The Revelation of Jesus Christ: Every Revelation Must Be Reconciled

EN

The Revelation of Jesus Christ: Understanding the Full Counsel of God

By Carl Timothy Wray

The Revelation of Jesus Christ is not merely the last book of the Bible. It is God's unveiling of His Son and the fullness of His eternal purpose. Every promise, every prophecy, every type, every shadow, and every symbol finds its meaning and fulfillment in Jesus Christ.

This book establishes a foundational principle for interpreting Scripture: every revelation must be reconciled throughout the whole counsel of God. Whether a truth is first discovered in Genesis, the Prophets, the Gospels, the Epistles, or the Revelation of Jesus Christ, it must harmonize with the testimony of the entire Bible.

Through Scripture, this book follows the divine thread from seed to fullness, from promise to fulfillment, revealing the unity of God's eternal purpose in Christ. It is not written to promote a denomination or defend a theological system. It is written to exalt Jesus Christ as the center of every revelation and to demonstrate that the whole Bible bears witness to Him.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ: Every Revelation Must Be Reconciled reveals how every biblical truth must be understood through the full counsel of God. Discover how the seed, the blade, the ear, and the full corn reveal God's progressive purpose in Jesus Christ from Genesis to Revelation. This book explores biblical interpretation through Scripture, showing that every promise, prophecy, symbol, and doctrine finds its fulfillment in Christ and His eternal purpose.

the scriptures... they are they which testify of

John 5:39

The Bible contains one revelation with one divine Author and one eternal purpose.

Although the Scriptures were written over many centuries through many different writers, they bear one unified testimony: the revelation of Jesus Christ.

A revelation may first capture our attention anywhere in the Scriptures. God may reveal a truth in its seed, its blade, its ear, or its full corn. He may unveil it in a promise, a prophecy, a parable, an apostolic doctrine, or a completed vision in the Revelation of Jesus Christ.

Where the revelation first appears is not what establishes the revelation.

The revelation is established when it can be reconciled throughout the whole counsel of God.

Every promise must agree with its fulfillment.

Every shadow must agree with its substance.

Every prophecy must agree with Christ.

Every symbol must agree with the revelation of Jesus Christ.

This book invites the reader to follow every divine thread until the Scriptures speak with one voice. As each revelation is reconciled from Genesis to Revelation, we behold the wisdom of God, the harmony of His Word, and the glory of His Son.

For in the end, every true revelation leads us to one Person...

Chapter One

The Revelation of Jesus Christ

“The Revelation of Jesus Christ...”

Revelation 1:1

“For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

Revelation 19:10

“Beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.”

EN

Luke 24:27

“Search the scriptures... they are they which testify of me.”

John 5:39

“For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.”

1 Corinthians 3:11

Before we study a promise, a prophecy, a symbol, a type, or a doctrine, we must establish the foundation upon which every revelation stands.

That foundation is not a denomination.

It is not a theological system.

It is not a favorite doctrine.

The foundation of every true revelation is Jesus Christ.

The Bible is not a collection of unrelated subjects. It is one divine revelation with one Author, one purpose, and one central testimony. From Genesis to Revelation, the Holy Spirit unveils the Son of God. Every promise points toward Him. Every prophecy bears witness to Him. Every shadow finds its substance in Him. Every symbol receives its interpretation in Him.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ is not confined to the last book of the Bible. It is the unveiling of Jesus Christ throughout the entire Scriptures.

EN

reveals a truth to us, He may reveal it in many different places. He may seed in Genesis. He may reveal the promise through the prophets. He may unveil its fulfillment in Christ through the Gospels. He may explain it through the apostles. He may reveal its consummation in the book of Revelation.

Sometimes the Spirit allows us to see the seed first.

Sometimes He reveals the blade.

Sometimes He reveals the ear.

Sometimes He opens our eyes to the full corn in the ear.

The place where we first discover the revelation does not establish the revelation.

The revelation is established when it can be reconciled throughout the whole counsel of God.

This is the divine pattern of Scripture.

Truth never contradicts itself.

The seed agrees with the harvest.

The promise agrees with the fulfillment.

The shadow agrees with the substance.

The prophets agree with the apostles.

The Gospels agree with the Revelation of Jesus Christ.

When the same truth speaks with one voice from beginning to end, we know we are in the mind of God.

EN

For this reason, every revelation must be tested.

