Death is no longer your master.

It has been abolished, overthrown, rendered powerless by the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ.

This is not a future hope — this is a finished fact.

The gospel is not about surviving until heaven.

It is the blazing revelation that life and immortality have already been brought to light. Not hidden.

Not delayed.

Not reserved for another age — but manifested now through the Son who conquered the grave.

This is the message religion fears, Babylon buries, and the Church avoids:

- That death has no dominion.
- ★ That immortality is not just a reward it is your inheritance.
- 🐆 That the gospel reveals a life that cannot be corrupted, limited, or defeated.

In this book, we pierce through centuries of unbelief, uncover the gospel that has been buried under tradition, and stand boldly on the truth:

He hath abolished death.

And brought life and immortality to light.

Let the scrolls open. Let the veil be torn. Let the saints rise into fullness. This is the deathless gospel. This is Zion's inheritance.

Chapter 1 The Death of Death

"He Hath Abolished Death"

"...who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel."

— 2 Timothy 1:10

Let us begin with what few dare to say: death is finished.

Not rebranded.

Not postponed.

Not softened into a metaphor.

Abolished.

The Greek word used here — katargeó — means to render powerless, to bring to nothing, to disarm completely. This is not a poetic phrase. This is heaven's legal decree — a spiritual fact established by the appearance of Jesus Christ.

When Christ came, He didn't come to delay death's appointment. He came to cancel it — and strip it of its claim on the elect.

Religion's Great Cover-Up Why don't we hear this preached?

Because a gospel without death loses control.

Without fear of death, the church system loses its chains.

Without fear of death, men stop crawling at altars, giving money out of fear, and submitting to powerless traditions.

But Paul says it plainly:

"The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death." (1 Cor 15:26)

And in Christ — that enemy was confronted, swallowed, and crushed.

→ The Finished Work vs. Funeral Theology The modern Church has built its hope around funerals, not resurrection.

We comfort ourselves by saying "they're in a better place."

We push all glory into a cloudy future, past a coffin, behind a curtain.

But the gospel is not about getting people ready to die.

It is about revealing those who will never die again.

"Whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die." (John 11:26)

— Do you believe this?

What Does It Mean That Death Is Abolished? It means...

The grave has no claim on you

Mortality is no longer your identity

You were never meant to decay

You are not a dying creature with a heavenly hope

You are a son of God, born from resurrection, seated in incorruptibility

Christ did not just conquer death —

He made it illegal to reign over those who are in Him.

Call to the Remnant:

It is time to renounce the lie.

Refuse to preach death as a doorway.

Refuse to honor the grave more than the throne.

You are part of a company who will say:

"O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?" (1 Cor 15:55)

Death is the last lie.

The last idol.

The last veil to tear down.

And it starts here — by believing that death is already dead.

The Appearing of Immortality

"By the Appearing of Our Saviour Jesus Christ"

"...but is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ..."

— 2 Timothy 1:10

Death was abolished — not in theory, not in heaven, not in doctrine — but by the appearing of the Son of God.

When Christ appeared, something eternal came into view.

Not a better religion.

Not a new morality.

But life and immortality — made visible in a body, made manifest in a man.

The Manifestation That Changed Everything The word "appearing" in the Greek is epiphaneia — the unveiling, the shining forth, the blaze of light that destroys shadows.

Jesus didn't just come to die.

He came to reveal what had been hidden since the foundation of the world — that man was never meant to die, and that immortality is the true inheritance of the sons of God.

He didn't come to negotiate with death —

He came to expose it, strip it, and light up another way.

What Was Hidden Before Christ? Before Christ, the world saw death as inevitable. Even the righteous groaned under its shadow.

Abraham died.

Moses died.

David died.

Even John the Baptist was beheaded.

Why? Because until Christ appeared, the light of immortality had not yet broken open.

The saints of old died in faith, not because death was righteous, but because the Man who would destroy it had not yet been revealed.

Jesus: The Light of Immortal Life When Jesus walked the earth, He demonstrated another kind of life:

He never feared death.

He never taught believers to prepare for a grave.

He raised the dead, not to impress, but to show His dominion.

Then He submitted Himself to death, so He could enter it, undo it from the inside, and rise with immortality in His hands.

And Now — It's Manifest

This is the revelation the Church has buried:

That life and immortality are no longer hidden.

They have appeared.

