the question: is Jesus Christ reigning now or will He reign in the future? Through scriptures like Ephesians 1:20–22, 1 Corinthians 15:25, Hebrews 10:12–13, Acts 2:36, and Revelation 1:5, it reveals that Jesus is already seated at the right hand of God and currently reigning over all things. The Gospel of Grace shows that Christ’s authority is not future but present, and although not all things are visibly manifested under Him yet, they are already established under His dominion, proving that the world is governed by His active reign.

CHAPTER 10 — THE COMPLETION OF ALL THINGS

DEFINITION — THE END IS NOT DESTRUCTION, BUT FULFILLMENT

When many think of “the end,” they imagine collapse.

Destruction.

Final judgment.

The unraveling of everything that exists.

But Scripture does not present the end as chaos winning.

It presents the end as purpose fulfilled.

“Declaring the end from the beginning...” — Isaiah 46:10

If the end was declared from the beginning...

Then the end is not uncertain.

EN

IT IS determined.

And what is determined is not destruction—

It is completion.

REVELATION — ALL THINGS GATHERED IN CHRIST

God's purpose has always been singular:

To bring everything into Christ.

“That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ...” — Ephesians 1:10

“All things” means:

- ☞ Nothing excluded
- ☞ Nothing left outside
- ☞ Nothing remaining independent

This is not partial restoration.

This is total completion.

---

REVELATION DEEPENS — RECONCILIATION OF ALL THINGS

...it further:

“And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself...” — Colossians 1:20

Not some things.

All things.

Things in heaven.

Things in earth.

Everything is moving toward reconciliation.

This is not forced submission.

It is restored harmony.

THE END OF ALL RULE BUT HIS

There comes a moment where all competing authority is brought to nothing:

“Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God... when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.” — 1 Corinthians 15:24

This is not a battle for control.

It is the removal of everything that opposes what is already established.

“For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.” — 1 Corinthians 15:25

EN

The reign continues...

Until nothing remains outside of Him.

THE LAST ENEMY REMOVED

What is the final thing to fall?

| “The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.” — 1 Corinthians 15:26

Death is not eternal.

It is temporary.

It is not the final state.

It is the final enemy to be removed.

GOD ALL IN ALL

This is the ultimate conclusion:

| “That God may be all in all.” — 1 Corinthians 15:28

Not some in all.

Not all in some.

All in all.

- ☞ Total fulfillment
- ☞ Total restoration
- ☞ Total completion

Nothing outside Him.
 Nothing resisting Him.
 Nothing remaining separate.

---

A NEW CREATION REALITY

John saw the final picture:

“And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new.” — Revelation 21:5

Not destroying all things.

Making all things new.

This is not abandonment.

It is renewal.

---

DECLARATION — EVERYTHING IS MOVING TOWARD COMPLETION

Nothing is spiraling into chaos.
 Nothing is heading toward meaningless destruction.

EN

outside the plan.

- ☞ Everything is being gathered
- ☞ Everything is being reconciled
- ☞ Everything is being completed

From the beginning...

To the end...

It has always been moving toward this.

---

CALL TO ACTION — EMBRACE THE END AS GLORY, NOT FEAR

If you believe the end is destruction...

You will live in fear of what is coming.

But if you see the end as completion...

You will live in hope of what is being revealed.

This is your invitation:

- ☞ Let go of fear-based endings
- ☞ Receive purpose-driven completion
- ☞ See the end through the lens of Christ

The story does not end in loss.

Illness.

THE COMPLETION OF ALL THINGS UNDER THE GOSPEL OF GRACE

This chapter answers the question: what is the end of the world according to the Gospel of Grace?