Not by tradition.

Not by opinion.

Not by a single verse lifted from its context.

Every revelation must be brought into the light of the whole counsel of God until the Scriptures bear witness together.

Jesus Himself established this pattern. After His resurrection, He began with Moses, continued through all the Prophets, and opened the Scriptures concerning Himself. He did not build truth upon one passage. He revealed Himself throughout the entire testimony of God's Word.

This shall be the foundation of this book.

We will not build upon isolated verses.

We will follow the divine thread wherever the Spirit first reveals it.

Then we will trace that thread through the Law, the Prophets, the Gospels, the Epistles, and the Revelation of Jesus Christ until the whole counsel of God speaks with one harmonious voice.

For every true revelation begins, continues, and ends in Jesus Christ.

He is the Author.

He is the Foundation.

EN

Revelation.

He is the Fulfillment.

He is the Alpha and the Omega.

The beginning and the ending.

The first and the last.

And in Him, every revelation is reconciled.

Chapter Two

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST: THE WHOLE COUNSEL OF GOD

The Revelation of Jesus Christ Is Revealed Through the Whole Counsel of God

“For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.”

Acts 20:27

“All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness.”

2 Timothy 3:16

EN

“Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.”

2 Peter 1:20

The Revelation of Jesus Christ cannot be understood through isolated Scriptures.

The Holy Spirit did not inspire one book to contradict another. He inspired the whole Bible to reveal one eternal purpose in Jesus Christ.

Every revelation must therefore be examined in the light of the whole counsel of God.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST REVEALS ONE DIVINE PURPOSE

“Having made known unto us the mystery of his will...
That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ.”

Ephesians 1:9–10

“According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

Ephesians 3:11

“Declaring the end from the beginning.”

EN

From Genesis to Revelation, God is revealing one purpose.

One plan.

One kingdom.

One Son.

Every covenant, every promise, every prophecy, every symbol, and every fulfillment moves toward the revelation of Jesus Christ.

The whole counsel of God speaks with one voice.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST IS ESTABLISHED BY MANY WITNESSES

“In the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.”

2 Corinthians 13:1

“Search the scriptures... they are they which testify of me.”

John 5:39

“Beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.”

EN

Luke 24:27

God establishes truth through witnesses.

The Law bears witness.

The Prophets bear witness.

The Psalms bear witness.

The Gospels bear witness.

The Apostles bear witness.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ bears witness.

When every witness speaks the same testimony, the revelation has been reconciled.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST RECONCILES THE LAW, THE PROPHETS, AND THE APOSTLES

“Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.”

Matthew 5:17

EN

“For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.”

Romans 10:4

Jesus Christ does not divide the Scriptures.

He fulfills them.

The Law points to Him.

The Prophets proclaim Him.

The Gospels reveal Him.

The Apostles explain Him.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ unveils His completed purpose.

Every part of Scripture finds its harmony in Him.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST IS THE TEST OF EVERY REVELATION

“Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God.”

1 John 4:1

“Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.”

1 Thessalonians 5:21

EN

Not every revelation is a complete revelation.

A truth is not established because it is impressive.

It is established when it agrees with the whole counsel of God.

If it cannot be reconciled with the revelation of Jesus Christ throughout the Scriptures, it remains incomplete.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST SPEAKS WITH ONE VOICE

The Holy Spirit has given the Church one Book.

One testimony.

One revelation.

One eternal purpose.

The whole counsel of God does not produce confusion.

It produces harmony.

Every revelation that proceeds from God will ultimately reveal Jesus Christ.

Every revelation that reveals Jesus Christ will agree with the whole counsel of God.

This is the divine pattern that will guide every chapter that follows.

EN

on of Jesus Christ.

The whole counsel of God.

One voice.

One purpose.

One Lord.

Chapter Three

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST: FINDING THE THREAD

The Revelation of Jesus Christ Begins with One Divine Thread

“The testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

Revelation 19:10

“Search the scriptures... they are they which testify of me.”

John 5:39

Every revelation begins with a thread.

The Holy Spirit may reveal that thread in Genesis, the Prophets, the Gospels, the Epistles, or the Revelation of Jesus Christ.

EN

thread first appears is not what establishes the revelation.

The revelation is established when that same thread can be followed throughout the whole counsel of God.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST MAY BE DISCOVERED AT ANY STAGE OF REVELATION

“First the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.”