They have been brought to light.

And the veil is torn forever.

Religion teaches Jesus came to forgive sins.

But the gospel says He came to abolish death and manifest life incorruptible.

What Does It Mean for Us?

It means we are not waiting for another appearing.

We are not waiting to die to see glory.

We are not reaching for resurrection —

We are born of it.

The veil is off.

The old system is over.

Immortality is no longer a mystery — it's a mirror.

Proclaim This Word:

Let it echo through every pulpit, platform, podcast, and post:

"He hath abolished death...
and brought life and immortality to light
by His appearing."

Chapter 3

The Lie of Delayed Glory

Why Religion Postponed What God Revealed

&quot;As He is, so are we in this world." (1 John 4:17)

- "...but is now made manifest..."
- 2 Timothy 1:10

Religion has sold the world a delayed gospel.

A future glory.

A postponed promise.

A life of suffering now — and reward after you die.

But that's not what the gospel says.

The gospel declares:

"Now is the accepted time. Behold, now is the day of salvation." (2 Corinthians 6:2)

Glory was never meant to be delayed.

It was made manifest.

In The Invention of the Funeral Gospel Modern Christianity has done something terrible: It has wrapped the blazing, immortal light of the gospel in funeral clothes.

"You'll be free when you die."

"He's in a better place now."

"One day we'll rise."

They postponed resurrection.

They postponed glory.

They postponed the finished work into the afterlife.

But Paul says clearly — death is abolished and life and immortality are brought to light now.

What This Lie Has Done:

It has created a passive, waiting church.

A church that...

Accepts suffering as destiny

Calls decay "God's plan"

Glorifies death as the doorway to Christ

Ignores the very power of the resurrection it claims to believe

Instead of walking in victory, we bury it.

Instead of reigning in life, we suffer through it.

Instead of becoming sons, we stay as orphans waiting for a future home.

The Glory Is Now

"Christ in you, the hope of glory." (Colossians 1:27)

Not someday in the clouds.

Not after the casket.

Now.

Here.

In you.

The glory has appeared.

The veil has been torn.

The Spirit of Life dwells in your mortal body — and that Spirit does not age, does not die, does not decay.

The delay is over.

The manifestation has begun.

The lie must be confronted.

A Word to the Sons:

You are not waiting to be made glorious — You are being changed from glory to glory.

You are not waiting to enter immortality — You are being swallowed by it now.

"I renounce the lie of delayed glory."

"I will not call death my deliverer."

"I receive the life that has been brought to light — through the gospel."

The Gospel of Incorruption

"...and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel."

— 2 Timothy 1:10

This is the gospel.

Not religion.

Not behavior modification.

Not a ticket to heaven.

But the revelation of life and immortality — now.

The gospel is not a motivational message or a church invitation.

It is a divine announcement:

Death has been overthrown.

Life has triumphed.

Immortality is unveiled — and it belongs to the sons.

The Gospel We Were Never Told What we heard growing up was a gospel of:

Getting saved to escape hell

Trying hard to be holy

Waiting to die and go to heaven

But that's not Paul's gospel.

Paul preached a gospel that revealed a new species of man — born of resurrection, baptized in incorruptibility, filled with a life that cannot be killed.

The True Gospel:

Jesus didn't just die for your sins — He died to kill death itself.

He didn't just rise — He became the prototype of immortal sons.

He didn't just forgive — He imparted a new nature that cannot die.

This is the gospel of the Kingdom —

The gospel of incorruption.

The gospel that abolishes death and replaces it with indestructible life.

Incorruption Is Your New DNA The word incorruption (Greek: aphtharsia) means:

Without decay

Not subject to destruction

Free from death

Unfading, immortal

This is the life you now carry in your spirit — and it is swallowing your mortality day by day as your mind is renewed.

"The Spirit of Him that raised Jesus from the dead shall also quicken your mortal body..."

— Romans 8:11

🦊 Why This Gospel Is Hidden

Because Babylon cannot control incorruptible people.

You can't manipulate a man who knows he'll never die.

You can't threaten a son who has no fear of death.

You can't enslave someone who lives in another realm.

That's why the religious system buried this gospel.

They don't want to lose power.

But the Spirit is raising it again — in you.

Receive This Gospel:

You are not a sinner saved by grace.

You are not a dying creature trying to do your best.

You are a son of God, born from above, filled with incorruptible seed.

"Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible..."

— 1 Peter 1:23

The Trumpet Sound:

Preach this gospel.

Publish this gospel.

Proclaim it until death flees and life reigns.

Let the elect hear again:

"He hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel."

Chapter 5

From Corruption to Incorruption

Putting on the Nature That Cannot Decay

"For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality."

— 1 Corinthians 15:53

The gospel doesn't just speak to your spirit.

It speaks to your body.

It speaks to everything that once carried the curse — and announces a new order:

Corruption is being replaced.

Mortality is being swallowed.

You are putting on something eternal.

♦ The Great Exchange When Adam fell, humanity was clothed in:

| \ | n | $\sim$ | m | $\sim$ |
|----------|---|--------|---|--------|
| . ว      |   | а      |   |        |

Death

Corruption

Weakness

Dust

But in Christ, a new robe has been given.

A robe of incorruptibility.

A body that was made not for death — but for glory.

"Just as we have borne the image of the earthly, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly."

— 1 Corinthians 15:49

What Does It Mean to "Put On" Incorruption?

It doesn't mean waiting for a rapture.

It doesn't mean escaping to heaven.

It means aligning your mind with your eternal identity.

It means walking in dominion over sickness, aging, fear, and limitation.

It means receiving the gospel not just for your soul, but for your flesh.

"The same Spirit that raised Jesus from the dead shall quicken your mortal body."

— Romans 8:11

♠ The Mind of Mortality Must Be Broken Many believers are still living with a death-consciousness:

They expect their bodies to get weaker

They prepare to grow old and die

They treat physical death as "God's plan"

They think glory only comes after the grave

But the Word says:

"This mortal must put on immortality."

That means something is available now.

Something must be put on — not by dying, but by believing.

☆ Clothed in Glory

Jesus was the first to wear the new garment:

His body didn't rot in the tomb

His flesh did not decay

His resurrection was not just spiritual — it was bodily and incorruptible

Now He says:

"As I am, so are you in this world." (1 John 4:17)

You are not just saved.

You are being clothed in glory.

The Process of Swallowing

Paul didn't say death disappears in a blink.

He said:

"...mortality shall be swallowed up of life." (2 Cor 5:4)

It's a process.

A swallowing.

A consuming fire of incorruption entering every part of your being — until nothing of the old man remains.

Proclaim It Over Yourself: I put off corruption

I put on incorruption

I put off weakness

I put on glory

I put off mortality

I put on eternal life

Let this be your confession:

"I will not prepare for death. I will prepare for glory."

Chapter 6

This Mortal Must Put On Immortality

👑 Living the Life of the Age to Come — Now

"So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory."

— 1 Corinthians 15:54

Let the Word speak:

This mortal — not just the spiritual man, but the flesh must put on immortality.

It's not optional.

It's not poetic.

It's not symbolic.

It's the prophetic destiny of the sons of God.

Not After Death — But in Place of It

Paul didn't say, "After you die, you'll be immortal." He said, "This mortal must put on immortality."

The gospel doesn't rescue you from the body — it redeems the body.

The cross doesn't delay your victory — it delivers it now.

The resurrection isn't a future event — it's a present possession working in you.

Immortality isn't what happens after the funeral — it's what happens instead of one.

The Process of "Putting On"

Just as you put on Christ by faith,

Just as you put on righteousness by the Spirit,

Now you must put on immortality — by revelation.

When you believe the gospel of life, your thinking changes.

When your mind is renewed, your body begins to respond.

When the Spirit fills your temple, death loses access.

"Be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind..." (Romans 12:2)

Transformation is not a magic trick — it's the manifestation of truth believed.

The systems of men teach:

"No one escapes death"

"All flesh must pass away"

"Death is how we go to glory"

But the gospel declares:

"He hath abolished death"

"Christ has brought life and immortality to light"

"We shall not all sleep"

Jesus said:

"He that liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?" (John 11:26)

Most won't preach it.

Few believe it.

But Zion must shout it.

What Does Immortality Look Like? Unshakable peace

A glorified body in process

Divine health

Holy boldness

A fear-free life

Authority over sickness and time

Dominion over every trace of death's shadow

This is not a fantasy.

This is the inheritance of the sons.

1 Your Mortal Must Obey

This mortal must...

This body must...

This life must...

Put on what was once hidden.