Mark 4:28

“For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.”

God is free to reveal His truth wherever He chooses.

He may reveal the seed.

He may reveal the blade.

He may reveal the ear.

He may reveal the full corn in the ear.

Our responsibility is not to choose where God begins.

Our responsibility is to reconcile every stage of the revelation until the whole grees.

EN

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST REVEALS THE SEED AND THE HARVEST

“Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made... and to thy seed, which is Christ.”

Galatians 3:16

“Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God.”

1 Peter 1:23

Every harvest has a seed.

Every fulfillment has a promise.

Every completed revelation has an origin.

When the Holy Spirit reveals the harvest, we search for the seed.

When He reveals the seed, we follow it to the harvest.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ unites them both.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST FOLLOWS THE THREAD THROUGH THE THE COUNSEL OF GOD

EN

“Beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.”

Luke 24:27

“For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.”

Acts 20:27

Jesus did not build His teaching upon isolated passages.

He followed the divine thread through the Scriptures until every witness testified of Him.

This is the pattern of biblical revelation.

Find the thread.

Follow the thread.

Reconcile the thread.

Reveal Jesus Christ.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST
ESTABLISHES EVERY REVELATION BY WITNESSES

EN

“In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.”

Matthew 18:16

“This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.”

2 Corinthians 13:1

One witness introduces the thread.

Another confirms it.

Another develops it.

Another brings it into fulfillment.

When every witness speaks with one voice, the revelation has been established.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST RECONCILES EVERY THREAD

The purpose of finding the thread is not merely to gain knowledge.

It is to behold Jesus Christ.

EN

thread leads to Him.

Every promise finds its fulfillment in Him.

Every prophecy reaches its completion in Him.

Every symbol receives its meaning in Him.

Every revelation is reconciled in Him.

This is how the Holy Spirit teaches the Scriptures.

One thread.

One testimony.

One Christ.

One revelation.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ.

Chapter Five

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST: CHRIST IS THE FULFILLMENT OF EVERY REVELATION

The Revelation of Jesus Christ Reveals the Fulfillment of Every Promise

EN

“For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.”

2 Corinthians 1:20

“For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.”

Romans 10:4

Every promise finds its fulfillment in Jesus Christ.

Every covenant points toward Him.

Every prophecy bears witness to Him.

Every revelation reaches its completion in Him.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ is the unveiling of God's finished purpose in His Son.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST FULFILLS THE LAW AND THE PROPHETS

“Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.”

Matthew 5:17

EN

Acts 10:43

“... give all the prophets witness.”

“For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me.”

John 5:46

The Law prepared the way.

The Prophets announced His coming.

The Psalms sang of His glory.

The Gospels revealed His person.

The Apostles proclaimed His finished work.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ unveils His eternal kingdom.

Every witness agrees.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST IS THE SUBSTANCE OF EVERY SHADOW

“Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.”

Colossians 2:17

“For the law having a shadow of good things to come...”

:1

The sacrifices pointed to Christ.

The priesthood pointed to Christ.

The temple pointed to Christ.

The feasts pointed to Christ.

The Passover pointed to Christ.

Every shadow finds its substance in the Son of God.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ removes the veil and reveals the reality.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST RECONCILES EVERY SYMBOL

“The testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

Revelation 19:10

“Search the scriptures... they are they which testify of me.”

John 5:39

The Lamb reveals Christ.

The Lion reveals Christ.

The Bride reveals Christ.

The New Jerusalem reveals Christ.

The Tree of Life reveals Christ.

The River of Life reveals Christ.

The Throne reveals Christ.

The Kingdom reveals Christ.

Every symbol receives its true interpretation in the Revelation of Jesus Christ.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST IS THE CENTER OF THE WHOLE COUNSEL OF GOD

“For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things.”

Romans 11:36

“That in all things he might have the preeminence.”

Colossians 1:18

“In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.”

Colossians 2:3

EN

es do not revolve around Israel.

They do not revolve around prophecy.

They do not revolve around signs and wonders.

They revolve around Jesus Christ.

He is the beginning.

He is the foundation.

He is the fulfillment.

He is the purpose.

He is the revelation.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST IS THE FINAL WITNESS

Every revelation must ultimately answer one question:

Does it reveal Jesus Christ?

If it does not magnify Christ, it has missed its purpose.

If it cannot be reconciled in Christ, it has not reached its fulfillment.

The whole counsel of God speaks with one voice.

EN

...nts to Christ.

The Prophets proclaim Christ.

The Gospels reveal Christ.

The Apostles explain Christ.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ unveils the glory of Christ.

Every promise.

Every prophecy.

Every symbol.

Every doctrine.

Every revelation.

All find their fulfillment in Jesus Christ.

Chapter Six

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST: RECONCILING THE SCRIPTURES

The Revelation of Jesus Christ Reconciles the Scriptures with the Scriptures

“Comparing spiritual things with spiritual.”

EN

Is 2:13

“Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.”

2 Peter 1:20

“All scripture is given by inspiration of God...”

2 Timothy 3:16

The Holy Spirit never contradicts Himself.

The same Spirit who inspired Moses inspired the Prophets.

The same Spirit who inspired the Prophets inspired the Apostles.

The same Spirit who inspired the Apostles unveiled the Revelation of Jesus Christ.

Therefore, the Scriptures must be reconciled with the Scriptures.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST REQUIRES THE TESTIMONY OF THE WHOLE COUNSEL OF GOD

“For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.”

Acts 20:27

EN

mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.”

2 Corinthians 13:1

One verse may introduce a truth.

Another verse may explain it.

Another may enlarge it.

Another may reveal its fulfillment.

The Holy Spirit establishes truth through many witnesses, not through isolated passages.

Every revelation must stand in the full counsel of God.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST RECONCILES THE BEGINNING WITH THE END

“Declaring the end from the beginning.”

Isaiah 46:10

“I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending.”

Revelation 22:13

The beginning explains the ending.

EN

reveals the purpose of the beginning.

Genesis plants the seed.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ unveils the harvest.

Between the seed and the harvest, God unfolds His eternal purpose.

Every stage agrees with the next.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST RECONCILES PROMISE WITH FULFILLMENT

“For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen...”

2 Corinthians 1:20

“Had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me.”

John 5:46

The promise must agree with its fulfillment.

The prophecy must agree with its accomplishment.

The shadow must agree with its substance.

EN

st agree with the reality.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ harmonizes them all.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST RECONCILES EVERY REVELATION IN CHRIST

“That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ...”

Ephesians 1:10

“For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things.”

Romans 11:36

Every revelation moves toward one divine center.

Jesus Christ.

He is the key that unlocks the Law.

He is the voice of the Prophets.

He is the fulfillment of the promises.

He is the substance of the shadows.

EN

relation of the mysteries.

He is the One in whom all things are gathered together.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST SPEAKS WITH ONE HARMONIOUS VOICE

When the Scriptures are reconciled, confusion gives way to clarity.

Division gives way to unity.

Fragments become one testimony.

The Bible reveals one Author.

One purpose.

One eternal plan.

One Lord.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ is not built upon isolated truths.

It is revealed through the harmony of the whole counsel of God.

This is the pattern of biblical interpretation.

Scripture interpreting Scripture.

Christ revealing Christ.

EN

...rit bearing witness to the Son from Genesis to Revelation.

This is how every revelation is reconciled.

Chapter Seven

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST: THE TEST OF EVERY REVELATION

The Revelation of Jesus Christ Is the Measure of Every Revelation

“Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God.”

1 John 4:1

“Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.”

1 Thessalonians 5:21

“To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.”

Isaiah 8:20

Every revelation must be tested.

Every doctrine must be examined.

EN

etation must be measured.

The standard is not tradition.

The standard is not experience.

The standard is not human opinion.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ, revealed through the whole counsel of God, is the measure of every revelation.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST IS ESTABLISHED BY THE WHOLE COUNSEL OF GOD

“For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.”

Acts 20:27

“In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.”

2 Corinthians 13:1

One Scripture may introduce a truth.

Many Scriptures establish it.

The Holy Spirit confirms His Word through many witnesses.

EN

A revelation that cannot be reconciled throughout the Scriptures has not yet been fully established.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST EXALTS CHRIST ABOVE EVERY DOCTRINE

“He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.”

John 16:14

“For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord.”

2 Corinthians 4:5

The ministry of the Holy Spirit is to glorify Jesus Christ.

A revelation that magnifies men above Christ has missed its purpose.

A revelation that produces division instead of revealing Christ should be carefully examined.