"Then shall be brought to pass the saying... death is swallowed up in victory."

Not someday.

Not at your funeral.

But as you put it on.

Say It Boldly:

My mortal is not waiting to die

My mortal is learning to yield

My mortal is putting on life

I am a temple of resurrection power

I am clothed in light

I am not dying — I am being transformed

Chapter 7

The Last Enemy Is Already Defeated

X Death Was Swallowed, Not Postponed

"The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death."

— 1 Corinthians 15:26

For generations, religion has twisted this verse to mean:

"Death is still in control... one day Jesus will finally conquer it."

But they miss the revelation.

Paul wasn't predicting a future victory.

He was declaring the progressive unfolding of an already finished work and death is the final part being swallowed.

🖖 The Truth Babylon Hides

Death is not the pathway to glory.

Death is not your deliverer.

Death is not your friend.

Death is your enemy — and it has already been stripped.

"He hath abolished death..." (2 Tim 1:10)

"That through death, He might destroy him that had the power of death..." (Hebrews 2:14)

Religion has been romanticizing the grave, but the gospel emptied it.

Calvary Was a Funeral — For Death

When Jesus went to the cross, He didn't just carry our sin...

He entered death itself, wrestled it from the inside, and emerged holding the keys.

"I am He that liveth, and was dead; and behold, I am alive forevermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death." (Revelation 1:18)

He didn't delay the defeat.

He executed it.

So Why Do People Still Die?

Not because death has power.

But because we haven't believed the gospel.

Death persists where light is absent.

But once the gospel of immortality is preached, declared, believed, and embodied — death must yield.

You can't walk in what you deny.

You can't manifest what you postpone.

You can't defeat what you partner with.

Stop Saying "Death Is Gain"

That's not the gospel — that's religious resignation.

Paul said:

"To die is gain,"

but only in the context of martyrdom, not normal Christian life.

He wasn't teaching us to embrace death — he was willing to be poured out if needed.

But his gospel was resurrection, not resignation.

"For we know that if our earthly house... were dissolved, we have a building of God..."

Yes — but why assume it must be dissolved?

Why not manifest the life that preserves the house?

Death Is the Last Lie

It hides behind theology.

It hides behind funerals.

It hides behind time.

But the light is exposing it.

And sons are waking up with fire in their bones saying:

"We shall not all sleep."

"O death, where is thy sting?"

"O grave, where is thy victory?"

Proclaim This Over Your Life:The last enemy has no claim on me

I will not glorify what Christ abolished

I will not fellowship with the grave

I carry a gospel that makes death illegal

I am not preparing to die — I am preparing to reign

Death is already defeated

Chapter 8 Living Beyond the Grave

The Life That Cannot Be Killed

"Whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?"

— John 11:26

This is the scandal of the gospel.

Jesus said it with fire in His eyes —

"Never die."

Not "die and go to heaven."

Not "die and resurrect later."

But never, die.

And then He asked the real question:

"Do you believe this?"

Most don't.

Religion doesn't.

Babylon can't.

But the sons of Zion must.

Deathless Life Is Not Fantasy

This is not theological fiction.

This is not metaphor.

This is not "spiritual-only."

This is the actual life of Christ — lived through those who walk in Him.

"I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me."

— Galatians 2:20

And Christ cannot die again.

He is incorruptible, immortal, and eternal — and He lives in you.

Characteristics of the Deathless Life

- 🦊 Peace that cannot be shaken
- 🦊 Boldness that doesn't fear time, age, or sickness
- Note and the identity rooted in resurrection
- of the state of th
- 🧚 Unhindered fellowship with God no veil, no fear, no curse

You are not waiting for heaven.

Heaven is flowing through you.

You are not on your way to glory —

You are a glory carrier.

Deathless Living Begins in the Mind You must think immortality before you walk in it.

"To be spiritually minded is life and peace."

- Romans 8:6

If you expect decay, you'll accommodate it.

If you assume death is inevitable, you'll never resist it.

But if you renew your mind with resurrection truth — your body will begin to respond.

"Be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind..." (Romans 12:2) That transformation is not just mental — it touches every cell.

⚠ The World Preaches Death Daily You hear it in:

Medicine

News

Entertainment

The calendar ("you're getting older")

Even funerals in the Church

But we preach another life.

A new species of man.

A kingdom where death is not allowed.

The elect are not built to die.

We are built to manifest unending life.

Declare It Boldly: I am not under the curse of Adam

I am not preparing for death — I am revealing life

I am a container of the incorruptible Christ

My life cannot be stolen, broken, or cut off

I will live beyond the grave — because I already passed through it in Him

You are not living toward the grave — You are living from resurrection.

You died already.

You were raised already.

Now live as one who cannot die again.

Chapter 9

The Immortality of the Manchild

"And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron..."

— Revelation 12:5

There is a generation unlike any before it.

Not just faithful. Not just holy. Not just prophetic.

But immortal.

They are the Manchild company — a people birthed from Zion, caught up into God, and ordained to rule in life without seeing death.

This is not fantasy.

This is the mystery of sonship — now being unveiled to the elect.

Who Is the Manchild?

The Manchild is not one person.

It is a corporate son — a mature expression of Christ birthed out of the woman (the Church) but separated from her systems.

They are not under religion.

They are not waiting to escape.

They are caught up to God and His throne — living from heaven, while walking in the earth.

"As He is, so are we in this world."

— 1 John 4:17

The Mark of the Manchild: Incorruption

This son doesn't prepare for death.

He prepares to reign.

He wears robes of incorruption

He walks in resurrection identity

He speaks with the authority of Zion

He carries a body being transformed — not by time, but by truth

"This mortal must put on immortality."

— and the Manchild puts it on.

X The Dragon Fears This Company

Why is the Manchild caught up?

Why is he immediately placed before the throne?

Because this son terrifies hell.

The dragon doesn't mind:

Church members

Religious routines

Future-focused Christianity

But the dragon hates the Manchild because he knows once this son is revealed, the age of death is over.

"For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God."

— Romans 8:19

This Generation Shall Not Die

There will be a people who will not see the grave. Not because of avoidance — but because of revelation.

They will walk in full dominion

They will shake nations

They will not age as others age

They will overcome the natural realm with divine substance

"We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed..."

— 1 Corinthians 15:51

This is not a rapture escape — It is a Zion coronation.

Declare It:

I am part of the Manchild company

I was born of Zion, not Babylon

I am not waiting to die — I am preparing to reign

I walk in the life of Him who cannot die

I will manifest the immortality I carry

1 The Time Is Now

This son is not coming.
He is being revealed.
And death knows it.

Let the elect arise.

Let the sons of God stand in their place.

Let the Manchild wear his crown.

Chapter 10

Zion's Trumpet Over the Nations

Description Proclaiming the Deathless Gospel to the Ends of the Earth

"Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God hath shined."

— Psalm 50:2

"The Lord shall roar out of Zion, and utter His voice from Jerusalem... and the heavens and the earth shall shake..."

— Joel 3:16

We were not called to whisper.

We were not called to hide behind doctrine, wait for heaven, or beg men to be saved. We were called to proclaim a gospel that has destroyed death, revealed life, and uncovered immortality.

This gospel is not cultural.

Not denominational.

Not optional.

It is the announcement from Zion to every nation:

"He hath abolished death — and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel!"

😚 This Message Must Be Preached

To the nations of the world to the tribes, to the tongues, to the islands, to the ashes of Babylon...

There is a trumpet sounding now.

It does not carry fear.

It does not carry death.

It carries fire.

It carries resurrection.

It carries the decree of finished victory.

Death is finished.

The grave is crushed.

The reign of life has begun.

Sons are arising.

Zion is speaking.

We are not waiting for revival.

We are revealing the immortal company.

The voice of the gospel has shifted from invitation to manifestation.

The Trumpet Has a Sound And this is that sound:

"No more death."

"No more waiting."

"No more graves."

"Come out of the tombs, O sons of light!"

"Rise and rule — for you carry the life of the ages!"

Proclaim It Over Your City, Nation, Region: Zion is speaking

Life is rising

The curse is broken

The sons are marching

The trumpet is sounding

The last enemy is under our feet

Final Commissioning:

You, reader, are not just a believer.

You are a messenger.

You are not just reading truth —

You are carrying a trumpet in your belly.

Preach it.

Post it.

Publish it.

Declare it.

Teach it.

Live it.

Be it.

Let the nations hear the sound that breaks their chains.

"Proclaim ye this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men..." — Joel 3:9

Zion is awake.

The mighty are rising.

Death is done.

Let the gospel run.