The true revelation of the Spirit always exalts the Son of God.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST PRODUCES HARMONY IN THE

EN

SCRIPTURES

“All scripture is given by inspiration of God.”

2 Timothy 3:16

“The testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

Revelation 19:10

Truth does not compete with truth.

The Law does not oppose the Gospel.

The Prophets do not oppose the Apostles.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ does not contradict the Scriptures that came before it.

The same Spirit speaks with one harmonious voice from Genesis to Revelation.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST REVEALS THE MIND OF GOD

“For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.”

1 Corinthians 2:16

“That we may prove what is that good, and acceptable, perfect, will of God.”

EN

Romans 12:2

God does not call us merely to collect biblical information.

He calls us to understand His mind.

As every revelation is reconciled in Christ, we begin to see the unity of God's eternal purpose.

The mind of Christ recognizes the harmony of the Scriptures because the Author of the Scriptures is one.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST IS THE FINAL TEST

Every revelation must answer these questions:

Does it reveal Jesus Christ?

Can it be reconciled throughout the whole counsel of God?

Does it agree with the Law, the Prophets, the Gospels, the Apostles, and the Revelation of Jesus Christ?

Does it bear the witness of the Holy Spirit?

If the answer is yes, the revelation stands upon a solid foundation.

If not, the search is not over.

EN

Continue following the thread.

Continue searching the Scriptures.

Continue reconciling every witness.

For every true revelation will ultimately speak with one voice.

The voice of Jesus Christ.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ.

The whole counsel of God.

The eternal purpose of God revealed in His Son.

Chapter Eight

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST: EVERY MAJOR THEME MUST BE RECONCILED

The Revelation of Jesus Christ Reveals One Divine Pattern

“The testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

Revelation 19:10

“Beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he led unto them in all the scriptures the things
concerning himself.”

EN

Luke 24:27

The Holy Spirit does not reveal one truth by one method and another truth by another method.

Every revelation follows the same divine pattern.

Find the thread.

Follow the thread.

Reconcile the thread.

Reveal Jesus Christ.

This pattern applies to every major theme in the Scriptures.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST RECONCILES THE KINGDOM OF GOD

“The LORD shall be king over all the earth.”

Zechariah 14:9

“Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.”

Matthew 4:17

“The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ.”

EN

Revelation 11:15

The Kingdom is revealed progressively.

It is promised.

It is proclaimed.

It is manifested.

It is consummated.

Every stage reveals the reign of Jesus Christ.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST RECONCILES THE LAMB OF GOD

“God will provide himself a lamb.”

Genesis 22:8

“Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.”

John 1:29

“Worthy is the Lamb that was slain.”

Revelation 5:12

EN

The Lamb is seen in promise.

The Lamb is revealed at Calvary.

The Lamb is exalted upon the throne.

One revelation.

One Christ.

One eternal purpose.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST RECONCILES THE TABERNACLE OF GOD

“Let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell among them.”

Exodus 25:8

“And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us.”

John 1:14

“Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men.”

Revelation 21:3

The dwelling place of God unfolds throughout the Scriptures.

From the tabernacle in the wilderness...

EN

to Christ dwelling among us...

To God dwelling with His people forever.

The thread remains the same.

The revelation reaches its fullness.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST RECONCILES THE NEW JERUSALEM

“Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited.”

Zechariah 14:11

“Ye are come unto mount Sion... the heavenly Jerusalem.”

Hebrews 12:22

“I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven.”

Revelation 21:2

The New Jerusalem is not an isolated vision.

It is the fulfillment of God's eternal purpose.

The promise.

EN

tion.

The revelation.

The fulfillment.

Every witness agrees.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST RECONCILES THE SONS OF GOD

“Israel is my son.”

Exodus 4:22

“For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.”

Romans 8:14

“For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.”

Romans 8:19

The revelation of sonship grows throughout the Scriptures.

It begins with promise.

It matures through redemption.

EN

is appointed fullness in Jesus Christ.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST RECONCILES EVERY MAJOR THEME

The Kingdom.

The Lamb.

The Tabernacle.

The New Jerusalem.

The Sons of God.

The Priesthood.

The Throne.

The Tree of Life.

The River of Life.

The Bride.

The Body of Christ.

The New Creation.

None of these revelations stand alone.

Each one is a thread woven into the same divine tapestry.

EN

Each one begins in promise.

Each one grows through progressive revelation.

Each one reaches its fulfillment in Jesus Christ.

This is the wisdom of God.

This is the harmony of the Scriptures.

This is the Revelation of Jesus Christ.

Every major theme.

Every divine thread.

Every revelation.

Reconciled in the whole counsel of God.

Chapter Nine

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST: THE MIND OF CHRIST AND THE HARMONY OF THE SCRIPTURES

The Revelation of Jesus Christ Is Revealed Through the Mind of Christ

“For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may him? But we have the mind of Christ.”

EN

1 Corinthians 2:16

“Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.”

Philippians 2:5

The Revelation of Jesus Christ is not merely understood by human intelligence.

It is revealed by the Spirit of God.

The same Spirit who inspired the Scriptures also opens our understanding to the harmony of the Scriptures.

The mind of Christ recognizes what the natural mind cannot.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST IS SPIRITUALLY DISCERNED

“But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God... because they are spiritually discerned.”

1 Corinthians 2:14

“Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures.”

Luke 24:45

The Scriptures are more than words upon a page.

EN

They are the testimony of Jesus Christ.

Without the illumination of the Holy Spirit, a person may know many verses yet fail to see the one revelation they proclaim.

The Spirit opens our understanding so that Christ is revealed throughout the whole counsel of God.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST REMOVES THE VEIL

“Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away.”

2 Corinthians 3:16

“But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image.”

2 Corinthians 3:18

The veil is not removed by greater learning.

The veil is removed by turning to the Lord.

As Christ is revealed, the Scriptures become one harmonious testimony.

The shadows become clear.

The promises find their fulfillment.

EN

of God comes into view.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST PRODUCES UNITY

“Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.”

Ephesians 4:3

“Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God.”

Ephesians 4:13

The Spirit of God never produces confusion.

He produces unity.

Not unity through compromise.

Unity through truth.

As every revelation is reconciled in Jesus Christ, the Scriptures speak with one voice, and the people of God are drawn toward one faith centered in Him.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST RENEWS THE MIND

EN

“Be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind.”

Romans 12:2

“That ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.”

Ephesians 4:24

The purpose of revelation is transformation.

God does not reveal His Son merely to increase our knowledge.

He reveals His Son to renew our minds and conform us to the image of Christ.

As our minds are renewed, we begin to think according to the harmony of the Scriptures rather than the fragments of human reasoning.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST BRINGS THE SCRIPTURES INTO ONE HARMONIOUS VOICE

The Law.

The Prophets.

The Psalms.

The Gospels.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ.

They do not compete.

They do not contradict.

They bear witness together.

The mind of Christ recognizes the unity of the Spirit throughout the whole counsel of God.

This is why every revelation must be reconciled.

Not merely to satisfy the intellect.

But to behold Jesus Christ.

For when Christ is revealed, the Scriptures become one testimony.

The Spirit speaks with one voice.

The Church beholds one Lord.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ.

The whole counsel of God.

The mind of Christ.

One harmonious revelation.

Chapter Ten

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST: EVERY REVELATION MUST BE RECONCILED

The Revelation of Jesus Christ Is the Full Counsel of God Revealed

“The Revelation of Jesus Christ...”

Revelation 1:1

“For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.”

Acts 20:27

“The testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

Revelation 19:10

The Revelation of Jesus Christ is the harmony of the whole counsel of God.

It is the unveiling of God’s eternal purpose in His Son.

Every promise.

Every prophecy.

Every covenant.

l.

Every doctrine.

Every revelation.

Finds its fulfillment in Jesus Christ.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST RECONCILES THE SEED AND THE HARVEST

“First the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.”

Mark 4:28

“Declaring the end from the beginning.”

Isaiah 46:10

God may reveal the seed.

He may reveal the blade.

He may reveal the ear.

He may reveal the full corn.

The place where the revelation begins does not establish the revelation.

The revelation is established when every stage bears witness to the same eternal purpose in Jesus Christ.

The seed agrees with the harvest.

The beginning agrees with the ending.

The promise agrees with the fulfillment.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST RECONCILES THE WHOLE COUNSEL OF GOD

“Beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.”

Luke 24:27

“Search the scriptures... they are they which testify of me.”

John 5:39

The Scriptures speak with one voice.

Moses bears witness.

EN

s bear witness.

The Psalms bear witness.

The Gospels bear witness.

The Apostles bear witness.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ bears witness.

Every witness declares the glory of the Son of God.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST IS THE TEST OF EVERY REVELATION

“Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.”

1 Thessalonians 5:21

“Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God.”

1 John 4:1

Every revelation must be tested.

Can it be reconciled throughout the Scriptures?

Does it magnify Jesus Christ?

Does it agree with the whole counsel of God?

EN

Does it bear the witness of the Holy Spirit?

If it does, it stands upon the Rock.

If it does not, continue searching the Scriptures until every witness agrees.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST IS THE CENTER OF ALL THINGS

“That in all things he might have the preeminence.”

Colossians 1:18

“For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things.”

Romans 11:36

Jesus Christ is the center of every revelation.

He is the Seed.

He is the Fulfillment.

He is the Lamb.

He is the King.

He is the High Priest.

He is the Bridegroom.

EN

He is the Head of the Church.

He is the Alpha and the Omega.

Every divine thread leads to Him.

Every revelation finds its meaning in Him.

Every promise is fulfilled in Him.

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST: EVERY REVELATION MUST BE RECONCILED

This has been the message of this book.

Not that we might possess more information.

But that we might behold more of Jesus Christ.

The Holy Spirit has given us one Bible.

One testimony.

One eternal purpose.

One Lord.

Therefore, let every promise be reconciled.

EN

prophecy be reconciled.

Let every symbol be reconciled.

Let every doctrine be reconciled.

Let every revelation be reconciled.

From Genesis to Revelation.

From the seed to the full corn.

From the promise to the fulfillment.

From the shadow to the substance.

From the beginning to the ending.

Until the whole counsel of God speaks with one harmonious voice.

For the Revelation of Jesus Christ is the unveiling of God's eternal purpose.

The Scriptures testify of Him.

The Prophets proclaim Him.

The Apostles preach Him.

The Spirit reveals Him.

The Father glorifies Him.

And throughout all ages, heaven and earth bear witness to one eternal truth:

EN

Jesus Christ is the Revelation of God.

To Him be glory in the Church throughout all ages, world without end.

Amen.

Conclusion

THE REVELATION OF JESUS CHRIST: THE FINAL DECLARATION

“The testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

Revelation 19:10

“For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.”

Acts 20:27

“Search the scriptures... they are they which testify of me.”

John 5:39

“Beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.”

Luke 24:27

The Revelation of Jesus Christ is the foundation of every true revelation.

EN

The whole counsel of God is the witness of every true revelation.

The Holy Spirit has given the Church one divine testimony.

That testimony is Jesus Christ.

Wherever the Spirit first reveals a truth, our responsibility is to follow that divine thread until it has been reconciled throughout the whole counsel of God.

Whether the revelation begins in the seed...

The blade...

The ear...

Or the full corn in the ear...

It must ultimately bear witness to Jesus Christ.

The Law bears witness.

The Prophets bear witness.

The Psalms bear witness.

The Gospels bear witness.

The Apostles bear witness.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ bears witness.

EN

es speak with one harmonious voice because they have one divine Author and one eternal purpose.

This is the wisdom of God.

This is the unity of the Spirit.

This is the harmony of the Scriptures.

This is the full counsel of God.

Let us therefore never build a doctrine upon an isolated verse.

Never establish a revelation upon a single witness.

Never separate one portion of Scripture from another.

But let every revelation be reconciled.

Let every promise be reconciled.

Let every prophecy be reconciled.

Let every type be reconciled.

Let every shadow be reconciled.

Let every symbol be reconciled.

Let every doctrine be reconciled.

Until the entire Bible declares with one voice the glory of Jesus Christ.

For He is the Seed and the Harvest.

EN

The First and the Last.

The Beginning and the Ending.

The Alpha and the Omega.

The Author and the Finisher of our faith.

The Lamb upon the throne.

The King of kings and Lord of lords.

The Head of His Church.

The fullness of the Godhead bodily.

The Revelation of Jesus Christ.

May every reader search the Scriptures with renewed purpose.

May every revelation be tested by the whole counsel of God.

May every truth be established by the witness of the Spirit.

And may Jesus Christ be exalted above every doctrine, every tradition, every system, and every revelation.

For of Him...

Through Him...

And to Him...

s.

To whom be glory forever.

Amen.
